The Inspirations From Bryson City, N.C., Go Platinum

Word Vice-President, Director of Sales, Rolland Luncy, announced that record sales by the Inspirations recently topped the one million mark.

Their new album "Some Day" is moving on up on the charts with the song "They're holding up the ladder," being the top song. The Inspirations have been singing several years and have done a lot for Gospel music.

Congratulations Inspirations!

National Convention A Success

The National Quartet Convention was held in Nashville, Tn., on October 4-9, with many fine groups singing and giving thanks to God.

We attended on Wednesday, October 6, and then went back on the 8th and the 9th.

Some of the top songs at the Convention were "The Angel's are holding up the ladder for me, Step into the water, Heaven's Mountain Band, God's gonna do the same for you and me," and many, many more too numerous to mention.

The week was enjoyable and very uplifting to us. Gospel music is here to stay.

From The Editor

As we approach a new year, 1983, we look forward to being in Gospel music and with people that are involved in it. 1982 has been a good year in many ways. The economy has affected everyone some, but surely there is a light at the end of the tunnel.

We here at Gospel Reaching Out need each of you, the subscribers, the gospel singers, the promoters, the pastors, the church members to continue to support Gospel music and pray for the ones who continue to carry the message through song.

Some say there are people who sing and don't live what they sing. If you see such a person, pray for them if you are right with God.

Too many times we are quick to criticize and tear the other person down, but if we would only keep them in our prayers then the world would be much better off.

To all the groups, we need your news and information concerning your group. In order to keep the paper alive, we must have this.

Thank each of you for your support and prayers over the years.

To The Editor

We were at the Kentucky State Singing Convention and received a copy of the October issue of Gospel Reaching Out. One of the articles we especially liked was "Legion of a Gospel Singer." It describes some of the problems that we have had in our travels, however, when we see that we have helped someone reach out to Jesus, through our singing, the problems do not seem important. We realize that what we do for Jesus is worth any problem that we may face here on this earth, because nothing can compare with what Jesus did for mankind.

Sincerely,
Bobby Crowe
