REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in heaven's name WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him speak well of him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally dispare--resign your position and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not dondemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprotted, and blown away, and probably won't never know the reason why.

BOSS NIGHT, 1972

"Progress Through Change: was the theme for the annual Boss Night Dinner held on June 17, 1972, at the Barren River Lodge State Park. The theme was carried out with table decorations and behind the podium and the head table.

Barbara Farley, chairman of the event presided. The Invocation was given by Mary Collins. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Imogene Graves, treasurer.

Miss Farley introduced the head table, past bosses of the year, all members and their guests.

The Toastmistress for the night's activities was Mrs. Deloris Gaddie. Florence Perkins gave the welcome and the employers response in the absence of the 1971 Boss of the Year, Mr. Willard O. Perkins, who was unable to attend due to business obligations.

The ADWA local history was given by Pat Glasscock, co-chairman of Boss Night.

Miss Farley, chairman, then read the letter of nomination and announced the winner of the 1972 Boss of the Year

Boss Night Continued:

Mr. J. D. Glasscock. He is the husband of our member Mrs. Pat Glasscock, and is also her boss.

Jean Fulkerson gave the National History and ADWA Creed.

The vocational talk was given by our Woman of the Year, Miss Bobbie Cardwell. Bobbie is employed by the Bowling Green-Warren County Hospital as head programmer of the data processing department.

Jimmie Lou Combs entertained with 2 dance numbers and Mr. Don Gaddie sang 2 songs. The entertainment was enjoyed by everyone.

Joyce Tabor, Recording Secretary, introduced the guest speaker, Mr. C. Don Ensor, artist. Mr. Ensor spoke on the topic "Something Old in a New Idea". He has 9 original oil reproductions in prints. He gave some very interesting points on how he obtained ideas for his drawings. Mr. Ensor also had his prints on display which everyone enjoyed viewing.

Miss Farley presented gifts to all her co-chairmen and everyone who had worked so hard to make this one of our most memorable Boss Night Programs ever.

Organ music was provided for dinner by Mr. Charles Parker. Benediction was given by Miss Carolyn Dallas, Social Chairman.

"TEN COMMANDMENTS OF BUSINESS"

1. Handle the hardest job first each day. Easy ones are pleasant and pleasurable.
2. Do not be afraid of criticism. Criticize yourself often.
3. Be glad and rejoice in the other fellow's success and study his methods.
4. Do not be misled by dislikes. Acid ruins the finest fabrics.
5. Be enthusiastic. It is contagious.
6. Do not have the notion that success means simply money making.
7. Be fair.
8. Honor the chief. There must be a head to everything.
9. Have confidence in yourself.
10. Harmonize your work. Let sunshine radiate and penetrate your relationship.

AND MOST OF ALL DON'T BE DENIED!

Hand of Friendship
Enrollment Tea

"The Kentucky Colonel Chapter" of the American Business Women's Association will hold its Hand of Friendship Enrollment Event September 17, 1972.

This event is held semi-annually to introduce the organization and the local chapter to business women in this area. At the same time similar events will be held across the country by more than 1,000 other ADWA chapters.

"The chief function of ADWA is to help women in business advance through education, increased competence, and through upgrading of professional skills and business attitudes".

The Association, founded in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1949, now has over 60,000 members. One of its worthy projects is giving scholarships to women students. Locally, chapters awarded over $350,000. in scholarships from October 1, 1970 to September 30, 1971. During this period an additional $70,000. in scholarships was awarded from the National Scholarship Fund.

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Since this will be the last bulletin under the old board, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the board members, chairmen, and every member of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter for their support during this past year. We have had a remarkable year. We are just short of the Star Reward, and I feel confident we will make it. This is the first for our chapter.

Just in case you haven't heard, the Opryland Chapter in Galletin is Chartered. It was chartered August 8, with 24 members. It was under the supervision of Jean Fulkerson. Several of our members attended the get acquainted party and the installation of the charter chapter. Many thanks to Jean and her committee for their efforts for a job well done.

I only wish the best for the new board members and would like for each member to pledge her full support.

Again, many thanks and much love to all.

INVOCATION

Lord, in the quiet of this evening hour
We come to Thee for wisdom, and for power
To view Thy world through only loved-filled eyes;
To grow an understanding; to be wise
And sure to see Thy guiding light, and thus
To know each other as Thou knowest us.

Amen.

BENEDICTION

O Guiding Spirit, Guardian of our days,
Be with us as we go our separate ways,
Help us to feel those thoughts that lift and bless
To know a closer bond of friendliness;
To see Thy beauty always--every day,
Translated into living--this we pray.

Amen.
