COUNCIL OF ACADEMIC DEANS

The Council of Academic Deans met in Dr. Craven's office at 1:15 p. m. , Wednesday, July 8, 1970. Dr. Page and Dr. Hardin were absent. The assistant deans also attended the meeting.

Dr. Cravens opened the meeting with comments on the World Academy's termination of its foreign study programs in which some Western students were participating.

Dr. Ronnie Sutton commented on the arrival of new students in the fall and their initial advising. He indicated he would be in touch with deans and department heads concerning the advisement program within the next few days.

Next attention was directed to the revised statement of guidelines on teaching loads. Dr. Cravens asked Dr. Clark to work up some statistics on courses offered by extension over the past year. He indicated the question of extension classes needed to be discussed further. Dr. Hatcher asked that "academic year" be defined and item VI be clarified. Dr. Cravens indicated this would be done. Dr. Jenkins said he would like to see item II modified in that he would like a straight 24-hr. load for all associate professors. Dr. Cravens requested that each dean give him a list of associate professors in his college who are not on the Graduate Faculty.

Attention was called to the proposed 1971-72 calendar. This will be discussed at the next deans meeting.

Dr. Cravens also called attention to a statement on payroll procedures for faculty and staff and indicated this would be on the agenda for the next meeting.

Dr. Russell said he would like to express his approval of Sander Vanocur as a possible lecturer.

The meeting adjourned to office 222 for a demonstration of the use of the computer.
