The Council of Academic Deans met in Dr. Cravens office on Monday, October 27. All of the voting members were present and Dr. Sutton was absent for domestic reasons. Dean Charles Keown also participated in most of the meeting.

The use of the lobby areas of classroom buildings by students was discussed and it was agreed that the fruits of the discussion would be put in the form of a draft and submitted to the Council.

The majority of the meeting was devoted to the question before the Academic Council on Wednesday of this week and the position of the deans on certain alternatives was assessed.

The members of the Council were asked to study two pieces of information handed out and return them at the next meeting. They were "Summary Statements on the University Calendar" and "draft proposals of policies on leaves of absences, preferential status and deferred tenure".
