COUNCIL OF ACADEMIC DEANS

The Council of Academic Deans met in Dr. Cravens' Office at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, February 10, 1970. All deans were present and Mr. Jim Tomes and Mr. Harry Largen also attended.

The deans discussed the effective date of contracts and method of payment at length with Mr. Tomes and Mr. Largen.

Next the Council approved the statement prepared by Dr. Hardin and Dr. Chelf relative to leaves of absence. The statement provides that:

"Although persons on leave from the University are eligible to continue participation in certain programs such as retirement and health insurance, leaves of absence shall not be considered as years of service at the University in determining eligibility for sabbatical leaves and tenure."

Dr. Chelf distributed copies of the sabbatical leave applications from the department heads and Dr. Cravens asked the deans to review these and give him their recommendation. Following this the meeting was adjourned.
