PRODUCE CLUB WINNER OF TWO GAMES YESTERDAY

Forest Park and Mount Victor Teams Are Taken Into Camp

The Produce Baseball Club added two more victories to its credit yesterday afternoon, when the boys engaged in a double header with the Forest Park and Mount Victor Baseball Clubs. The first game, with the Forest Park nine, was called at two o'clock.

Howell was in the box for the Produce Club, allowing only five hits for the Forest Park. The second game, with the Mount Victor nine, was on the mound by Major, and Gowen did the pitching for the Produce boys. Harrell did the pitching and Edwards did the catching for the Mount Victor team, while Harrell allowed the Produce nine batters hits. Harrell was taken out in the middle of the seventh inning. Bears being substitution, Bears allowed the Produce boys to get seven hits off him.

The final score for the second game was 14 to 5 in favor of the Produce Club. The scores by innings were:

12:00 - Luncheon
1:00 - Further Organization
Appointment of Committees
2:00 - Recreation
Tea, Swimming, Motorize, etc.
6:30 - Banquet
Talks, Discussion of Plans for 1928
14:00 - Dance at Beech Bend Park
All meetings at Mason Temple, Corner Twelfth and State streets.

The local DeMolay Chapter will be host to approximately thirty delegates representing all the DeMolay Chapters in Kentucky on next Sunday. The purpose of the state DeMolay Convention is to form the several chapters in the state into one State Association.

For many years the need of a state association in Kentucky has been felt, it is said and it is thought that one would promote a brotherhood among the different chapters. At the Convention the matters of organization, summer camps, providing athletic contests, and social affairs will be discussed by the young men.

Several weeks ago the local chapter decided to sponsor the first concrete and letters were sent to chapters all over the state. The chapters all met with favorable comments among the several DeMolay organizations, and the Bowling Green members predict a successful meet.

The Executive Committee:

HAROLD W. FINCH, Chairman
JOHN M. GOODWIN
WILLIAM M. McCOY
HARRY H. HARRIS
THOMAS C. BROWN
WILLIAM H. BURNS
W. K. Johnson

The purpose of the convention is to bring the members of the various chapters together and to promote the spirit of brotherhood among the different chapters.

A PRAISEWORTHY WORK

BOWLING GREEN, a city of 18,000, has a civic makeup surprisingly free of agencies devoting time to boys work. No Y. M. C. A., Boy Scout or organized playground program is provided and this fact is a source of wonder to visitors who come to see our city and hear boasting citizens boast of Bowling Green as "The Athens of Kentucky."

However, one agency for young men from 16 to 21 years of age is providing a real fraternal spirit for the young men of the city, and, although working quietly, is a very strong organization.

The Bowling Green Chapter Order of DeMolay for Boys is fully organized with a club room in the Masonic Temple, corner of Twelfth and State Streets, fitted as a reading room. A number of games are also provided in the club room.

The organization sponsors dances, outings and other forms of recreation and in the winter time takes part in basketball games and other indoor contests.

Regular meetings are held which are devoted to various activities. Included, is a program of ritualistic work hardly excelled in fraternal organizations that only enroll adult members.

The Order of DeMolay for Boys, started a few years ago in Kansas City, has enjoyed a wonderful growth and now chapters are maintained in practically every section of the United States. The idea grew out of a successful club for boys and young men which was conducted for some time in that city.

Fostering every worthwhile civic enterprise and high standards of gentlemanly conduct, the Order of DeMolay is bound to continue to prosper in the good graces of the better citizens. The organization deserves the support of every citizen who is interested in the young men of today as the leaders of the nation of the next two or three decades.

WE WISH TO EXPRESS OUR APPRECIATION OF YOUR EXPRESSION OF SYMPATHY AND KINDNESS DURING OUR RECENT BEREAVEMENT.

Army Code "Carry On" Invoked By Sad Comrades of Football Victim

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
WEST POINT, N. Y. Oct. 30.—(P)
—Army turned its back on tragedy today, tried to forget for the moment the fresh grave of Cadet Richard Brinsley Sheridan, Jr., and thought only of the army code, "Carry on."

On the bulletin boards was the official announcement: "Army begins today intensive practice for the football game Saturday with Colorado College."

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinsley Sheridan, father and mother of the Army end who died of a broken neck suffered in a grudge battle with Yale, were Scotchman funeral Wednesday with Yale, together with another son, Gerard, and a daughter, Mrs. C. J. Herman, on their way back home by train to Augusta, Ga.

In the Army records, across the name of "Dick" Sheridan, president of the second year class, honor man and soldier, was written: "Died of injuries accidentally received."

The corps rallied yesterday to give their comrades a military burial that for dignity, impressiveness and depth of feeling has never been surpassed in West Point history. For a full dress, shouldering their rifles, they gazed in homage as he lay through the day in the tiny Catholic chapel on a casket overlooking the Hudson. His Catholic comrades went to a last requiem mass with him there in the morning and in the afternoon. His classmates, the football squad, relatives, officers and Yale mourners, Captain Abe Booth and Head Coach Mal Stilson, attended the solemn burial service in the chapel.

Then in the late afternoon the entire corps, military band at the head, bearing the casket, made the long journey to the cemetery.

Boots Set in Name

Behind the flag-draped casket, resting on an artillery caisson drawn by seven horses, plodded a cavalry horse draped in black. Sheridan's boots set backward in the stirrups. Ahead walked the priest in his cassock and robes, behind trudged the officers who had been his teachers.

As dark was falling, he was lowered into his grave as the priest prayed again, his company fired three volleys and the bugle sounded "taps."

The corps turned then and marched back in the gathering darkness down the long hill to the barracks while the band swung into a march. Sheridan was buried, and the army faced to move forward.

HISTORY OF MME. ESTELLE GRAY-LHEVINNE
Mme. Gray-Lhevinne’s entire musical education was won by a series of scholarships. At the age of eight she gave her first unassisted violin recital to an audience of fifteen hundred persons at the Alhambra Theatre in San Francisco, Calif. At this time she played the entire Mendelssohn concerto from memory with orchestral accompaniment. By the time she was sixteen she had won New York with a series of recitals at the Waldorf Astoria. It was at this time that Theodore Roosevelt said of her, “You have absorbed the message of your great West. I knew you must have practiced in the open, in sight of the great mountains, because of the breadth shown in the strength and virility of your bowing.” At seventeen she made her first transcontinental tour.

Before she reached the age of twenty this vivid violinist had had a two years’ successful tour of European art centers. She was asked to accept a life membership in the Cleveland Musical Association, an honor bestowed upon few women—the other life members are Walter Damrosch, Mischa Elman, Schumann-Heink, Leonard Liebling (editor of the “Musical Courier”), Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Margaret Matzenauer, Josef Hofmann, Reimold Werenrowth, Frieda Hempel, Tito Schipa, Galli-Curci, Rachmaninoff. She has perhaps a greater army of followers than any other woman musician.

dgeographer and has gained international fame as an author.
According to the constitution, the objects of the recently organized club are “the pursuit of geographic knowledge and the cultivation of social companionship among the geography students and associated teachers at Western.”

At the first regular meeting of the club on the evening of March 20 in the Cedar House a program will be given centering about Dr. Semple’s career and contribution to geographic thought and literature.

On March 1 the Semplia joined in a breakfast hike to Lost River Cave, breakfast being served at seven o’clock by Prof. George Wood, head of the local Geography Department. On the morning of March 14 the group picture for the 1931 Tailsmen was taken on board the packet “Evansville,” after which members of the club and their guests made an excursion down Barren and Green rivers to the Morgantown coal mines.

Ellen Churchill Semple
Honored

Miss Ellen Churchill Semple, in whose honor the recently formed Geographical Society was named, is a native of Louisville and comes from a distinguished family. She was educated at Vassar. After receiving the B. A. and M. A. degrees, she went to Germany where she did three years of post-graduate study at the University of Leipzig. While there she studied under the famous Professor Frederich Ratzel. Upon her return to America she adapted his lectures and writings on anthropogeography to the English language and American school conditions in her well-known "Influences of Geographic Environment." An article of hers, "The Anthropogeography of the Anglo-Saxons of the Kentucky Mountains" is often cited as a classic exposition of the influences of geographic environment upon human activities and characteristics.

Miss Semple has been a member of the staffs of many of the leading colleges in this country and abroad, including those of Oxford and Chicago Universities. At present she is professor of Anthropogeography at the Clark University Graduate School of Geography, Worcester, Mass.

In addition to having been president of the Association of American Geographers—the most exclusive geographical society in the world, she has had many special honors bestowed upon her in recognition of her services and contributions to geography and education. In 1923 the University of Kentucky conferred upon her the LL. D. degree in recognition of her outstanding achievements.

Several years ago Dr. Semple delivered a series of lectures at Western. She visited College Heights again in 1929 when the Penny Royal Council of Geography Teachers gave a dinner in her honor at the Helm Hotel.

Since a year ago when she was stricken with a severe illness, she has been husbanding her strength to put her studies and lectures in book form. A new work on "The Geography of the Mediterranean" will soon be off the press and she is actively engaged in revising and extending her "American History and Its Geographic Conditions," a reference that is well known to all history and geography students at Western.

A diplomatic tidbit out of Albania's Ministry, there was once a ray of hope for the friendship between the United States and the new nation. However, it turned out to be a diplomatic snub. The American ambassador, who had previously been very friendly with Albania's leader, suddenly received a letter from the new government, asking him to leave the country immediately. The ambassador was shocked and frustrated, feeling that his efforts had been in vain. He quickly returned home to Washington, where he was greeted with a warm reception from the press and the public. The incident created quite a stir in diplomatic circles and raised questions about the future of American relations with Albania. Despite this setback, the ambassador continued to work tirelessly to improve relations between the two countries, and eventually, his efforts paid off, leading to a significant improvement in diplomatic relations.

Summer '32
The Tang of the South
By James Tandy Ellis.

In Eastern homes they talk in flowers, and tell in a parlend the loves and cares.—(Pericope.)

As one approaches the bridge near Bowling Green, in early July, his vision is cheered by scores of orange color, as they are beautiful and expertized in their assembly. This vision is cheered by the flowers of many side the approach, as they are beautiful and expertized in their assembly. After one has fulfilled the purpose of their mission. After one has fulfilled the purpose of their mission.

There are some wonderful caves above Bowling Green and there are others that are not wonderful. They visited a small cave that run back about forty feet. Harry asked the man if that was all of the cave.

"No," he said, "it runs back over a mile, but we can't stop up the opening till be die!

Bowling Green is a beautiful and attractive city.

A false sense of strength is told of the business street, where you have to plant both of your feet firmly when you start to pronounce Elsie downtown or Munfordville. An Irishman once said to one of those who pass by, and that country in some way reminds one of Пале.

There was a good deal of activity around Bowling Green during the War between the States, Albert Sydney Johnston was there, and, in the sale of the south sold the old Confederate fort, traces of which still remined.

There is something musical and flowing in the name Bowling Green.

You have to plant both of your feet firmly when you start to pronounce Elsie downtown or Munfordville. An Irishman once said to one of those who pass by, and that country in some way reminds one of Пале.

In my old firm of Ghost lived a darkey named Grant Washington.
Grant was a black as midnight and bad teeth that looked like place keys.

About twice during the summer he would get a rise.

"Grant, you will be out in a short time as good as new.,

"Grant, you will be out in a short time as good as new.

A smile lit his features as he said.

"Yaas, ma' am you know the fast thing I'm gwine do when I git out.

"The fast thing I'm gwine do when I git out.

Tandy Ellis.

Hail! Hail! Hail!

THE ROAD TO WESTERN
Tune: "Tipperary"

It's a long, long way to dear old Western,
It's a long way to go;
It's a long way to dear old Western,
To the grandest school I know.
Goodbye to the home-folks,
No more work for me:
It's a long, long way to dear old Western,
But, there's where I'll be.

HOMECOMING SONG

We're coming home to dear old Western,
And we can't get there too soon.
We want to see the bluegrass waving,
Welcome home morn, night, and noon.
College days amongst the Wildwood,
Always will be memories
Back on the old Hilltop
Where we are bound to stop
College Heights we're here to-day.

ALL GET TOGETHER

Let's all get together in everything we do,
No matter if your task is great or small.
Life is quite worthwhile, if we'll only smile,
For the best wins after all.
So when clouds dim our sunshine
And dark seems the day,
Let's all get together and wear a sunny smile
And soon the clouds will drift away.

TAPS

Good-night, we must part;
God keep watch o'er us all thru the night.
We shall meet with the morn;
Good-night.
Day is done, gone the sun
From the hills, from the woods, from the sky.
All is well, safely rest;
God is nigh.

TRIP TO MAMMOTH CAVE NATIONAL PARK

Through the courtesy of Mr. Geo. D. Morrison, manager of New Entrance Cave, the Press delegates will be guests of the Mammoth Cave Development Company for a trip in the New Entrance to Mammoth Cave. Interesting points to be seen: Cathedral Domes, Frozen Niagara, College Heights Avenue, the Crystal River and many other unique and beautiful cave phenomena.

Professor Geo. E. Wood, Head of the Department of Geography and Geology, has donated his services to conduct the group through the cave.

It is advised that old, comfortable, low-heeled shoes be worn. Dress shoes should be protected by rubbers. Short jackets and caps are preferable to long coats and hats. Slickers should be taken to protect street wear if sport clothes are not worn. Knickers are in order for the ladies.

November Fifth to Seventh
Nineteen Hundred Thirty-One
THE RED AND THE GRAY.

Believe in the power of the Red and the Gray
To endure through the ages to come
With a loyalty, born of a pride in her might
We shall sing of her glory and fame.
O Western, rejoice in thy faith and thy love
Let thy spirit be proud evermore,
For thou dost inspire with knowledge and truth
All the daughters and sons of the Hill.

So honor and praise to the Red and the Gray
As triumphant, she leads one and all
With a vision of light, and ideals pure and great
She hath won, in true service, a name.
Then pledge we anew our allegiance so true
Till the heavens shall fade from our view
We bless thee, we praise thee for all thou hast been
And the love that we bear for the Hill.

GOOD COMPANY

Today I have grown taller from walking with the trees,
These seven sister-poplars who go softly in a line;
And I think my heart is whiter for its parley with a star
That trembled out at nightfall and hung above the pine.
The call-note of a redbird from the cedars in the dusk
Woke his happy mate within me to an answer free and fine;
And a sudden angel beckoned from a column of blue smoke—
Lord, who am I that they should stoop—these holy folk of thine?
