COUNCIL OF ACADEMIC DEANS

The Council of Academic Deans met in Dr. Cravens' Office Monday, October 12, 1970, at 1:30 p. m. All deans except Dr. Russell, who was represented by Dr. Stroube, were present.

Discussion of the plan for faculty improvement was deferred.

Dr. Cravens indicated that some guidelines on the earning of a second degree to be considered by the deans.

The deans were asked to talk with their department heads as to their preferences on the printing of the schedule bulletin. They should report on reaction at the next meeting.

It was agreed that the Dean's office of each College would keep a current schedule of classroom assignments in the buildings for which they have primary responsibility. A copy of this schedule will be sent to Dr. Cravens' office as soon after registration as possible.

Some of the deans raised questions concerning athletic tickets. Dr. Cravens said Dr. Minton and Mr. Largen would be asked to discuss this item at the next meeting.

Meeting adjourned.
