"THIS AND THAT" - By Editor, Martha P Reneau

This Issue: This is our last issue for 1995 and always our largest. It contains the index for this year's names. Also, for the first time in several years, you will note that there is a master list of who our membership is researching. Look through the list and perhaps you will be able to find some one else looking for the same people who have been hunting for all your life! Thank you for all your contributions throughout the year. If you have not yet sent information for publication to the Society ... why not put that on your New Year's Resolutions for 1996?

Comments and Compliments: Dolores "Jackie" Towner recently wrote us a kind letter thanking us for our article on HENRY HAYS which led to her discovering another lady who was working on the same line. She also gave us the following information about our cover last issue showing Aunt FANNY HALL HARLOW'S Spring House. She writes: "In regard to the HALLS, your picture of course caught my eye ... NAOMI HALL, daughter of LEONARD HALL I, married ANDERSON HARLOW, 21 April 1804 in Barren County and on 21 February 1808 FANNY HALL married WILLIAM HARLOW, with the consent of JOHN HALL, who I would suppose was her father. I am not sure as to the relationship between LEONARD I and JOHN. LEONARD did have a son by the name that I know of. There was another marriage 22 Jan 1811 of a PEGGY HALL to THOMAS HARLOW, again consent of JOHN HALL and one more of a CLARINDA HALL to SAMUEL HARLOW 27 Nov 1827." You will find a biographical write up on the three LEONARD HALLS in this issue.

Mr ROGER E HARLOW B67055, Logan Correctional Center, Box 1000, Lincoln, IL 62656 would like to have information on Aunt Fannie also. His grandfather, EZRA C HARLOW was from KY and was married to JOSEPHINE MANSFIELD.

SANDY SANDERSON LONDON, 3 Oleander Drive, Northport, NY 11768 recently wrote thanking the historical society for our efforts. She offered congratulations on the latest edition of Traces ... "I can't tell you how much I look forward to each issue. As a writer myself (both for business and as a suspense novelist), I also appreciate how much effort goes into the planning and preparation of such a publication." Thanks, Sandy!

MARGARET LESTER HILL wrote that the Mary Ball Washington Museum in Lancaster, VA is now open only Wed through Fri, 10 to 5, and Saturday, 10 to 3.

Membership Renewals: KEN BEARD noted that some members have apparently lost track of their membership dues and paid several years in advance. He advises you look at your mailing label to determine membership status. He will post the year through which you have paid. Those who have paid through 1995 should up-date their membership now in order to receive the Spring 1996 issue. Address corrections requested.

Pioneer Certificates: We have had several queries about this program. It has temporarily been discontinued. Thank you to all of you who applied and received certificates.

General Information: POLLY BLOCK, Hearthspun Publishers, 475 North Third West Street, American Fork, Utah 84003 (and a new member) informed us that the Summer Shade Post Office, which was across the street I believe from the little country store was run by EDWAD PEDIGO who lived in the big house up the street with posts on the long porch. PEDIGOS ran the post office for years. Later, BILLY J PEDIGO who ran the post office in Summer Shade was made postmaster of the Edmonton post office in about 1980.

Congratulations! To member, Michelle B Gorin of Glasgow. Michelle, age 18, whose book, Barren's Black Roots Vol 3, is one of a series of the old slave and Black records of South Central KY, recently won first place among a large number of entries in a contest sponsored by the Historical Confederation of KY in the category of Family Histories.

Donations: We would again like to ask our members to consider the South Central KY Historical and Genealogical Society as a repository for any genealogical records or books you may have and have no further need of. It would be greatly appreciated and would help so many others who are looking for their families in this area! If you have any questions or would like to send something to the society, please contact Martha P Reneau, Editor, 562 Beaver Valley Road, Glasgow, KY 42141. Thank you!

DR C C HOWARD

Submitted by Mr. Charles Winingler, Glasgow, KY.

I wish to submit these minutes for publication. I received these minutes from LOUISE THOMERSON just a few months before her departure from this life. She was secretary to the Barren County Historical Society throughout its existence, 1960 to 1970. She did a marvelous job writing up these minutes. Of special interest are the "humorous happenings" of the medical career of Dr C C HOWARD. He did have the audience laughing much of the time. That is what I would like to dwell on here. It has been 26 years but I think I remember every word he said.

He said an old man came down from Greensburg. He was sitting in the waiting room with a towel around his neck, in that towel was radium that cost $5,000 (radium was once used as a topical treatment in which it was wrapped in a towel and applied directly to the patient's body). After a while they missed that old man. The boys that brought him down thought that he had waited long enough and that they would just take him home. What had been feared most was that he would take off the towel and throw it in the fire. Somebody in the office or somewhere around volunteered to take his car and catch up with them. They caught up with them at Green River just before they got to Greensburg. They did retrieve the "radium" and brought him back.

Then he told about a boy that they were operating on for tonsillitis. They got one tonsil out, and the boy said that he had blood in his mouth and he wanted to spit. He told the boy to go right there in the toilet. The boy went into the toilet. They waited a while and the boy didn't come back. He told his partner to go in and see about the boy. He went in and the boy wasn't there and the window was up. He went to the window and he saw a lady out there. He asked the lady if she had seen a little boy. She said, I saw a little boy. He went through my yard like a race horse. He is gone. He said it took about a week to get the boy back and get the other tonsil out.

Another story he told was about a man from Smiths Grove who had an accident and his arm was severed from the body. I can't remember if he drove the car to Glasgow or somebody brought him. He came in the office with that severed arm holding it with his other arm. It scared all the girls out of the office. Since he was a salesman he said, doctor, if you will install a telephone in my room I will make enough money to pay the doctor bill. He surely was selling something, they did install a telephone in his room, and he made enough money to pay the doctor bill and more.

One of the best stories he told was operating on a woman at Stovall Crossing. He asked if anybody there knew where Stovall Crossing was. Several people held up their hands. He met two other doctors there. They operated on the woman on the kitchen table. After they had operated on the woman he started out the back door to get a breath of fresh air. A lady took him by the arm and said "Doctor, don't go out there, there is a man out there with a shot gun, and says he will kill everybody there if she doesn't wake up." He said I went back into the house and stayed until she was good and awake.

Then he told about going to Sand Cave to try to rescue FLOYD COLLINS. It was 65 ft or 165 ft. I don't remember. When they got ready they told im that he could go down, when they got down there with all that blasting that was done around there, the rock and dirt had fallen down around him, and only his head was exposed. He looked like he had been dead for a week. He turned around with the water dripping and the crickets chirping and made his way back to the surface. He told them up there that COLLINS had been dead a week. The only thing they could do was to get a minister and have a funeral there. He said one man walked up to him and said, "Doctor, how about you going down there and cutting his head off and bringing it back up here." He said, "Mister, you have been around here too long. You need to go back home and get some sleep."

I still find humor and sympathy with the trials of the early Dr C C HOWARD as he pioneered his profession in Glasgow. I hope that you have found the same as the facts are recounted here. (Printed in the Glasgow Daily Times, Tuesday, June 20, 1995).

LEONARD HALL I, II and III

Submitted by Mrs Norman Towner, 754 Alberta Ave., Nyssa, OR 97913-5002

The first LEONARD HALL known to us, hereafter designated as LEONARD I, was born about 1758 in Frederick Co, MD. Little is known of his early life. It is recorded that he took part in the French Indian War about 1758. He received some land grants in Fayette Co KY. His claims were entered in 1780, but not surveyed until 1783 and 1784 according to Survey Books C and D, page 158 and 163. He had three parcels, one for 1000 acres, and two at 400 acres each, all surveyed by DANIEL BOONE. If he ever lived on this land is unknown. All his children were born in Bedford Co VA. He married JOANNA LETTON, daughter of CALEB LETTON and GRACE BURTON. She was born 7 July 1832 in MD and died 11 Sept 1819 in Barren Co KY. (They moved to Barren Co in 1793). Their children were all named in a suit brought by one of his heirs, daughter, NAOMI against the others, after his death in January of 1809 in Barren Co.

LEONARD II

LEONARD HALL II apparently came to Barren Co KY about 1793 with his father. The record of his marriage has not been found, his wife is named in the court case mentioned above, and other sources, she being WINNIE (probably WINEFRED) BARNETT, daughter of EDWARD BARNETT and CHARITY ... She was born ca 1762 and died 1836 in Barren Co KY. LEONARD died ca 1808 in Barren Co before his father's death as his children were named as heirs in court case.

A TALE OF FOUR CITIES NAMED GLASGOW

The following was taken from the Sept 3, 1995 issue of the Glasgow Daily Times in the Society's weekly historical and genealogical columns authored by Sandi Gorin.

History is often seen through the eye of the beholder and we weren't there. However, it is interesting to look back through the pages of time in order to make a small attempt to see what we hope was our history.

On page 7 of Times of Long Ago, FRANKLIN GORIN makes the following statement which has stirred great interest and controversy since it was penned in the 1870's. "The town received its name from Glasgow, Virginia and not Glasgow, Scotland." GORIN was of course, the first white child born in Barren County. His maternal grandfather, JOHN FRANKLIN was from Amherst Co VA and had settled in Barren County in 1798. The late noted Glasgow educator, EDWIN BURCH TERRY, also wrote that our fair city was named for Glasgow, VA. However, in Perrin's History of Kentucky it is stated that JOHN MATTHEWS, also an early settler in our county, was from Glasgow, Scotland and the one who named the town.

Imagine the surprise when it was learned that Glasgow, VA, lying in Rockbridge County, and thought to be possibly the town GORIN had referred to, was a newer town than our own Glasgow, KY. That seemed to prove that our city had been named for Scotland rather than Virginia, right? Well, perhaps not. GORIN states that JOHN MATTHEWS came to Barren County around 1799. His name appears on the tax books in 1801 - which would have been taxes for the year 1800. Now let us look back to our Virginia roots. Rockbridge County, VA, where lies one Glasgow, was formed in 1778 from parts of Augusta and Botetourt Co. Albemarle County, VA was formed in 1744 out of Goochland and Louisa Counties and in 1758, Amherst County, VA was split off from Albemarle.

Amherst Co was the homeland of many familiar Barren Co families. Our county records reads as a roll call of taxpayers from Amherst. In the book entitled, The Deeds of Amherst County, Virginia, 1761-1807 and Albemarle County, Virginia 1748-1763, by Rev. BAILEY FULTON DAVIS, copyright 1979 by Rev SILAS

EMMETT LUCAS Jr, Southern Historical Press of Easley, SC, the reader will find deeds involving the following: GABRIEL PENN, AMBROSE LEE, JOSEPH BALLENGER, AARON HIGGINBOTHAM, THOMAS POWELL, REUBEN HARRISON, OBADIAH BRITT, various PAGE'S, JOHN FRANKLIN, JOHN MATTHEWS, SAMUEL MURRELL, WILLIAM EDMUNDS, WADDY THOMPSON, ISAAC TINSLEY, JOHN HOGG, the CRUSE family, BRIDGEWATERS and many more. In looking at the deeds of Amherst Co, we find among others, reference to Deed Book A, page 42 dated 27 April 1762 from JOHN DEMPSEY to GEORGE MILLER ... Glasgow merchants. Deed Book K, page 83 references JOHN MATTHEWS and wife JANE of Barren Co KY in a deed. On page 306, dated 15 Feb 1796 of Deed Book G, the author adds the following comments reference a deed to DAVID S GARLAND. (This deed was witnessed by JOEL FRANKLIN, GEORGE & WILLIAM PENN) "I have not attempted to trace the title to the property in the village of Clifford where GARLAND built his pretentious brick home, but I am inclined to believe that this is the estate. My wife has been in the house and says that it is one of the most interesting house in Amherst Co. They once held races at Clifford then (called) NEW GLASGOW - and this was the center of activity in the county." Lo and behold, there was a second Glasgow, VA- this sitting in Amherst with the oldest reference being in 1762; a mere 36 years before Glasgöw, KY was named. The town had later been renamed to Clifford. I also noted that this was a horseracing center and the old MURRELL family from Amherst were invoved in horse racing in Barren Co at Merryoaks.

The 1902 atlas of the US shows Clifford with a population of 21; the 1979 references state it had a population of 100. Looking at the map, Clifford lies on a direct line to the east of Glasgow VA in Rockbridge Co, approximately 20-30 miles away. It appears from the deeds in Amherst that many, if not all, of our Barren Co citizens from Amherst had lands centered around this Glasgow. I am wondering if GORIN, with a keen interest in history, had not queries not only his father, JOHN, but his grandparent FRANKLIN'S about their lives in the old Dominion.

Well, what was Glasgow, VA, aka Clifford named for? Most likely Glasgow, Scotland, our fourth Glasgow. So, we have NOT shattered any Scottish heritage of our Glasgow, KY in the least. We can still proudly give honor to our Scottish ancestry, participate in the wonderful Highland Games, and be very proud of our roots. But, perhaps by finding this reference to Glagow, VA, in a time frame and location that is most logical, we can also exhonorate GORIN and TERRY and others who have long held to the fact that they were correct in their statements."

Cecil Goode recently published an article showing the naming of the Glasgow in Rockbridge VA and others. He had traveled to the area some years back and talked to historians in the area. It appears that both Glasgow, VA and Clifford, VA now exist, one on each side of the highway. It is also noted that the reference to Perrin's History on the MATTHEWS family, written in the 1880's was the biography of JOSEPH W MATTHEWS, son of Allen and LUCY JANE BROWNING MATTHEWS, grandson of JAMES MATTHEWS and ELIZABETH STRAWTHER, great grandson of JOHN MATTHEWS. Joseph was the fourth generation of Matthews here when the biography was written.

BILLINGSLEY

The following was submitted by Donald Gentry, 51 Cube Cove, Juneau, Alaska 99850-0360.

JAMES BILLINGSLEY 1778-1864

James Billingsley was born in August, 1778, in Rutherford County, North Carolina. He was born the forth child of six children born to his parents, John and Jean Milsap Billingsley. He moved with his parents to Onslow County, North Carolina and then Washington County, Tennessee.

He married Rebecca Hale, probably in Washington County, Tennessee, prior to 1799. Rebecca was born in Virginia in 1779. She is said to be the sister of Ruth Hale and Alexander Hale. They resided in Washington County, Tennessee, and eventually moved to Roane County, Tennessee, where they resided for some years. All of their children were born in either Washington or Roane Counties, Tennessee between 1799 and 1822. They were as follows: Nancy, born 20 Feb 1799; John H., born in 1801; George Hale, born 16 Jan 1803; James, born, Dec 1804; Jane, born in 1808; Mary S., born in 1810, Elizabeth Dorantha, born in 1812; Sarah Ann, born in 1817; Rebecca, born 8 May 1820; Samuel, born June 1821; and Lucinda Ruth, born Feb 1822.

The family moved to Monroe County, Kentucky around 1830. Rebecca died in Monroe County, Kentucky in 1859. James survived her and was living in 1864, but was not listed on the 1870 census, and is presumed to have died prior to 1870. James was a farmer, and is said to have been a member of the Fraternal Order of Mason's. The house and farm that he founded in Roane County, Tennessee passed to his son John H. Billingsley, and came down through his sons and still remained in the family in 1939.

QUERIES

BALES-PEDIGO: When my grandmother, MATTIE MAY BRADLEY BALES, whose mother was ESTELLA GREEN PEDIGO from Good Luck, Metcalfe Co, died in 1963, she left me all the old family photos. All pictures were identified but one man, she did not know who it was. Mattie May married a 1/8 breed Cherokee Indian whose family came from Arkansas and earlier TN, near Murfreesboro, Rutherford Co. The man in the picture may be Indian, a very handsome man. Can anyone identify him? Legend has it that in about 1750 an Irishman by the name of JOHN BALES who was an officer in the English Navy, settled in the USA and married a Cherokee girl in early to mid 1800. By legend, she is said to be the daughter of a chief or prominent member of the tribe, probably in VA. They had one son named JOHN. But because she was Indian she was forcibly taken on the Trail of Tears. John told her to go to satisfy the law, but he would sneak her back. He searched and searched, but never heard of her again. A man in Oklahoma City knew her name but he is deceased. Can anyone help me find the wife of John Bales? JOHN BALES JR died while young in the Mississippi River when their boat caught fire and he repeatedly returned to the boat to help rescue others. He was married and left one son, JOHN. This last John was born TN, married (1) MARTHA ROBERTSON, then later to HESTER TEFTELLER; moved to Arkansas. Enlisted in the Northern Army; moved to Texas 18 Dec 1870, died 1884. His son, HENRY DAVID BALES, my great-grandfather was born in Arkansas 1862, moved to Savoy, TX 1870; md MARY OLIVE HODGES. TRACES, the Society's quarterly publication is received by all members. It is published seasonally; Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter. Members joining during the year will receive the past issues of that year.

Contributions are earnestly solicited. Family genealogies, marriages, Bible, will and probate, cemetery, court and other records are all acceptable. You will be listed as the contributor on all the material you submit.

Queries are accepted only from members, without limit, and will be published as space permits. Queries should be limited to about fifty words each.

Books to be reviewed in "TRACES" must be sent with information as to the cost, including postage, and from whom the book may be obtained. Books become the property of the Society library. Books should have some Kentucky interest. Reviews will be published as space permits.

Exchange of "TRACES" with other societies or publications is acceptable and welcome.

Meetings are held monthly, except December, at the Mary Wood Weldon Memorial Library, College Street, Glasgow, Ky. The meetings, held on the fourth Thursday, begin at 7:00 P.M., CST. Interesting and informative programs are planned for each meeting and your supportive attendance is always welcome.
