PURPOSE

The purpose of the American Business Women's Association shall be to elevate the social and business standards of women in business by uniting them nationally for training designed to make them efficient, more considerate and more cooperative toward their work, their employer, and their employer's customers, thereby increasing their ability, success and happiness.

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in heaven's name WORK for him.

If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness.

If you must vilify, condemn and eternally dispare - resign your position and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted, and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

With the ending of the Christmas season and the beginning of a new year, we have many things to look forward to. To start the year we have our FINANCIAL FORUM, and I hope everyone will take part and help to make it a big success. This is one of our big projects, and the committee has been working very hard, so we as members shouldn't let them down.

The selection of WOMEN OF THE YEAR and CITIZENSHIP MONTH will be coming up in February and in March is our District Meeting in Orlando and our SPRING TEA. Let's have ten (10) to go to Orlando!

START PLANNING NOW!!!

SECRETARY POWER SUBTILE

Secretary Power, that is to say, is often a very subtle thing, exerted gently but with fierce determination. It is artful, skillful and refined. Cunning too? Well maybe, but that's touchy territory.

Since this is the New Year here are a few resolutions you might like to give your boss that might help your secretary power.

1. If I get in earlier than you, I shall keep my hands off the mail even though it is addressed to me. If I do, I'll keep it in order for you to see and log so that you may properly handle correspondence.
2. I shall always tell you where I am going during business hours, or atleast where you can say I am going, and approximately when I may be expected back.
3. I shall not write all over originals that need only minor corrections which can be done on the typewriter without a complete retyping job.
4. I shall not accuse you of being emotional and illogical when you are trying to suggest a more expedious, efficient way to accomplish something.
5. I shall not have you place a long distance call and then disappear.
6. I shall not squirrel away papers or give them to a colleague and then suggest you have misplaced them.
7. If I need you to work overtime, I shall not pussyfoot around, but will give you as much notice as possible.
8. I shall let you have full access to the business contents of my brief case before and after business trips.
9. I shall render unto the secretary the things that are the secretary's and unto the boss the things that are the boss'.

10. I shall not live by the principle that the boss, while he may not always be right, is still always the boss.

COMMITTEE OF THE MONTH

Bulletin Committee

The Bulletin Committee Chairman shall call a meeting of her committee within two weeks after its appointment.

It shall be the responsibility of this committee to publish a chapter bulletin, contain along with other news-worthy and educational material, information about each meeting's program, place and time of the next meeting, and any special announcements that will be of importance to chapter members. Since general correspondence from National Headquarters sent to the Chapter President is intended for the information of chapter members, it should, whenever possible, be printed in the bulletin. It is not necessary to have an elaborate bulletin. To start with, many chapter bulletins consist of one, two, or three sheets.

Each chapter bulletin shall have a name. It shall show the name of the chapter, and city in which it is located, as well as the name and address of the editor. Issues shall be numbered consecutively.

National Headquarters is to be sent one (1) copy of each chapter bulletin as published. The Corresponding Secretary shall be the sponsor of this committee and shall be kept informed of its activities at all times.

ORLANDO, "THE ACTION CENTER OF FLORIDA" welcomes you to the Sunshine territory, the World of Disney, the NASA Space center, the many famous beaches and the 1972 Southeastern District Meeting. We cordially invite you to come ...

"UP AND AWAY WITH ABWA"
MARCH 10, 11, 12, 1972
The Robert Meyer Hotel
ORLANDO, FLORIDA

(Cont.)

Your Citrus-attired hostesses are planning great things just for you ..... things such as an optional Disney tour on Friday afternoon as you arrive by plane, bus, car, bicycle or whatever..... or should your choice be a liesuroly bit of relaxation ..... it's yours to choose. Friday afternoon will be well filled and it will prepare you for the great RECEPTION that same evening at which time you will have the opportunity to meet and greet ABWA's National President, Ruth McKamey, your South-eastern District Vice President, Vivian Gardner, the National Headquarters' Staff, and the officers for your Southeastern District Meeting..... along with many others you may or may not have met on other occasions.

SATURDAY.....a Symposium, Workshops, and Forums will show WHAT A DISTRICT MEETING IS ALL ABOUT.

.....THE SATURDAY LUNCHEON is one you will not want to miss. Though this function is optional, ($4.25), those of you who have attended District Meetings in prior years, know that your National Officers and Headquarters' Staff and district personnel will be at this function giving you an opportunity to table hop..... getting to really be a part of it all. Of course, there will be a glamorous fashion show put on by one of our local women's apparel shops -- they are providing the fashions and your fellow ABWA sisters will be your lovely models.

INVOCATION

Lord, in the quiet of this evening hour,
We come to Thee for wisdom, and for power
To view Thy world through only loved-filled eyes;
To grow in understanding; to be wise
And sure to see Thy guiding light; and thus
To know each other as Thou knowest us.

Amen.

BENEDICTION

O Guiding Spirit, Guardian of our days,
Be with us as we go our separate ways,
Help us to feel those thoughts that lift and bless
To know a closer bond of friendliness;
To see Thy beauty always--every day,
Translated into living--this we pray.

Amen.
