Chuck Wagon Gang to be at Adair Co. High

November 25, 1936, at a small studio set up in a San Antonio hotel, the CHUCK WAGON GANG recorded their first song, "The Son Hath Made Me Free." These early sessions, began the most successful recording career of anyone in Gospel Music. The Chuck Wagon Gang never recorded anything but gospel. During the years the group has sold millions of albums and singles. Their records have been issued in Jamaica, Sweden, Canada, The Netherlands and other foreign countries. In September, 1955, they were presented a gold record of their recording "I'll Shout and Shine" commemorating twenty successful years on Columbia Records. That same month the National Disc Jockey Association voted them the number one gospel group in the nation. Noted performances ranged from the stage of the Grand Ole Opry and Louisiana Hayride, to a Hollywood Bowl audience of 21,000 and the first gospel concert at Carnegie Hall. In 1965 the group was proclaimed "Kentucky Colonels" by the Governor. After nearly a half century of singing in churches, auditoriums, on records, radio, and television, these veteran troupers have made their mark as a vital force in gospel music. Indeed they are a living legend. Perhaps their success has stemmed from some basic truths implanted in them many years ago by their Dad. People are looking for simplicity and sincerity when they turn from our modern world to hear about the world's greatest story - the story of Jesus. Even before retiring from the group, he told them not to forget the old songs, and the way he had taught them to sing.

The Chuck Wagon Gang has been retired for several years but are coming out of retirement this year to do only a few concerts. You will have the opportunity to see and hear them in person again, and maybe for the last time, at the Adair County High School Gym at Columbia, Kentucky. The program will also feature the Brotherhood Quartet. The concert begins at 7:00 p.m. central time. Come early for a good seat. DO NOT MISS THIS GREAT EVENT.

Gospel Singing at Bowling Green

There will be a Gospel Singing at the Greenhill Methodist Church the first Saturday night in August, which is August 2nd, featuring Joyce Black (originally with Singing Speer Family) and The Harmony Echoes. Singing begins at 7:15 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend. Greenhill Methodist Church is located near Bowling Green, Kentucky just off Cemetery Road.

Servants Anniversary Sing

The Servants Annual Anniversary Singing will be held at the Hamilton Auditorium in Campbellsville, Ky. August 2, 8:00 p.m. E.D.T.

Featured groups will be The Servants, The McCubbins Family and The Conquerors. The Servants sponsor this sing and they give everyone a special invitation.

No admission charge.

Tomes Four singing

The Tomes Four would like to announce that we are singing and are excited that God has made it possible for the original Quartet to travel again for the honor and glory of God. Our father Rev. Harlan Tomes is our bass and we feel is sounding better than ever. Clifton is now an ordained Minister and is preaching when not singing, he's still singing the first tenor. Lemar is also an ordained minister and pastor of Silent Grove Missionary Baptist Church, he's singing baritone.

I'm Wayne and still trying to sing lead, and in the past few months, I was ordained as a deacon of Lonehill United Baptist Church. Since we announced we were quitting for a while God has been using us, but we feel there is still a work for us in singing the songs of Zion. We would like to ask the prayers of all the readers and to come out and be with us where possible. If you would like an appointment contact Wayne Tomes, address in list of groups.
