News From Western Ky. University

Lucindy and Jane Ann McCubbins are students at Western Kentucky University and they had been telling us about F.C.A. (Fellowship of Christian Athletes) which meets each Thursday evening. This organization is headed up by Head Football Coach Jimmy Feix who is a professed Christian. The President is Pete Walters, co-captain of the football team. He is also a devout Christian whose father is a pastor at Shepherdsville, Kentucky.

November 20th was Parents Night so we were invited to come down and meet with F.C.A. We found this meeting to be very spiritual and uplifting because of the many young people that are involved.

Rev. David Walters, (Pete's father) brought the message on how to make and face big decisions in life and how to deal with them. The main point of his message was to seek The Lord's Will for life and being willing to accept and do the will of God. This meeting was meaningful to all that attended.

Gary Lord sang two of his own compositions which were also inspiring.

F.C.A. is an organization that presents to athletes, coaches, and all whom they influence the knowledge and adventure of knowing Jesus Christ.

Isn't it wonderful to know still so many people, that there are who are not ashamed to stand for Christ and try to help so many others they come in contact with.

We want to thank F.C.A. for being there.
Haskell & Annette McCubbins

Letters to the Editor

"The Gospel Truth" would like to say a big "Thank You" to the "Lincolnaires" for their support at the National Quartet Convention. A true example of I Cor. Chapter 13-4.

Yours and mine,
Gospel Truth

Dear Gospel Reaching Out,

It has been awhile since you heard from us. But we are still singing Gospel songs. We go a lot of places and have some good times in the Lord. We enjoy singing and serving the Lord. We have one hour on the radio Sunday morning at Burkesville which we enjoy very much. We feel that we have a lot of listeners who do not attend church and maybe we might reach them by radio. We enjoy Gospel Reaching Out very much. It lets us hear from singing groups. We have sung in several revivals and this past weekend we were near Louisville at Maryville Baptist Church for an afternoon singing, then at Shepherdsville General Baptist that night. We had a great service there and will be going back the 3rd Saturday night in April 1981.

Pray for us that we might grow in the Lord's service.

Yours in Christ
Edith Moons

Dear Editor:

The Gospel truth would like to stay a BIG THANK YOU to all those who attended and supported us in Nashville, Tenn. at the National Quartet Convention and its Talent Search 80. We feel God has blessed us in so many ways and by allowing us out of 65 groups from all over the country to be Voted 2nd is a great honor and has already opened a number of doors for us. Some of our dearest friends who showed us what true Love really is none other than The Lincolnaires a special thanks and may God richly bless you.

Yours and mine,
The Gospel Truth
Richard Thompson, Mgr.

We received a copy of "Gospel Reaching Out" from a friend were pleased at the amount of gospel news we read.

The Golden Gospel Aires would like to take this time out to introduce ourselves.

Our group consists of Carl R. Watson, Geneva Blake, Vanessa Hornback, Iona Riggs, Kimberly Riggs, Bradley Riggs, Carly Watson sings and plays bass.

Our special thanks go to our two piano players.

Emojean Watson and Ruthie Watson each of us have tasted of the living water and still strive to do his goodwill for mankind.

Keep us in your Prayers,
Golden Gospel Aires

Stewards Of The King

The Stewards of the King is a new group in the gospel ministry. We have been singing as a group since January and we all attend the Church in Canmer at Canmer, Kentucky. We sing because we believe singing is an important way to spread the gospel of Jesus and our prayer is that we will always be found doing his will. The group consists of, left to right: Darris Waters, Myra Jewell, Karen Huffman, Debbie Morgan, and Timmy Sexton. Our address and phone number are located in the group listings.

Brotherhood Quartet News

The Brotherhood Quartet recently purchased a Step Van for their travels. We have been busy with the carpeting of the inside and building bunks for more rest on the road. We hope to have it painted by the first of the year. We want to thank our friends who are helping us with the work. Mr. Paul Curry of the Melody Airs Quartet who runs an upholstery business in Columbia did the carpet work for us and also covered the seats for us. Thanks Paul for a fine job. Also Mr. Bobby Willis the owner of Sears in Columbia and a member of the Milltown United Methodist Church where The Roundman is pastor worked night after night to build the bunks, closets etc. in the van. Thanks to Payne Janes for his mechanic work to get the van on the road safely and to all who have given financial support for this very needful means of transportation for the Brotherhood Quartet. May God richly Bless all of you.

Thanks,
Rev. Gary "Roundman"

The Barry Clardy Trio Introduces New Members

Greenville - The Barry Clardy Trio of Greenville, Kentucky introduce to you Mr. Mike Hill, now singing tenor. Barry still sings the lead and his wife, Paulette, sings the alto and plays the piano.

Mike, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Hill of Browder, is employed at "Razor's Edge" in Greenville. As a committed Christian, Mike is devoted to the music ministry in his church; and joins with the Clardys in rededicating themselves to full time Christian service and bringing the "gospel" to you in song.

The trio is proud to feature Mike on several vocal and piano solos.

Amy Clardy, Barry and Paulette's 11-year-old daughter, is also featured on some songs, her newest being "Better Hurry Up," a Goodman arrangement.

"The Lord has blessed the trio since its beginning in 1972. And may we say with humble hearts, "To God Be The Glory!"
