NAOMI AND THE SEGO'S

DIXIE MELODY BOYS

What's Happening

The Bethlehem Baptist Church recently held a Revival at their church, April 18 through 30. Rev. Irvin Milby was the Evangelist from the Summersville Baptist Church. There were large crowds at each service. Rev. Gary Ervin reports fifteen Profession's of Faith, twenty-seven Rededications, and thirty-two joined the church.

The Conquerers of Greensburg, Ky. did the special singing. Rev. Gary Ervin, pastor.

On April 25, 26, 27 - the McCubbins were in Revival at the Benton Baptist Church. Rev. Bobby Slagle pastor. There were several Profession's of Faith and numerous Rededications. This area is easy to work in. The people come to church early and stay late. It was really a joy to be with Bro. and Mrs. Bobby Slagle and their family also Bro. Anson Perkins. Rev.

Perkins of Monticello was the Evangelist for this Revival.

The Big Gospel Music Expo 1980 was a success with a number of Gospel Groups performing and good crowds attending all three sessions. The Hinsons, Dixie Melody Boys, Danny Gaither, Telestials, Gospel Truth, Harvest Time Singers, New Rangers, the Kingsmen, Teddy Huffam and the Gems, Naomi and Segos, the McCubbins Family, and the Florida Boys, Wayne Berry, president of B.G.M. Associates was well pleased with crowds, groups and also the Talent Review which was held on Saturday afternoon with 49 groups entering the contest.

The winners of the Talent Review was 1st place Aubrey Bowles, 2nd place went to David Pitts, and Song of David, 3rd place went to the Religious Gospelsaires, 4th to The Childress Family.

Top Ten Songs

1. Oh Buddha - The Imperials.
2. I'm In This Church - The Hemphills.
3. Praise The Lord - The Imperials.
4. Satisfied - The Kingsmen.
5. Come Morning' - Rex Nelon Singers.
6. A Wedding Invitation - The Inspirations.
7. Rise Again - Dallas Holm.
8. Gone - Teddy Huffam and the Gems.

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor:

I want to let you know how much I enjoyed meeting you folks in Louisville on April 18th and 19th. I really did get a blessing from your fine singing on Saturday Evening. I am also glad I bought your 3 albums from you. I like all three of them. Your live album is just great. You must have had a blessed service the evening you recorded that album. I wish I could have been there to praise the Lord with you. I must have a hundred live albums in my record collection, but from just listening to your live album once, it is already one of my favorite live albums. I bought 18 albums at the singing in Louisville. I have gotten more albums through the mail and at other gospel concerts since returning home from Louisville. I have 5972 LP albums at this time. I am right proud to add your albums to my collection. I read the copy of Gospel Reaching Out you gave me in Louisville, and really enjoyed reading it. I would like to subscribe to it for a year. My payment of $3.00 is enclosed for it.

If the Lord tarries, and you should record another album, I would greatly appreciate you letting me know when it is available.

God Bless each of you as you sing and witness for our Savior. Thank you for your hospitality to me at Louisville.

"The Preacherboy" in revival services

In 1965 in the beautiful mountains of Western North Carolina a seventeen year old boy, Eddie Deitz, now known to thousands of people as "The Preacherboy," surrendered to the Lord to preach the gospel. On that day a calling for evangelism was placed in his young heart. His name, however, was not heard from that day in 1965 until late in 1969. Although he preached as a pastor and sang throughout Western North Carolina for four years, his dream for evangelism was not fulfilled.

Then in 1969 his name as "The Preacherboy" began to be heard by American people night after night as he was introduced from the stage by Martin Cook as a member of the Inspirations.

For over ten years, Eddie sang baritone for the Inspirations. During that tenure he recorded over fifteen long play albums, appeared with the Inspirations as a regular member of the nationally syndicated "Gospel Singing Jubilee" for over five years, appeared on the Roger Mudd CBS prime time news cast in 1970, appeared in approximately two hundred cities per year with the Inspirations, accepted with the Inspirations the award for the favorite gospel group six different times, was voted the favorite baritone of America three times with the most recent vote coming in 1979. Eddie was also honored in 1974 with the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from the Calvary Bible College in Jonesboro, Georgia. In 1977 he was voted by the Jaycees of America as one of the outstanding Young Men of America for that year.

Eddie is best known for his solo's on the songs "A Rose Among The Thorns" and "Looking For You."

In 1979 Eddie felt the need of following the Lord into his calling of full-time preaching evangelism and formed the "Eddie Deitz Evangelistic Association." Now with Conrad Hefner, choir director, soloist and lead singer; Mike Wood, pianist and baritone, Eddie is traveling America in Crusade and one day rally services still singing the Gospel to your heart with the "Singing Evangelists," but most importantly preaching that same gospel as "The Preacherboy."

His prayer is Psalm 85, 6 "Wilt Thou not revive us again, that Thy people may rejoice in Thee?"

The Milltown United Methodist Church and pastor Rev. Garry Polston invite you to join us in special services on Father's Day, June 15 with the opportunity to hear The Singing Evangelists, and the preaching of Dr. Eddie Deitz. Three great services, 11 a.m. after the service, a pot luck lunch will be served at the church, another service at 1:30 p.m. and an evening service at 6:30 p.m.

For more information, call Rev. Garry Polston, 502-384-5268. The Church is located just off Hwy. 61, between Greensburg, and Columbia, Ky.
