AUGUST 1981

The Lincolnares

The Lincolnares of Hodgenville, Ky., will be celebrating their 9th Anniversary on the 13th of September at 2:30PM EDT at The Lincoln Jamboree Auditorium in Hodgenville, Ky.

Their guest will be The McCubbins Family and New Delegation. Everyone is invited.

Big Gospel Singing's in Louisville, Ky.

There will be three big nights of Gospel Music in Louisville, Ky., at Iroquois Amphitheater on New Cut Road on August 14, 15, and 16. This is sponsored by B. G. M. Associates. Southern Gospel will be featured on Friday night, August 14, with The Lincolnaire's and Gospel Truth. Saturday night, August 15, will highlight Contemporary Gospel Music and on Sunday afternoon there will be plenty of Soul Gospel. Everyone is invited to attend. There will be no admission charge. Records and tapes will be available.

For more information contact B. G. M. Associates at 502-368-2859. The Singings will begin at 7:30PM on Friday and Saturday and at 2:00PM on Sunday.

Report on McCubbins

Family Trip

On June the 26th the McCubbins Family left for the Texas Area to sing. While there they sang in seven different churches in the Cross Plains, Rising Star, Lometa, Eastland Area. There were several people revived and one soul was saved. That was worth the trip to Texas.

We would like to extend our Special Thanks to the pastors of the churches who welcomed us there and for the people who were so receptive to the singing. We would also like to say thanks to Mama Grace, The McGuinns' and Sister Ruby. We love all of you and thank the Lord for you. We ask for your continued prayers as we labor together for the Lord.

Debby Boone has accomplished much in her young life she earned the title "Best New Artist of the Year" for 1977 at the 1978 Grammy Awards, she won the American Music Award for Favorite Pop Single, and also copped an Academy of Country Music Award for the Most Promising Country Artist -- not bad for someone only 22 years old.

Debby's first Gospel Album, "With My Song," was voted the Album of the Year by a secular artist at the 1981 Dove Awards in Nashville last month.

Debby, the third of four daughters by Pat and Shirley Boone, was born in Hackensak, New Jersey, and relocated with her family to the Los Angeles area when she was four. After graduating from Marymount High School, she attended Bible school for a year-and-a-half, yet preferred music over books.

In 1977, she cut her first album, entitled "You Light Up My Life", and released the single of the same name. The latter sold more than 3 1/2 million copies for the Warner/Curb label boasting more sales than any other single for that year. "You Light Up My Life," held the number one position of the Billboard Pop Chart for 10 consecutive weeks, making this the longest running top-of-the-charts single Warner Brothers ever had. It beat out the Beatles' earth-shattering hit "Hey Jude" (1968), which was the top spot for a period of nine weeks.

This Month We Feature Bobby Lee

The Brotherhood Quartet would like you to meet Mr. Bobby Lee. Occasionally through the gift of God, hard work and dedication, and love for gospel music, one develops the skills of a true professional that are widely sought after. Bobby Lee is such a person. At the age of 16, Bobby Lee composed a piece of classical music, "THE STORM" that caused music teachers to refer to him as the new Bach. Still his first love was gospel music. He began to fulfill his dream to play in a Quartet with the Rock of Ages, Russell Springs. Soon He would help form The Notesmen and would later play for the Tributes of Campbellsville, Ky. before he would become a very good friend to Garry Roundman Polston with the Polston family. This friendship would finally lead to the organization of Brotherhood Ministries Inc. In 1980 Bobby Lee travelled extensively throughout the United States with one of its finest professional groups, the award winning Telestials from Nashville, Tenn. His dream had come true, but Bobby Lee wasn't satisfied. The Round man had discussed several times with Bobby the idea of Brotherhood Ministries Inc. Garry was entering full time Evangelism and felt Bobby would be an excellent asset to the group. When Bobby, after much prayer and consideration said yes, they set about to organize the Evangelistic team. Bobby writes and arranges most of the music done by the group. We feel some of his songs have the potential to reach the top. Bobby also sings tenor and we believe is the most accomplished pianist in gospel music today. When in your area, I want you to listen with both ears and heart as Bobby Lee sings, plays and shares his Christ with you.

Annual Homecoming at Old Salem

The annual homecoming at the Old Salem Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in Green County, will be Sunday, August 30, 1981, beginning with Sunday School at 10 a.m., Central Daylight time.

Rev. Sammy Romines, pastor of Mount Oliviet Cumberland Presbyterian Church, near Bowling Green, Ky. will be preaching at 11 A.M.

At about 12 noon, we will have an old-fashioned lunch in the basement.

Our guest singers will feature the Chordsmen Quartet, of Russell Springs, Ky.; the ChristianAires Quartet, of Cecilia, Ky.; and the Golden Gospelaires, of Sonora, Ky.

This will be the first time that the Golden Gospel Aires and the Christian Aires have been in concert in Green County. We want to invite everyone to attend our homecoming services, and meet and hear all of these singers.

Our church IS air-conditioned.

On Sunday night, August 30, 1981, our revival at Old Salem will begin. Rev.

Sammy Romines will also be our evangelist. Rev. Romines is a wonderful young minister. We want to invite everyone to attend the revival also, and meet and hear Rev. Romines deliver the messages that the good Lord gives him. He is a former pastor of our church, a native of Hart County, and is married to the former Miss Aluria Noe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Noe, Rt. 2, Greensburg, Ky.

Brother Chester Vandyke, of Campbellsville, Ky., is the acting pastor of Old Salem. Bro. VanDyke and all of the members warmly invite everyone to attend the homecoming and revival.

We have Sunday School every Sunday at 10 A. M. and on every first and third Sunday, at 11 A. M., we have our regular worship services. Old Salem Church is located about 5 miles northwest of Donansburg in the Caven Bend at the end of Hgwy. 1464.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU ALWAYS,
(WINFRED L. NOE, AN ELDER)

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

We would like to renew our subscription. We didn't realize it was up until we just happened to glance at the label. I really enjoy G. R. O. each month. I enjoy hearing what the different Gospel Groups are doing - especially the Lincolnaires. They're a great bunch of people and they mean a lot to us. I would appreciate it if you could send our July issue as fast as possible, so we won't miss an issue.

Thanks a lot.

The Underwood Family
Watertown, Illinois

I am sending this letter to Gospel Reaching Out to say thanks to everyone for being so nice to us and thanks to God for His many blessings. We have been real busy this season. I still get Gospel Reaching Out and enjoy it a lot.

We have our new album and tape out now. It is doing good. It's title is "I Have Returned."

I am thanking God that my health is staying well enough to let us go and sing. If I give that up, I have nothing left, so give us your prayers.

Bye-bye. May God bless you and yours.
Earl and Lorene Norris

Rusty Goodman - A Name Among the Top

Rusty Goodman, a name that is synonymous with Southern Gospel music, has been given a ten talent portion evidenced by his musical achievements. Rusty started his music career in 1954 singing with various people and in 1957 signed on with the Plainsmen Quartet. Rusty began to write songs and soon landed the monumental hit "North To Alaska." He became very serious about his writing abilities: however, every time Rusty attempted secular music there was only minimal success because the gospel composer kept filtering through. At this time in his life he wrote "Touch The Hand of the Lord," his first gospel song to break through to the major artist, Jimmie Davis.

Soon after that, a crisis faced Rusty and his family resulting in a closer walk with the Lord. Rusty left the Plainsmen Quartet and soon joined with other family members making the fourth member of the Happy Goodmans. Then in 1963 Rusty really catapulted into a gospel song writing career with a hit entitled "I Wouldn't Take Nothing For My Journey Now."

"Rusty Goodman has written and/or recorded songs with Jimmie Davis, Elvis Presley, The Blackwood Brothers, Oak Ridge Boys, Connie Smith and many more. His credits are multifold and his reputation as a great songwriter is unquestionable. "Who Am I," "Had It Not Been," "Headin' Home," are only a few other songs that Rusty has accrued to his success. His song writing abilities have been accredited by numerous Gospel Music Association and Grammy nominations and awards.
