REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him; stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

PREZ SEZ

THE SUMMER HEAT IS ON! July is here, but the heat cannot get us down. Boss Night is history. May I take this opportunity to THANK each of you for making it the biggest and best ever.

It is time to begin planning for our Fall Hand of Friendship Tea of Enrollment Party. Elizabeth Wilson is Fall Tea Chairman, Becky Morehead is Co-Chairman. At our dinner meeting they will present their plans and you will receive your pink Hand-of-Friendship forms. PLEASE fill these with your prospects and return to Iva as soon as possible. DO NOT CALL Iva and give her prospects over the phone, it is unfair to her and to yourself. It is from the pink form that a record is maintained of who gets credit for sponsoring a member. So please let's do it in a business manner. We are business women!

Welcome to our new members: Clara Holmes, Sarah Etherredge, Mildred Edwards, and Lois Douglas.

Congratulations to Joann Rudolph, our Anniversary chairman for a job well done. The Honors of the day went to Cindy Browning, Anna Sue Jackson, Joyce Tabor, Becky Morehead, Ann Bays, Bobbie Cardwell, Jean Fulkerson, Gladys Walker, Elizabeth Wilson, and Pat Glasscock for one year perfect attendance. Jill Gentry received the two year perfect attendance charm. Brenda Williams, seven years, Florence Perkins, nine years, and Lucille Walton, eleven years. The Chapter Merit Award, given each year to that member who has done more than anyone else for the Chapter as a whole, went to Lucille Walton, Contact Chairman--who really makes our Chapter activities click because of her devoted service to reaching each and every member for any and every purpose concerning chapter activities.

BOSS NIGHT - 1971

(Condensed from Minutes Recorded by Joyce Tabor)

OUR KENTUCKY was the theme of the eighth annual Boss Night celebration of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter on June 19, 1971 at Ramada Inn. The theme was illustrated with table decorations which denoted numerous things for which OUR KENTUCKY is known, along with background organ music as well as songs and dances. Also many members carried out the theme by dressing as Kentucky Belles. One hundred thirty four people were present.

The banquet was kicked off with a Social Hour beginning at 6:30 P.M. The hospitality table was covered with a yellow cloth with an overlay of black net and featured a beautiful flower arrangement created by Iva Miller.

Florence Perkins, Chairman of the event, presided. The Invocation was given by Jean Fulkerson, Past Southeastern District Vice President. Joyce Tabor, Corresponding Secretary, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mrs. Perkins introduced the head table, auxilliary table, past Bosses of the Year and others. We were fortunate in having representatives from 16 sister chapters, representing eight states.

The Toastmistress for the night's activities was Mary Frances Brown, Chairman of Education Projects. Pat Glasscock, President, gave the Welcome. The Employer's Response was given by Grover Holderfield, 1970 Boss of the Year.

Becky Morehead, Treasurer, gave the ABWA Local History and Creed. Each boss was given a copy of this creed.

Boss of the Year, selected earlier and kept secret until Boss Night was Mr. Willard Perkins, Manager of Detrex Cafeteria.

Mr. Perkins is the employer and husband of Mrs. Florence Perkins. Miss Barbara Farley, Boss Night Co-Chairman, read the letter of nomination and presented the plaque to Mr. Perkins.

Mrs. Ruth McKamey, National First Vice President gave the National History of ABWA.

Mrs. Ann Bays, 1970 Woman of the Year, gave the vocational talk. She is Welcome Wagon Hostess in Bowling Green.

The speaker for the evening was Mrs. Florence Barrett, National Co-ordinator and Editor of Women in Business. Mrs. Barrett's topic was "The Girl in the Gray Flannel Skirt". Mrs. Barrett spoke on fallacies of women in business. She stated that the early pioneer women were the beginning of women in business. She said women should always strive to keep themselves prepared to meet the challenge of these progressive times. Mrs Barrett also brought congratulations to our chapter from Mr. H. A. Bufton.

Pat Glasscock, President, presented Mrs. Barrett with a Kentucky Colonel Commission from Governor Louie B. Nunn. Florence Perkins presented Mrs. Barrett with a silver mint julep cup.

Florence presented gifts to her two co-chairman, Brenda and Barbara, as well as to the chairman of all committees for Boss Night. Florence was then presented with a gift for her hard work on this event.

The Benediction was read by Mrs. Iva Miller, Immediate Past President.

My sincere thanks to my Co-Chairmen, Barbara F. and Brenda W. and all other Committeemen for a very successful Boss Night.

Florence Perkins
Chairman, 1971 Boss Night

INVOCATION

Lord, in the quiet of this evening hour,
We come to Thee for wisdom, and for power;
To view Thy world through only love-filled
eyes;
To grow in understanding; to be wise
And sure to see Thy guiding light; and thus
To know each other as Thou knowest us.

Amen

BENEDICTION

O Guiding Spirit, Guardian of our days,
Be with us as we go our separate ways,
Help us to feel those thoughts that lift
and bless,
To know a closer bond of friendliness;
To see Thy beauty always---every day,
Translated into living---this we pray.

Amen
