WHEAT THREASHING TIME

By Curd Edmunds, 411 Siddens Rd, Glasgow, KY.

Wheat threshing time was a great time every year in July. The wonderful thing was how we loved our neighbors, the ones who had small crops would help the ones with large crops until all their wheat was in the barns. We had two barns and an old tenant house to store it in. I remember when there were no tractors and the thresher was pulled with a huge frightening steam engine shaking and spewing steam and smoke. Mother would tell us they sometimes blew up and killed men. When they came a man always came with a load of wood to fire the boiler and another with a wagon load of wooden barrels of water. My cousin Clarence Edmunds as a young man was hauling the barrels of water and while going down our cave hill to the spring, he turned the wagon over and spilled the barrels out of the wagon.

I believe it took some two weeks to thresh all the wheat and it was very hard and hot labor as it took a lot of lifting to load all the wheat on to the wagons and off with forks. A man stood on a platform to feed the bundles of wheat into the thresher. There was a platform on each side of him a little higher than his waist. A wagon was on each side of the thresher loaded with bundles of wheat tied with binder twine. As the man on the wagon threw the bundles on the platform, a man or boy cut the twine so the feeder could feed the wheat easier. A long pipe blew the straw up on the rick and the wheat grain came out into a pipe on the side of the thresher into 1/2 bushel buckets. It was put into sacks that held 2 bushels. These sacks weighed 120 pounds and two men would grab each end of the sacks and throw them on a wagon and haul them to the barn. Clarence was known for his huge muscles and great hands. He was one of the main feeders for years and the dust was terrible. They tied handkerchiefs over their nose and mouth for protection.

One thing we all loved was the huge dinners the women cooked. The tables were loaded. Whow! One time as we were washing at the spring before dinner at Robert Brooks' place, we heard a loud crash and women ran out of the house saying that the table broke in the middle and all the food was piled up in the middle of the table. We had the first goat meat I had ever eaten and it was delicious. Today farmers have machinery that does nearly all the hard work. We got to know one another in those days. These memories are still precious. The picture shows the way it was. Many of the men are now gone across the river of no return. I hope you enjoy this as much as I did writing it. Curd.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF KATIE MAUDE SMITH

Former president of the South Central Kentucky Historical and Genealogical Society and a member for over 20 years, we have lost not only a tireless worker in the preservation of family histories, but we have lost a friend.

Katie Maude was born March 24, 1916 in Barren County, the daughter of James L and Iva Franklin Sater. She was a nurses aide and a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Glasgow. She died February 28, 1994 in Glasgow and leaves a large family to mourn her. Survivors include two sons, Jimmy Smith of Glasgow and Charles Billy Smith of Smiths Grove; three daughters, Barbara Wheeler and Martha Blakley, both of Glasgow, and Maryline Strahley of Georgia; a brother, Wendell Sater of Indianapolis, IN; 14 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Memorial Services were held Wednesday, March 2nd at the A F Crow & Son Funeral Home with interment in the Lick Branch Cemetery.

All the officers and members of the Society extend their deepest sympathy to Katie Maude's family in their time of grief.

I would like to pay a special tribute to Katie Maude Smith, a lady I dearly loved. She was like a second mother to me; when my daughters and I moved to Glasgow from Arizona with our own family many miles away, Katie "adopted" us all. She became a true friend, a supporter of my efforts to preserve the records of Barren County; someone I could turn to when I was down. Many times during the last two years when she was not able to attend the meetings anymore, my phone would be ringing as I came in the door as she wanted to know what had happened. She supported the Society and regretted so much that she was not able to actively participate.

Katie Maude was a very special lady. She loved all her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren with all of her heart. She had a deep abiding faith in the Lord and a cheerful spirit. She was an inspiration to all of us. Katie Maude, we love you. We miss you. But, I know beyond a doubt that Katie will "dwell in the house of the Lord forever". (Psalm 23). Sandi Gorin, March 2, 1994.

1860 BARREN CO KY VITAL STATISTICS - DEATHS
Submitted by Sandi Gorin.

The 1850, 1860 and 1870 vital statistics were kept in separate books not microfilmed with the regular rolls. These death records are different from the others as the parent/owner of the individual dying was never shown, nor the day of death. A column was added showing the number of days the individual was ill. Listed below are the deaths shown for Barren County with the exception of about 10 names that were totally faded out and unreadable. Vital Statistics records are invaluable when a person died without a will, died between the census years, or when the cemetery has not been located. NOTE: All births in KY unless otherwise noted. # after cause of death indicates length of illness. Month shown is month of death.

HISTORY OF CAVE CITY BAPTIST CHURCH

Submitted by Juanita Bardin

(Taken from the Glasgow Republican of 1963)

Cave City Baptist Organized Back in 1856: On March 31, 1820, Mathew Crews and his wife, Polly, conveyed to New Hope Baptist Church a small tract of land one mile east of the village of "Jennie" for the purpose of erecting thereon, a meeting house.

This deed is of record in Book One, page 267, Barren County Clerk's Office, duly recorded.

This small tract later became a part of the farm owned by the late Mr Charlie Monroe. This is the church to which Baptists in the Cave City area originally belonged.

Some years ago, Earle Dickey, the veteran historian of Cave City to which The Republican Staff is grateful in helping compile this church story, was presented one of the minute books of the above church from the beginning date which was February 2, 1856, with John D Martin, Clerk. It states on the flyleaf that it is the second volume of minutes and that the constitution of the church could be found in Volume one. The minute book is in the old time ornate script and after 107 years is perfectly legible. It is probable that quill pen was used and the ink contrived at home.

On a date, that cannot be ascertained, the Methodists, Baptists, Disciples of Christ, and perhaps the Presbyterians, united in erecting a house of worship where the present day Christian church now stands and this building was jointly used for a number of years.

During the night of January 17, 1870, one of the ministers, serving the church, preached on the theme, "he that sows to the wind shall reap the whirlwind." Before morning, the great storm of that date destroyed this union Church and much of Cave City. Some time thereafter, the present Christian Church Building was erected but the exact date is not known. During the pastorate of Rev. Richard Ganter, a few years ago, it was discovered at the Clerk's office in Glasgow, that Cave City Baptists had never released their rights in this union property and a quit-claim was cleared on the property.

Very few of the ancient records of the Cave City Baptist Church now exist but about 1870, the Baptists decided to erect their own house of worship and Mr Dickey's father, the late Elkanah Dickey, a long time deacon and leader in the church, was selected to purchase a suitable lot and to raise the necessary money for the lot and church building. He preserved the subscription paper and it is available for viewing at Mr Dickey's residence for anyone desiring to see same.

It was not long after the Civil War, when the drive was made, and times were at a low level; however, the elder Dickey headed the list with a $100 donation. He and the late Mr J Cope Walton had formed a partnership and operated a general store which covered the block which is now partially occupied by Hotel Dixie and Handy & Reynolds.

The lot where the present church is situated was purchased and a frame building was erected. About ten years later, on a Sunday morning a severe thunderstorm arose during the services at the church, lightning struck, a fire broke out and the building was destroyed. Only the organ and pews were salvaged.

This dealt the church a severe blow. However, under the pastorate of the Rev N G Terry, plans were formulated to erect the present building.

In 1925, with a bequest from the will of the late Miss Mollie Mills, a new front, including Sunday School rooms, were added.

Several years ago, the late Arch B Davis, son of Hardin Young Davis, bequeathed a considerable sum to the church in memory of his parents, and this was used to refinish, both interior and exterior, the old building, to purchase new pews, purchase wall-to-wall carpeting, and do other necessary repairs to the building.

The present educational building was constructed during the pastorate of Rev M A Reese. The church later purchased a corner lot adjoining the church property and now owns the block on Broadway from 2nd street to the alley adjacent to the Gardner Hotel.

Cave City Baptist Church, for many years, was known as the "United Baptist Church of Cave City." As revealed by the minutes, the last meeting of New Hope Baptist Church of Christ was held on the first Saturday in February, 1867, and on the first Saturday in March 1867, New Hope was merged with Cave City, and thus the old pioneer church near "Jennie" ceased to exist.

Mr Dickey (we respect his memories), has long believed that the present New Hope Baptist Church, near Shady Grove, is a "splinter" off the old church. However, his intentions cannot be proved a reality.

The early church, who has been the case thru most Church records, was very strict in many instances, many members were brought before the congregation on charges of dancing, drinking and other instances that led to exclusion.

Early leaders in the Cave City Baptist Church were: Dr W E Garnett; H Y Davis; L A Downer; E Dickey; William Neville; Baker Hatcher; G H Ford; T H Hatcher; Branch Hatcher; W T Bush; Cyrus Dickey and W A Huggins.

The present membership is currently 450 with full time program for all ages. Although a complete list of the ministers is not available, the memory of both men and women who have served the church has stood for many years to the spiritual needs of the people of the Cave City area.

Another article was enclosed: The Cave City Baptist Church was originally the New Hope Baptist Church and the old church building stood on the farm owned by Mr Charlie Monroe one mile east of Jennie. The ground on which the building stood was deeded to the church by Matthew and Polly Crews on March 31, 1820, and this deed is on record in the County Clerk's office in Glasgow.

The New Hope Church became a part of the Cave City Baptist Church when the latter was organized in 1867. For a number of years the Baptist congregation worshiped in the Presbyterian meeting house at Cave City which stood where the Lonnie De Weese warehouse is now located.

In 1879 the Baptist congregation decided to build a church of their own, and the lot where the present building now stands was bought and a frame structure erected thereon. The late Mr Elkanah Dickey was active in the affairs of the church and aided materially in securing the funds to construct same.

The original resolutions, drawn up March 15, 1879, concerning construction of the Cave City Baptist Church are as follows: "Resolved that brethren E Dickey, L A Downer, Dr W E Garnett, Baker Hatcher and William Neville be and are hereby appointed as a building committee with Instructions and power to raise the means and superintend the erection of a suitable meeting house for the use of the Cave City Baptist Church on the most convenient and eligible lot that can be procured in Cave City. All subscriptions for said house are to be paid to Bro Dickey as treasurer and paid out by him as said committee may direct."

The original subscription list of the Cave City Church in 1879 has been preserved. Those donating to the building fund were as follows:

(Names only are herewith shown, staff): E Dickey, Wm Neville, L A Downer, G H Ford, T H Hatcher, Branch Hatcher Jr, J E Self, W T Bush, D M Porter, Tabitha A Dickey, Cyrus Dickey, W M Ford Sr, W A Huggins, Thos J Hardy, R J Leavell, W E Garnett, W H Pace, M P Hatcher, W F Redford, Isaac N Martin, Jas T Brady, R L Jolly, J. B Whitney, John H Dickey, Jas J Brooks, E M Hatcher, Gardner & Oster, H S Showdy, E G Wilcoxson, F McCown, R J Sublett.

Subscribers to the church lot were: E Dickey, J C Walton, D M Porter, R J Leavell, Jas P Nevell, J T Brady.

In 1889, ten years after this meeting house was erected, it was struck with lightning and burned. The large brick building which replaced it was built in 1890 and remodeled in 1925. Prior to the burning of the old church, Rev N G Terry was the pastor and Messrs Elkanah Dickey, W E Garnett, H Y Davis and T H Hatcher were deacons.

Rev N G Terry was pastor of the Cave City Baptist Church for a number of years. He resigned in 1893 to accept a call to the Glasgow Baptist Church. The trees that now stand in the yard of the Baptist Church property were planted by the late Mr Elkanah Dickey.

Pastors that have served the church are as follows: Revs N G Terry, James Chenault, Granville Dockery, W H Smith, J Tabb, W P Meroney, T F Gider, A S Hale, G W Spalawn, Rev Plybon, James Middleton, J H Ramsey, Matthews, Burrell, Tom Dunlap and Ray Dean.

The present pastor is Rev M Andy Reese and the deacons are: T M Lee, chairman; B B Duek, Herschel Huffman, Elvin Bardin, Boss Bardin, Walter Lyon, Lute Lee, Ira Bishop, J K Farris and Will Farris, T M Lee is treasurer and B B Duke is clerk. Trustees are J K Farris, T M Lee and Edwin Terry.

Church deed was derived from W L Wilson and J T Hughes dated May 17, 1879 - Recorded in book 14, page 58. Town lot No is 76. This deed is now in lock box No 28 in the H Y Davis Bank. The church also received a 10 foot strip of land from H Y Davis which is mentioned in the deed referred to. Parsonage deed secured in 1948 and recorded in book 122, page 369, lot 5.

GRANDFATHER SAM MURRELL'S AUTOGRAPH

Submitted by Robert Page Watson, 204 Pinewood Drive, Schenectady, NY 12303-5616.

"No man has the moral or religious right to spend his life in idleness.

It is the fiat of our Creator that man shall eat his bread by the sweat of his face. For the consideration of my grand-son, W D Murrell from his grandfather. /s/ Samuel Murrell, Age - 91 years.

Oakland - Warren County, Ky
Feb 1, 1883.

My Grandson, W D Murrell,

You request me to place my autograph in your album. My age admonishes that if I intend doing so I should not postpone doing it. What would my simple name signify on a blank sheet of paper? Nothing more than to show the chirography of a very old man. Most people feel some curiosity to know to what race of human family they belong, so I have concluded to tell you something of your kindred, some of whom and of which you already know, but some you do not. You will find it a very mixed up concern. I will start with myself. I was born in Lincoln County, Ky, on the 24th of June, 1792. My parents were Virginians and emigrated to Ky in the Fall of the year, 1781. My father and grandfather, both by the name of George, as well as my grandmother whose maiden name was Janetta Channing, were natives of Virginia of English descent. My mother's name was Sally Blaine, her father's name was Alexander Blaine, a Scotch-Irishman, who emigrated to America when a young man, landed in Philadelphia and married a young woman in Pennsylvania who I presume from her name was either Scotch or Irish stock as her name was Hannah McCurry.

They moved to Virginia and raised a large family of whom my mother was the youngest. I have heard her say she was born on the day of Braddock's defeat. My grand-father's family moved to Kentucky a few years after my father died and settled in (t)his neighborhood and lived to be very old people. I can recollect them both, remember being at their burial.

My grand-mother Murrell came to KY with her youngest son, Samuel Murrell, in the Fall of 1806 and lived with him some six or seven years before her death. She was a bright and strong minded old woman. My mother died in the summer of 1807 and my father died in Frankfort in January 1814. He was in the Senate from Lincoln and Casey Counties, and was brought home and buried.

I married my wife, your grand-mother, in this county. You know her name was Elizabeth R Sterritt. Her father was Irish by birth but brought to America when an infant and raised in Virginia, and he married Mary Brooks whose father was an Irishman, but her mother whose name was Elizabeth Woods was of English descent.

I have come down to your mother's people. Your grand-father Skiles was of Danish descent. Your grand-mother Skiles, you know was an Underwood, and her mother was a Rogers, Virgians and of English descent both Rogers and Underwoods.

This information counts very little. The stock on both sides have been respectable, some on both sides of distinction, and no doubt in so large a flock there has been and still are some scabby ones.

It is gratifying to look back on our ancestry and know that they are upright and respectable people, but we must not bank upon their reputation. We must be the engineers of our own fortunes and reputations in this world. Their reputations and good standing is available in giving us a good start, but it soon loses its potency if you do not seek to improve it. I have used more space than is allowable to an album.

May the good Father support and sustain you is the wish and prayer of your old grand-father. Signed - Samuel Murrell.

Notes on this letter: This letter is a typescript copy now in the collection of the Alderman Library of The University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA. It is filed as: Accession No of Collection 10687, Box Number 24, in a folder headings: Murrell Family. It was given roughly fifty years ago to an elderly lady in Charlottesville doing genealogical research for Dr James W Gorin, 206 E 45th Street, Savannah, Ga. This lady presented it to the library archives.

The following marriages are found in the records of Lincoln Co Ky, 1780-1850:

George Murrell and Lucinda Blain

23 Oct 1809

Samuel Murrell and Letitia Hays	18 Nov 1823
Thomas Murrell and Rachel Holt	14 May 1796
John M Reed and Linsey Murrell	28 Apr 1810
Levi Talbot and Elizabeth A Murrell	29 Jan 1844
Thomas Thurman and Sarah Murrell	02 Mar 1830
Samuel Williams and Louisa Murrell	04 Aug 1845

Janetta Channing Murrell died 10 Oct 1814 in Barren Co KY, while living with her son Col Samuel Murrell, a veteran of the American Revolution. She is buried in the Murrell Cemetery on the James Chamberlain farm on South Fork Road - Glasgow South 15. Latitude 36 deg 57' 51", Longitude 85 deg 58' 30". The cemetery is well away from the road. Her stone gives: Janett Murrell (died) Oct 10, 1814 age 92 years. Mother. The stone is now lying face to the ground and is adjacent to a large monument to her son Col Samuel Murrell. She was apparently called Janetta, Janett and Janet. Robert Page Watson is the great-great-great-grandson of Janetta Channing Murrell.

Additional information by Sandi Gorin: Samuel Murrell was born 21 May 1756 in Albamarle Co VA; died 8 Sept 1836 in Barren Co. He married 1784 to Susanna Puryor in VA, the dau of Hezekiah. She was born 12 March 1766, died 20 Nov 1852 Barren Co. They are buried in the same cemetery referred to above. Their son William C Murrell md Eliza Garnett and had daughter Helen Murrell (b 1830, died 1905) who md 11 June 1846 Dr James Wilson Gorin. Samuel and Susanna had also Samuel Murrell Jr married 8 Mar 1825 Elizabeth Stirrett. Samuel Jr and Elizabeth had as their son Hezekiah P Murrell b 21 Jan 1795, died 21 Oct 1865, md 2 Oct 1822 to Elizabeth Gorin in Barren Co, daughter of John and Elizabeth Franklin Gorin. Samuel Jr and Elizabeth had also James Murrell who was b 10 Jan 1799, d 8 Apr 1849 in New Orleans. He married Harriet Moss 10 Nov 1832. Their son Henry C Murrell was b 17 June 1832 and married Emma Gorin.

THE REUBIN LOLLAR FAMILY

In the very early 1800's, three brothers from North Carolina came to Cumberland Co., KY. to settle. Their names were Reubin, James and Jacob Lollar. Reubin had the following grants: 12 September, 1805, middle fork of Judio Creek; 5 December, 1805, 300 acres on the middle fork of Kettle Creek; and 20 May, 1809, 270 acres on Greasy Creek. James and Jacob also settled in the same immediate area. These brothers had come from Lincoln County, NC and were sons of Henry Lollar, who later migrated to Cumberland Co. to join his sons.

Henry Lollar first appeared as an adult in the 1768 tax list of Rowan Co., NC, along with Isaac Lollar, Sr. and Isaac Lollar, Jr. Henry is thought by most researchers to be the son of Isaac, Sr., but it has not been proven. There is also no knowledge of where this Lollar line originated.

Based on the assumption that 21 was the legal age, this would place Henry Lollar's birth at 1747 or earlier. On 1 October, 1770, Henry Lollar is found as a witness to a sale of land on Anderson Mountain Creek from Michael and Elizabeth Heckelman to Samuel Martin. Isaac Lollar was also a witness to this transaction. In May of 1774, Henry served on the jury in Salisbury District, and in August of the same year, Henry was found guilty of "hog stealing" and paid 10 pounds to Isaac Lollar. There is no indication if this is a prank or family quarrel, or if the money was paid to Isaac, Sr. or Jr.

On 28 August, 1778, Henry Lollar purchased land on Mountain Creek adjoining Robert Biggam Perkins. In the April 1786 court of Lincoln Co., NC, Francis McCorkle proved the deed for 490 acres of land purchased by Henry Lollar from Richard Perkins and wife Martha on 10 July, 1785. On 7 October, 1876, Henry Lollar sold 50 acres to Malachi Fyke.

The 1790 census of Lincoln Co., NC shows Henry Lollar with a family of three males under sixteen and four females. He is listed in various other county entries until 24 September, 1805, when he sold land to Aaron Stacey. From that time until 1818, nothing is known of Henry Lollar's whereabouts.

On 17 January, 1818, Henry Lollar purchased land from Elijah Jackson. The deed was for an 81-acre tract of land on Judio Creek of Cumberland Co., KY., adjoining Jacob Lollar, James Lollar and R. Green. In the 1820 census, Henry and his wife are both listed as being over 45 years of age. They are the only two members of the household.

Apparently Henry Lollar died before 1830, for he is not listed as head of a household in the census schedule of that year. There is an elderly female, 80-90 years old, listed in the household of Reubin Lollar that year, possibly the widow Lollar. We know Henry Lollar was still alive in late 1820 when a letter was written from family member Ninian Hamilton to his brother. In a letter dated 24 October, 1820, Ninian tells his brother that Jacob Lollar has migrated to Missouri, and that "old Henry" Lollar had written "young Henry" the news.

The name of Henry Lollar's wife has never been learned, nor her death date. In circuit court records of Cumberland Co., KY., we find a lawsuit filed in 1849 to settle the estate of Henry Lollar, deceased, of Cumberland Co., KY. One wonders why the heirs waited so long to make a settlement, but apparently Henry's widow had lived an extremely long time. From some of the wording in the suit, pertaining to improvements made in the last five years, it would appear that she possibly lived until 1844. From the lawsuit we learn the names of the children of Henry Lollar:

1. Rachel Lollar, born 10 October, 1776 in Lincoln Co., NC, died in November of 1851 in Cabarrus Co., NC. She married George Garmon or Gorman on 12 December, 1791.
2. Jacob Lollar, born ca. 1770-1780, died before 14 January, 1824 in St. Louis Co., MO, married Margaret Hamilton in 1795 in Lincoln Co., NC. Heirs of Jacob Lollar, deceased, are mentioned in the lawsuit among Henry Lollar's heirs.
3. James Lollar, born ca. 1780 in NC, died between 22 June and 22 August, 1851 in Cumberland Co., leaving a widow named Christine who possibly was a Matlock.
4. Reubin Lollar, born ca. 1781-86 in NC, died prior to October, 1856 in Cumberland Co., KY., married Rebecca Collier, according to descendant Lewis G. Stewart, who said he had been told Rebecca's maiden name by her son, James W. "Jimmy" Lollar.
5. Rilla Lollar, (possibly Averilla), who was living in White Co., TN. at the time of the settlement of Henry Lollar's estate. Her last name was Ward, and her husband's name was possibly Elijah or James Ward.
6. Jane Lollar, mentioned in the lawsuit as being Jane Arwood. As no husband was mentioned, she was possibly widowed by that time. It is unknown where she resided.

In the settlement of Henry Lollar's estate, the court ordered that Henry Lollar's slave, Aaron, and Henry's land be sold and the proceeds divided among the six heirs. The land was purchased by Jacob S. Lollar, son of Reubin and Rebecca, for $511.00, and the slave was purchased by Reubin Lollar for $490.00. Aaron lived the remainder of his life with Reubin Lollar's son Drury. When he died, he was buried near the gate of the family cemetery.

As mentioned earlier, Reubin Lollar died prior to October, 1856, and his son Drury purchased the shares of the other ten children and the dower share of Rebecca, Reubin's widow. Two deeds recorded in Cumberland Co., KY. give the names of the eleven children of Reubin Lollar and Rebecca Collier:

1. Jacob S. Lollar, born ca. 1806 in NC, married Elizabeth S. Gee, daughter of John S. and Susannah Gee. Jacob died in May of 1884. Jacob and Elizabeth had ten children: John H. Lollar, married Emerine Sharp; Rebecca L. Lollar, married T.J. Hopper; Ellen Lollar, never married; Felix Grundy Lollar, married Martha G. _____; Susannah G. Lollar, never married; James Lollar; Benjamin F. Lollar; Margaret B. Lollar; William B. (Bill Jake) Lollar; and Samuel B. Lollar.
2. James W. Lollar, born 15 May, 1808, died the week of March 28, 1898, married first Artensia Moses, by whom he had two daughters, Mary Ann (Polly Ann) who married Stockton Dodson, and Lucinda who married Archie Thomas Poindexter, and three sons, George, Reubin and William H. (Bill) Lollar. After the death of his first wife, James W. Lollar married the widowed Elizabeth Kerr Scott, by whom he had the following children: James Frank Lollar, married first Lydia Arms and second, Almira Lollar, his first cousin; Isaac N. Lollar; Sarah (Sally) Lollar, married her cousin William R. Smith; Jesse Lollar, married his first cousin, Emily Lollar; M.F. Lollar (female); Obedience Lollar; Lydia Lollar, married James Allen Smith, a cousin; Louisa Lollar; and Perlina Lollar, married Daniel E. Sharp.
3. Araminta Lollar, married James Allen Hall and later moved to Missouri. Her descendants are unknown.
4. Jane Lollar, born ca. 1805-06, was the second wife of Harrison Cary, by whom she had one daughter, Mary Elizabeth Cary who married William Hardin Brown, son of Elias Brown and Susannah Maucey.
5. Almira Lollar, said to have died ca. 1907-08 at the age of 94, which would place her birth year as ca. 1813-14, married Jesse Martin Smith, son of Alexander Smith and Rebecca Slaughter. They were the parents of Robert Lollar Smith; Reubin A. Smith; Amanda A. Smith who married her cousin, Robert A. Lollar; James Sperry Smith who married Cassie A.E. Philpott, daughter of John H. Philpott and Julia Cary; Franklin Smith; Mary Smith; Angie Smith who married Albert V. Snow; and Nancy Smith.
6. Reuben S. Lollar, born ca. 1819-20, married Eliza T. Hall. They were parents of Robert A. Lollar who married Amanda Smith; Almary Lollar; William T. Lollar; Emily W. Lollar who married Jesse Lollar; Orlenia Lollar who married Reubin Scott, Jr., Rufus Lollar; Virginia Lollar who married Gillis Brewington, and a son, name unknown, born in March of 1858, lived only ten days.

7. Mary Lollar, married William Jones. Names of descendants unknown.
8. Elizabeth (Betsy) Lollar, born ca. 1816-17, married Jacob Smith, son of Alexander Smith and Rebecca Slaughter. Their children were: William W. Smith, married Sallie Lollar, daughter of James W. Lollar and Elizabeth Kerr Scott; Henry Harrison Smith, married Callie Brewington; Palestine Smith, married William Albert Talbott; James Allen Smith, married Lydia Lollar, daughter of James W. Lollar and Elizabeth Kerr Scott; Polly Ann Smith, married Toe Glass; and Ruben A. Smith, married Nancy Lollar, daughter of Drury Lollar and Elizabeth McDonald.
9. Henry S. Lollar, born ca. 1816-17 in Cumberland Co., KY., married Nancy Jones who possibly was a sister to the William Jones who married Mary Lollar. Their parents have not been proven. Henry S. and Nancy Lollar migrated to Missouri prior to 1850. Henry was killed by bushwhackers near his home during the Civil War. Children of Henry S. Lollar and Nancy Jones were: James Thomas Lollar; Drury Flemon Lollar, married Mary Catherine Albert; Rebecca Lollar; Louann Lollar; Ellen Lollar; Arch Lollar, married Mima _____; Sarah Catherine Lollar; Mary Lollar; and Martha Lollar.
10. Eleanor "Ellen" Lollar, born ca. 1814, died between 1870 and 1880, never married. She lived with her brother Drury after the death of her father.
11. Drury C. Lollar, born ca. 1820, died 1908 in Cumberland Co., KY., married first Elizabeth McDonald, daughter of Michael and Elizabeth McDonald of Overton Co., TN. Their children were: Mary Ellen Lollar, married James Robert "Bob" Murley; Nancy J. Lollar, married R.A. Smith; Martha T. Lollar, never married; James Porter Lollar, married Nancy Caroline Stewart; and John H. Lollar, married Evalina Hood. After the death of his first wife, Drury married Rhoda Goodall, daughter of Ludawick Goodall and Mary Flippin. They had no children. Drury was a minister of the Church of Christ and married many young couples in the Judio area, often loaning them his own buggy for their honeymoon trips. An article in the Gospel Advocate dated January 17, 1907 mentions Drury as still preaching at the age of eighty-six.

This article was compiled by Joyce Stover, 387 Stover Road, Burkesville, KY. 42717, from numerous sources, but primarily from the research of Stover, Dolores Miltenberger of 10820 Colbert Way, Dallas, TX 75218, Helen Russell of 111 Love Street, Glasgow, KY 42141, and Ellen M. Allen, 206 Tophill Road, San Antonio, TX 78209. Russell and Stover are presently compiling information on the Reubin Lollar-Rebecca Collier family. This information is to be published. Descendants of this family may contact either party to give information they wish to include in this publication. Dolores S. Miltenberger is the author of a comprehensive work on the descendants of Jacob Lollar.
