Reaching Out

"GOSPEL MUSIC NEWS FROM THE 'HART' OF KENTUCKY"

Vol. 8, No. 9

MUNFORDVILLE, KENTUCKY 42765

SEPTEMBER 1980

The Spencer Family

Members of our family are JB and Barbara Spencer, our two sons Wade and Kevin and our daughter and son-in-law Geniece and Ernie Ingold.

Shortly after we were saved in 1958, JB and I began singing and our children joined in while they were very young.

We furnish our own music with Geniece playing the piano. Wade the mandolin and violin, Kevin the bass guitar and Ernie and JB plays the acoustic guitar.

We will soon be introducing our sixth record album. If you would like to know where the Spencer's will be singing, please watch for our monthly schedule in this magazine.

We are glad to be a part of Gospel Reaching Out and would like to thank the Singing Jolly's for introducing us to this magazine.

May God bless you,
The Spencer Family

Lending a Helping Hand

The Farmers Rural Electric from Glasgow is just about to begin their annual meeting at Hart County High School. The famous Rex Nelson Singers from Atlanta, Ga. are setting up - speakers in place, microphones connected; ready to test the P.A. The power amplifier will not work. That means only 30 minutes until starting time and no sound system.

Mr. Hatcher (school custodian) suggests someone contact the McCubbins Family of near Munfordville. Jack Hurt, a gospel singer, places a call. Haskell walks in the house just in time to hear phone ring. Listening to the predicament, the McCubbins Family quickly responds with their own equipment. The program begins only a few minutes late.

Letter to the McCubbins Family:

The 42nd Annual Membership Meeting of Farmers Rural Electric Cooperative was, in my opinion, highly successful. The sound equipment you provided contributed very significantly to the success of the meeting.

Thank you for coming to our rescue; we appreciate your thoughtful assistance.

Sincerely,
Fred Reeves, Director
Member Services, Dept.

Letter to the Editor

Dear friends:

We still enjoy Gospel Reaching Out every Month. We need to renew our subscription, which we're doing. We know so many of the groups listed. We're so happy to know The Tones Four are singing and working for the Lord again. Brother Harlow is an old, old friend of ours. We do pray for all of you. Keep up the Good Work. May God bless all Gospel Singers.

Work to Rev.
