KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER
Bowling Green, Kentucky

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him; stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

MINUTES OF THE MARCH 23, 1971 MEETING OF THE
KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER, ABWA

The meeting, called to order by President Pat Glasscock, was held at the Midtown Holiday Inn with twenty-three members and eight guests present. The Invocation was given by JoAnn Rudolph and the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Cindy Browning. Following the Introduction of guests (new members to be installed), our Guest Speaker, Mr. Chester Redmon, Advisory Specialist in Human Relations, told of the functions of his committee: to try to establish trust where people will feel that they can sit down and discuss things freely. Estelle Holloway, Office Manager for the Water-Sewer and Sanitation Department explained some of the various duties that she has held since joining the Commission. Minutes of the February 23, 1971 meeting were read and approved. There was no official communications from National Headquarters. Under other communications, a note from the family of Arlene Rountree who died February 23 was read and also a note of sympathy from the Bowling Green Charter Chapter was read. The Treasurer's report was as follows:

On Hand Last Report	$668.66
Amount Received	112.00
Disbursements	164.42
Remainder	$616.24

Reports from Standing Committees: Scrapbook, none; Bulletin, material for April Bulletin is needed by April 7; Employment-Housing-Transportation, none; Social, clarified report made in February minutes; Ways and Means, reports were heard from LITTLE MISS BOWLING GREEN PAGEANT and the selling of ads for the Souvenir Program for BOSS NIGHT; Publicity, none; Membership, Iva Miller announced that we reached our quota of six by installing eight new members from our March Tea... We now have eleven new members; Banquet, Brenda Williams and Lucille Walton will be hostesses in April; Educational Project, none.

Other reports: Florence Perkins, Boss Night Chairman, announced that Boss Night is tentatively set for June 19, 1971;

Special Reports from Pat Glasscock, representative and Barbara Farley, alternate delegate, advised us of all the happenings at the Southeastern District Meeting at Norfolk, Virginia.

Under New Business: Brenda Williams made a motion that we defray expenses for Florence Barrett as our 1971 BOSS NIGHT GUEST SPEAKER; it was seconded by Cindy Browning. Cindy Browning made a motion that we follow our standard procedure for paying the expense and registration of our representative and alternate representative to the District Meeting; it was seconded by Florence Perkins.

Minutes of the Executive Board meeting were read and approved.

Following the adjournment of the meeting by Pat Glasscock, President, eight new members were installed. They were: Una Mayhew, Betty Moulder, Patsy Smith, Mae Page, Carol McDougal, Dottie Marx, Carolyn Moore, and JoAn Stacker. The Benediction was given by Florence Perkins.

Recording Secretary

CHESTER REDMON, ADVISORY SPECIALIST IN HUMAN RELATIONS WAS MARCH'S GUEST SPEAKER

Mr. Redmon stated that the main objective of his committee was to assist teachers in developing techniques that will bring about understanding of the underprivileged, especially the black. He stated that he hopes to establish behavioral laboratories to develop human potential. According to Mr. Redmon, prejudice is the chief obstacle to expressing our differing points of view.

A second part of his talk dealt with community involvement in the human relations program. If you are willing to help, you have the right to criticize. He encouraged all who have talent in some area, to help. He particularly encouraged all members to actively support the "DO SOMETHING" program sponsored by the Bowling Green Jaycees.

PREZ SEZ

APRIL SHOWERS are here again and SPRING FLOWERS are making their appearance. We think of growth as we think of spring and we, as a Chapter, have grown by leaps and bounds. We extend a welcome to our new members. If you have not been formally introduced, here they are: Carol McDougal, Executive Secretary, Bob Hunt Real Estate Agency; Betty Moulder, Secretary, Massey-Holland Insurance Agency; Una Mayhew, Nancy Taylor Instructor, Bowling Green Business College; Dotty Marx, Manager Woman's Division, Health Spa; Mae Page, Manager, Town Square Cafe; JoAn Stacker, Office Manager, Ramada Homes, Inc.; Patsy Smith, Medical Assistant, Dr. Jesse Funk; Carolyn Moore, Chief Admissions Clerk, Bowling Green-Warren County Hospital; Neva Watt, Electric Plant Board; Imogene Graves, PBX Operator, Electric Plant Board; and Sue Eicher, Secretary, Chrysler Airtemp, was returned to Active Status. A big THANK YOU to our membership chairman, Iva Miller and to the SPONSOR of each new member. Ann Bays, our Tea Chairman, deserves a big THANKS also. It was my pleasure to have each of you in my home.

LITTLE MISS BOWLING GREEN PAGEANT IS FRIDAY, APRIL 23, at 7:00 P.M. at the McNeill School. Anna Sue, Elizabeth, and Barbara need each member's help to sell tickets, encourage registration, and to help with the many posts on that big Friday evening. Let's make it a 100% total effort.

Our WOMAN OF THE YEAR, Jill Gentry, will be going to Washington, D.C. and New Jersey for a short visit. Our publicity on her appeared on Tuesday, April 6. Jill is our Bulletin Chairman and a fine one, may I add. Jill, have a nice trip and we know you are a very deserving young woman.

To their already outstanding achievements, the above members have added yet another honor, that of sponsoring new members. Let's follow their good example and introduce the American Business Women's Association to other deserving young women!

HOW LITTLE IT COSTS

How little it costs, if we give it a thought,
To make happy some heart each day!
Just one kind word or a tender smile,
As we go on our daily way.

Perchance a look will suffice to clear
The cloud from a neighbor's face;
And the press of a hand in sympathy
A sorrowful tear efface.

One walks in sunlight, another goes
All weary in the shade;
One treads a path that is fair and smooth;
Another must pray for aid.

It costs so little; I wonder why
We give it so little thought;
A smile, kind words, a glance, a touch--
What magic with them is wrought.

LITTLE MISS BOWLING GREEN PAGEANT, APRIL 23, 1971

The Fourth Annual LITTLE MISS BOWLING GREEN PAGEANT will be held Friday, April 23, 1971, at 7:00 P.M. at the McNeill School. Anna Sue Jackson, Chairman, and Barbara Farley and Elizabeth Wilson, co-chairmen, held a meeting on Tuesday, March 30 with a total of 12 members attending. Rehearsal is scheduled for April 22 at 7:00 P.M. and all members are to be present at the McNeill School that evening...a rehearsal for us, too.

Awards to be presented are on display at Shelley-Sue Fashions and at the Youth House.

The theme for this year's event is "Fantasy Land". Emily Morriss, decorations' chairman, will need help and volunteers should contact Emily.

Becky Morehead, ticket chairman, advises that she still has plenty of tickets and she will have a table set up at the rehearsal to sell advance tickets.

We now have a total of 44 (4/15/71) registered and our goal is 60, twenty in each age division. If you know or hear of anyone with a little girl within our age range, have them contact Jean Fulkerson at 842-1603 or 842-5168.

Anna Sue Jackson, Chairman

THE KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER OF ABWA acknowledges the letter from National Headquarters to the chapter concerning the report of the Southeastern District Meeting held at Norfolk, Virginia. Since we covered the Meeting in the March Colonelette, we felt it would be repetitious to give the letter in its entirety.

ATTENTION!! ATTENTION!!!

Boss Night ads are to be reported and given to Jean Fulkerson by May 28, 1971.

INVOCATION

Lord, in the quiet of this evening hour,
We come to Thee for wisdom, and for power;
To view Thy world through only love-filled eyes;
To grow in understanding; to be wise
And sure to see Thy guiding light; and thus
To know each other as Thou knowest us.

Amen

BENEDICTION

O Guiding Spirit, Guardian of our days,
Be with us as we go our separate ways,
Help us to feel those thoughts that lift and bless,
To know a closer bond of friendliness;
To see Thy beauty always---every day,
Translated into living---this we pray.

Amen

HAPPY EASTER TO YOU ALL
