AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION
KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER
Bowling Green, Kentucky

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him; stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

MINUTES OF THE DECEMBER 15, 1970 MEETING OF THE
KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER OF ABWA, BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY

The meeting was held at the Electric Plant Board with 27 present (25 members and 2 guests). The meeting was called to order by Pat Glasscock, President. The Invocation was given by Barbara Farley and the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Jean Fulkerson. A very special guest was one of our scholarship recipients, Susan Bray.

Our guest speaker was Mrs. Romanza Johnson, Home Economist for the Electric Plant Board. "Christmas Ideas for Good Taste" was the topic. To illustrate the topic, she showed food items and various types of Christmas decorations that she had made and told us how to make them. She also showed and demonstrated several of the new electrical appliances on the market today.

The vocational talk was given by Bonita Springs, owner and operator of the Bonita School of Dance. She instructs children, teenagers, and adults in all types of dancing. She discussed the demands of dancing instruction and the satisfaction gained from working with people. Bonita also does traveling---dancing studios in other communities and her participation in various productions.

The Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved as read. Christmas messages were read from Ruth McKamey, National First Vice President and also from Marilyn Tucker, National President. Other communications read were a thank you note from Susan Bray, one of our scholarship recipients and a letter from Daisy Connelly, Southeastern District Vice President, thanking us for the BULLETIN she received.

A clarification of the address of Jill Gentry, 919 Park Street, Bowling Green, Ky. was listed under changes of name or address (has not been receiving mail from National Headquarters).

A WEEKEND OF FUN AND FACTS
WILL BE YOURS . . . .

. . . . at the 1971 Southeastern
District Meeting, being held in
Norfolk, Virginia, on March 12,
13, and 14.

The site for this assembly will be the Golden Triangle Motor
Hotel . . . . where the hostess chapters will be extending the hand of friendship . . . . and true Southern hospitality.

In this age of rapid and unceasing progress and change . . . . ABWA does not stand still! Again this year, the program has been revamped to include two OPEN FORUMS, on subjects that have been requested in the past. This has been done without eliminating any of the activities included in previous District Meeting programs.

As you know, the Workshops last year were held on Saturday afternoon . . . . this year they have been moved to Saturday morning, immediately following the Symposium discussed are:

Small Chapter Development
Bidding and Sponsoring a District Meeting or National Convention

Take advantage of a weekend that will assist you in greater self-accomplishment, and also bring new dimensions to chapter goals . . . . it will be interesting and enjoyable . . . . an opportunity to meet your National Officers, National Headquarters Executives, and other ABWA'ers throughout your district.

Don't be a "wish I had" . . . . send your $16.00 registration fee NOW to:

Mrs. Mary King Omlar, Registration Chairman
1971 Southeastern District Meeting, ABWA
P.O.Box 11132
Norfolk, Virginia 23517

Mail hotel reservations to:

Golden Triangle Motor Hotel
Monticello Avenue at Olney Road
Norfolk, Virginia 23510

Please be sure to ask the hotel for a confirmation.

. . . . We'll see you in Norfolk . . . .

1971 has arrived and many plans and activities are in the air. The Financial Forum is upon us---be sure to get your reservations to Iva as early as possible. It is the time to think of co-workers, fellow church women, and friends who should be members of ABWA. Submit their names to the Membership Committee so they can be invited to our March 21 Hand of Friendship Tea.

As 1971 dawns, we as an educational organization should make some resolutions which will advance us in the new year. Some food for thought would be: Each member reading Robert's Rules of Order, as this is our guide for Parliamentary Procedure for all chapter activities; re-reading your ABWA Manual and making sure you are doing the best job possible as a member, officer, or committee chairman; reading Women in Business and the Colonelette each month; analyzing yourself and improving your personality, attitude and conduct; maintaining 100% attendance; and last but not least, taking advantage of ABWA activities--such as attending the District and/or National Convention.

It is time to make plans for the District Meeting. A weekend of fun and facts will be yours at the 1971 Southeastern District Meeting, being held in Norfolk, Virginia, on March 12, 13, 14. Our Scrapbook and Bulletins will be entered in competition. Saturday morning will be workshops followed by Open Forums in the afternoon with topics such as "Small Chapter Development" and Bidding and Sponsoring a District Meeting or a National Convention".

Resolve to make 1971 the Very Best for ABWA!

Pat Glasscock

PERFECT ATTENDANCE CONTEST ENDS

The winners of the 1970 Perfect Attendance Contest were the Belles, captained by Arlene Rountree. The contest was very close---only 2 1/2 points separated the five teams (an average of points for 3 months). The captains of the losing teams will meet after the January meeting to discuss plans for honoring the winning BELLES.

Let's keep our attendance high even though the contest is over!

WAYS AND MEANS PROJECT: FINANCIAL FORUM

The Forum will be held on Saturday, January 30, 1971, at the Ramada Inn, located at the Greenwood Interchange, from 8:30 A.M. until 1:30 P.M. The sessions are designed to inform, stimulate and inspire business people who are interested in the best possible job performance and future security. Personal and family financial planning are included because these factors so often affect business careers.

This Financial Forum is sponsored by the Kentucky Colonel Chapter, American Business Women's Association and the Bowling Green Bank and Trust Company.

8:30 - 9:30 Registration and coffee

9:30 "Banks Role in the Community", Mr. E.G. Adams, Commissioner of Banking for the Commonwealth of Kentucky
