KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER
Bowling Green, Kentucky

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him; stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

MINUTES OF THE JANUARY 26, 1971 MEETING OF
THE KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER ABWA

The meeting was called to order by President Pat Glasscock. Invocation was given by Maxine Strickland and the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Arlene Rountree. Guests in attendance were Mrs. Kitty Thornton, introduced by Joann Rudolph, and Mrs. Shirley Martin, introduced by Ann Bays. Also attending as a guest was Imogene Sharer of Franklin, Kentucky.

Mr. Charles Reynolds, President, of the Bowling Green Bank and Trust Company spoke on "Past Few Years in Legal, Banking, and Family Fields". He explained the functions of the various boards who have a voice in the running of our city and also pointed out how each of us could help our community by having representation on the city commission.

As a teacher of Sophomore English at Bowling Green High School, Charlotte Adams described her duties as teaching five 55 minute periods, bus duty, and a series of faculty meetings. Some of the advantages of teaching are having a three month vacation and never a dull moment. A few disadvantages are grading mountains of papers and maintaining discipline.

The reading and the adoption of the minutes of the December meeting were read and approved. There was no official communications from National Headquarters. Other communications included a letter sent from First Federal concerning our savings account which we have closed out; an invitation to Boss Night for the Thoroughbred Chapter, Lexington, Kentucky was read. A highlight of the evening was the reading of a thank you note from a serviceman who had received one of our ditty bags. Under corrections to National Headquarters, Joann Rudolph's business phone number is now 781-2121; there were no transferees.

Treasurer's Report:

On hand last report	$317.68
Amount received	538.18
Disbursements	269.81
Remainder	$586.05

The report of the Standing Committees was as follows:
Program, State Senator Ray B. White is to confirm as February

speaker by February 1, 1971; Scrapbook, no report; Bulletin, material is needed by February 10, 1971; Employment-Housing-Transportation, no report; Social, Charlotte Adams will supply the door prize for the February meeting; Ways and Means, Jean Fulkerson reported that everything is ready for the financial forum and asked for volunteers for telephone contact as followup letters were sent to the various businesses; Publicity, Sally Parr announced that she has forwarded all newspaper clippings to National Headquarters; Music, no report; Membership, Iva Miller reported on the Hand of Friendship Recommendation Forms which were placed at each plate for completion by members and she also reported that we would install two new members at the February meeting---Shirley Martin and Kathryn Thornton; Banquet, Maxine Strickland and Barbara Farley are hostesses for February; Educational Projects, Brenda Williams, co-chairman, announced that the scholarships were awarded on December 16, 1970.

"Woman of the Year" chairman, Barbara Farley advised members that she had received two letters and would continue to accept letters until February 10. The winner will be announced at the February meeting.

The Potluck for the winners of the Perfect Attendance Contest will be held during February.

New Business: It was suggested that we select our representative and alternate to District Meeting and at the February meeting determine travel expenses. Anna Sue Jackson made the motion that we follow the above suggestion; it was seconded by Bonita Springs. Jean Fulkerson made the motion that Pat Glasscock be our representative and that the Woman of the Year be the first alternate, with Barbara Farley as our second alternate; it was seconded by Brenda Williams.

The meeting was adjourned by Pat Glasscock and the Benediction was given by Iva Miller. The door prize was won by Ann Bays.

Anna Sue Jackson
Recording Secretary

February is upon us and it is TEA TIME. Be sure to return your pink Hand of Friendship form to Iva Miller, Membership Chairman, so she and her committee can get their preliminary work done.

The FINANCIAL FORUM was a "successful first". Congratulations to Jean, Chairman of the Forum and Ways and Means Chairman and to all of her co-chairmen and committees. The luncheon and fashion show were TOPS! There are not words to describe the past National Woman of the Year, Paullette Whitworth --she is an outstanding business woman and was indeed an asset to our day.

February is Citizenship Month and may I emphasize the responsibilities of Citizenship and re-emphasize our theme for the year "EQUALITY THROUGH RESPONSIBILITY". Mr. Webster says "responsibility is the state or quality of being responsible, accountable, answerable for one's conduct and obligations; trustworthy. Citizenship implies we owe allegiance to a state (nation) in which the sovereign power is retained by the people. May we re-dedicate our efforts to be responsible citizens, not just in February, but every day of every month.

Don't forget the registration deadline for District Meeting! Get yours in today! One change in the District Meeting schedule involves Scrapbooks and Bulletins. All entries must be checked in to the Display rooms on Friday or Saturday morning before 9:00 A.M. The judging will be done on Saturday morning and the display rooms will be open on Saturday afternoon.

NATIONAL BOARD MEETING

The National Board of Directors met in Kansas City the weekend of January 22-24, 1971. Much was accomplished. Plans for the 1971 District Meetings and the 1971 National Convention (to be held in Anaheim, California) were reviewed. An important change in the Banner Chapter Requirements was made...#16 was amended to read:

"Sponsor a District Meeting or a National Convention...or award scholarships from chapter funds amounting to a minimum of $1,500... OR DONATE $1,000 to SBMEF."

It is felt that this addition will prove beneficial in two ways:

- (a) SBMEF will be provided with additional funds needed to meet the increasing number of requests.
- (b) Additional chapters will be afforded an opportunity to complete all Banner Chapter requirements and quality for the Star Award.

EQUALITY THROUGH RESPONSIBILITY: Theme Charm of ABWA

It is felt that this theme accurately conveys the attitude of ABWA members. They are capable; they are modern in their approach to business. They are education-orientated, and know that equality is not to be obtained on demand, but by accepting the responsibilities which it brings.

The charm features the scales of justice, for simple justice requires that ability be recognized and rewarded without regard to race or sex. The circular design, divided into two equal parts is drawn from the ancient Chinese philosophy of Yin and Yang. It represents many things---earth and heaven, fire and water, night and day---man and woman.

It was made a part of the design for the reason that it depicts so graphically that neither man nor woman is superior, but each is equally important as a part of a unit in the universe. This is ABWA's attitude toward the women's liberation movement---to attain our rightful place in the business world through our willingness and ability to accept and discharge equal responsibility

A Tired American Speaks Out

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

OF

HON. ABRAHAM J. MULTER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 12, 1966

Mr. MULTER. Mr. Speaker, Alan

ing under orders from dictators who preach peace and breed conflict.

I am a tired American—weary of being lectured by General de Gaulle (who never won a battle) who poses as a second Jehovah in righteousness and wisdom.

I am a tired American—weary of Nasser and all the other blood-sucking leeches who bleed Uncle Sam white and who kick him on the shins and yank his beard if the flow falters.

I am a tired American—weary of the beat-campuses from coast to coast. Movies denouncing the United States. Movies made in Communist China.

I am a tired American—who is angered by the self-righteous breastbeater critics of America, at home and abroad, who set impossible yardsticks for the United States but never apply the same standards to the French, the British, the Russians, the Chinese.

I am a tired American—sickened by the slack-jawed bigots who wrap themselves in Duverne, Minn., has summed up in an editorial in that newspaper what many Americans have begun to feel about our society today. We are tired of hearing friends and enemies alike tell us how stupid, greedy, cruel, and ignorant we are.

Stop and think for a moment, if you will, of the last time you read or heard anything good about our country. Would it take a full minute to think of the last time you heard someone describe in great detail what's wrong with America?

Mr. McIntosh's editorial was reprinted in the November 10, 1965, edition of the New York Journal-American and I commend it to the attention of our colleagues:

A TIRED AMERICAN SPEAKS OUT

(The following editorial, by Alan McIntosh, is reprinted from the Rock County Herald, Luverne, Minn.)

I am a tired American.
I'm tired of being called the ugly American.

I'm tired of having the world panhandlers use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.

I am a tired American—weary of having American Embassies and information centers stoned, burned, and sacked by mobs operating to determine what laws of the land they are willing to obey.

I am a tired American—fed up with the mobs of scabby faced, long-haired youths and short-haired girls who claim they represent the new wave of America and who sneer at the old-fashioned virtues of honesty, integrity, and morality on which America grew to greatness.

I am a tired American—weary unto death of having my tax dollars go to dictators who play both sides against the middle with threats of what will happen if we cut off the golden stream of dollars.

I am a tired American—who is tired of supporting families who haven't known any other source of income other than Government relief checks for three generations.

I am a tired American—who is getting madder by the minute at the filth peddlers who have launched Americans in an obscenity race—who try to foist on us the belief that filth is an integral part of culture—in the arts, the movies, literature, the stage.

I am a tired American—weary of the bearded bums who tramp the picket lines and the sit-ins—who prefer Chinese communism to capitalism—who see no evil in Castro, but sneer at President Johnson as a threat to peace.

I am a tired American—who has lost all patience with that civil rights group which is showing propaganda movies on college the country side looking for innocent victims. I am a tired American who dislikes clergy-men who have made a career out of integration causes, yet send their own children to private schools.

I am a tired American who resents those who try to peddle the belief in schools and colleges that capitalism is a dirty word and that free enterprise and private initiative are only synonyms for greed.

They say they hate capitalism, but they are always right at the head of the line demanding their share of the American way of life.

I am a tired American—real tired of those who are trying to sell me the belief that America is not the greatest nation in all the world—a generous-hearted nation—a nation dedicated to the policy of trying to help the "have nots" achieve some of the good things that our system of free enterprise brought about.

I am an American who gets a lump in his throat when he hears the "Star-Spangled Banner" and who holds back tears when he hears those chilling high notes of the brassy trumpets when Old Glory reaches the top of the flagpole.

I am a tired American who thanks a merciful Lord that he was so lucky to be born an American citizen—a nation under God, with truly mercy and justice for all.

FINANCIAL FORUM: "A SUCCESSFUL FIRST"

The Financial Forum presented by the Kentucky Colonel Chapter ABWA and the Bowling Green Bank and Trust Company was held Saturday, January 30, 1971. Forum Chairman, Jean Fulkerson, opened the session. A warm welcome was given by Pat Glasscock, President of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter and by Mayor R. D. Graham, who also presented "Keys to the City" to Mr. Adams, State Banking Commissioner; Mr. Guess, Securities Consultant, Louisville Bank and Trust Company; and Mrs. Paulette Whitworth, Vice President of the Women's Division of the First American National Bank of Nashville, Tennessee and past National Woman of the Year. The Invocation was given by Joyce Tabor, Corresponding Secretary. Mr. Charles Reynolds, President of the Bowling Green Bank and Trust Company and moderator for the Financial Forum was presented the first Honorary Boss of the Year Trophy ever presented by the Kentucky Colonel Chapter or the national association. Mr. Reynolds had the honor of presenting a Kentucky Colonel Commission to Mrs. Whitworth.

Mr. Adams, the keynote speaker, in his topic "Banks Role in the Community", stated that the progress of a community can be judged by the leadership of its financial institution and that progress is limited through poor leadership abilities. He highly praised all the banking institutions in Bowling Green for the contributions they have made through superior leadership in contributing to the growth of Bowling Green.

Mrs. Whitworth speaking on the obligations of an employee to her employer, stated that in order to be a good employee you must first of all have ambition, motivation, and good public relationship; be able to work with others; and be able to follow through to completion any job undertaken and acknowledge help from others.

Mr. Guess discussed "Investments" pointing out the different ways that individuals can invest their money and what to look for in making investments.

Mr. Reynolds discussed the "Advantages of the Trust and Will". He stressed the importance of making a will early in life and the importance of seeking professional services in order to make a will legal.

Following these informative sessions, a luncheon was held. Mrs. Jo Ann Rudolph, Financial Forum Co-ordinator, presided during the luncheon. Mr. Grover Holderfield, 1969-1970 Boss of the Year for the Kentucky Colonel Chapter, presented the "Boss's Comments" commenting on the need for good employer-employee relations.

Following the luncheon, a fashion show coordinated by Mrs. Jill McKinly of Castner-Knots was presented. She was assisted by Mrs. Judy Harris, Financial Forum Co-Chairman and Mrs. Emily Morriss, a Kentucky Colonel Member.

We are in the area of $480 net profit to our SCHOLARSHIP FUND. A complete report will be given at the February meeting.

A "SPECIAL THANKS" to ALL members who attended, participated, promoted, and donated in any way. The confidence and enthusiasm will always be remembered.

An "EXTRA SPECIAL THANKS" to JoAnn Rudolph, Program Co-ordinator and Judy Harris, Co-ordinator of the fashion show, without whose help it would not have been a success.

Jean Fulkerson

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the Colonelette presents an introduction of our two new members:

Mrs. Shirley Martin is co-owner of the Bowling Green Laundry and Dry Cleaners. Her hobbies include bridge and reading. Steak is her favorite food and orange is her favorite color. She and her husband, Edward C. Martin, have four children, Charles, Julia, David, and Jane.

Mrs. Kathryn Thornton is employed with T.V. Scoop of Bowling Green, Kentucky. She and her husband, Jesse W. Thornton, are the parents of five children, Carolyn, Vickie, Phil, Diane, and Richard. Bowling, swimming, sewing, soft-ball and dancing are her hobbies. Seafood and the color blue are also her favorites.

WELCOME

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO FIGHT COMMUNISM AND TO PROTECT.....

Alert yourself---learn the true nature and tactics of communism.

Make civic programs for social improvement your business.

Exercise your right to vote; elect representatives of integrity.

Respect human dignity---communism and individual rights cannot co-exist.

Inform yourself; know your country---its history, traditions, and heritage.

Combat public apathy toward communism--- indifference can be fatal when national survival is at stake.

Attack bigotry and prejudice wherever they appear; justice for all is the bulwark of democracy.

CITIZENSHIP MONTH GUEST SPEAKER
STATE SENATOR: RAY B. WHITE

Ray B. White, born August 18, 1935, in Berea, Kentucky, is a graduate of Castle Heights Military Academy, Western Kentucky State College, and the University of Kentucky College of Law. He is a practicing attorney and a member of the law firm of White and Hughes in the Cook Building, Bowling Green, Kentucky. In 1969 he was elected to the Kentucky State Senate from the 32nd Senatorial District, consisting of Breckinridge, Ohio, Edmonson, Grayson and Warren counties. While serving in the 1970 Session of the General Assembly, he served on the following committees: health and welfare, labor, and industry, and public utilities and transportation.

He is Past President of the Bowling Green Bar Association, Past President of the High Twelve Club, Past President of the Warren County Kiwanis Club, and Past President of the T. C. Cherry, P.T.A. He has also served as Lieutenant Governor, Division II, of Kiwanis Club International.

He and his wife, the former Jaunita Murry of Bowling Green, have three children: Statia, 16, William, 14, and Ray B. II, 11.

His talk will be based on responsibility in government and some general comments on the Special Session to be called by the Kentucky State Legislature for February 25, 1971.

*****
The Colonelette and all members of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter ABWA wish Arlene Rountree a speedy recovery.
