The Brotherhood Quartet

The "Brotherhood Quartet" under the heading of "Brotherhood Ministries Inc." consists of Rev. Garry (Round Man) Polston from Mannsville, Ky., (lead singer) Bobby Lee, from Columbia, Ky. (pianist) Don Parker from Campbellsville, Ky. (tenor) Kenny Roberts from Bargersville, Indiana (baritone) and Allen Wiggington from Franklin, Indiana (bass singer).

We have been singing approximately two years.

We sing nearly every weekend, sometimes as many as five dates. Most of our bookings are presently in Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee but our schedule for next year also includes Virginia, Florida, N. Carolina, and possibly other states. (Garry preaches "gobs" of revivals also).

Our "sound" is basically southern-gospel with a touch of variety as we write a lot of our own songs. We are developing our own unique style, we feel.

We use only the piano at present, and it is played by Bobby Lee. Bobby started at the age of 6 and spent hours and hours learning mostly on his own to develop his God-given talent for the keyboard and music in general. He has played in recent years for his high school choir, for weddings, funerals, churches, various groups including the "Telestials" of Nashville, Tennessee (a full-time group) and presently teaches nearly 60 piano students at his Columbia home.

The group originally started as a part of the "Polston Family" when Garry sang with his twin brother Larry, and their mom and dad, well-known and highly respected singers in the Ky. area. To make a long story short, Mom and Dad had about decided to retire from the road in their older age and thus grew out of this group "The Brotherhood Quartet." Bobby, who had gone to Nashville to play for the "Telestials" came back to work with the group and to promote a dream that is becoming a reality - to have a full-time evangelistic team that travels for the Lord, winning to lost to Christ, thus both preaching and singing. Garry Polston, who had pastored in the Meth. church gave up his pulpit and is now a full-time evangelist. Larry Polston went on to sing with Mom and Dad and Kenny, Allen and Don were later added to the group as the "Brotherhood Quartet."

Garry occasionally takes some schooling in the Methodist Church organization but most of us are working at jobs through the week.

The "Round Man" is thus named (and has been for years) because he is F.A.T. All of us have a sort of second name (except Bobby) and they are "Body Man" (Don Parker who used to work and still does, in his body shop, painting cars, etc.), the old "Body Guard" is Kenny Roberts, who used to be a wrestling champ in school, and "Big Al" Allen Wiggington. As for Bobby, he sprays his hair with Lysol! (by mistake once when taking pictures in the studio).

We presently use a step-van (bread truck) you might say, that is quite comfortable but just doesn't enough room.

We are very serious about our ministry and its goals for the "soul" purpose. We are writers, singers, preachers (only Gary is a preacher) and determined to succeed in our efforts in this evangelistic team.
