The Council of Academic Deans met on Monday, February 16, at 1:30 p.m. in Dean Cravens' office. All deans were present except Drs. Page, Jenkins and Russell who were represented by Dr. Brenner, Mr. Oppitz and Dr. Stroube respectively. Also attending were Mr. Lazarus, Mr. Cochran, Mr. Porter and Mr. Zielke. Mr. Porter and Mr. Zielke left after discussion of the calendar.

A statistical study of each college was presented to the dean of the college and Dr. Cravens indicated he would be happy to discuss the findings with any of the deans.

The University calendar for 1970-71 was discussed. Dr. Chelf, Dr. Sutton and Mr. Lazarus were named to a committee to consider the starting time for classes under the proposed calendar.

Dr. Cravens announced that nominations for Distinguished Service to the University Awards could now be submitted.

The University of Kentucky's special 4-week summer term was called to the Council's attention. Dr. Cravens said Western should try to discourage such a term here.

A list showing those faculty having served more than ten years at Western was distributed for information purposes.

A statement on "Teacher Education at Western Kentucky University" was taken up for consideration and suggestions. The deans recommended some changes to clarify various statements in the draft. Dr. Cravens indicated the revisions would be made to clarify the statement. Dr. Stroube proposed that the finished document be distributed to all faculty members.

The meeting was adjourned.
