APRIL 1983

Stephen Speer Appointed Director Of N.Q.C.

The Board of Directors of the National Quartet Convention have retained the services of Stephen Speer to head their office in Nashville, Tennessee in the capacity of Executive Director. The Board's confidence in Speer's experience, ability, integrity and vision for the future of the National Quartet Convention was paramount in their decision to entrust him with what have become an institution in Southern Gospel Music.

Although a young man, Speer is no newcomer to Gospel Music. He was, in his words, "born in this business". When Stephen came along in 1954, his father, Ben Speer, had been singing for some twenty years in the group started in 1921 by Ben's father and mother, Dad and Mom Speer. "Some of my earliest memories," says Stephen, "are of sleeping in an overhead baggage rack."

A Word From Rhythm Masters

THE RHYTHM MASTERS is a name that has been synonymous with Gospel Music in the midwest since 1967. In the late 50's in Birmingham, Alabama, the Rhythm Masters was formed and in the late 60's two of the original members moved to Cincinnati, Ohio. Within a short time the group was in much demand in the Midwest and in 1972 won the award as the top semi-professional Gospel group in the Nation at the National Quartet Convention in Nashville, Tennessee.

Carrol Rawlings, lead singer and manager of the Rhythm Masters and his wife, Linda, were members of this award winning group. Carrol Rawlings, president of Artist's Recording Company, was an original member of the nationally known Landmark Quartet and is the son of Dr. John Rawlings, pastor of the Landmark Baptist Temple.

Linda Rawlings is pianist for the Rhythm Masters and is considered by many to be one of the finest musicians in Gospel Music.

Bill Dykes first joined the Rhythm Masters in 1973. He quickly established himself as one of the top baritones in the business. He is a former member of the famous Cathedral Quartet and was for several years with Jerry and the Singing Goffs. Now as a member of the Rhythm Masters, Bill's rich baritone voice adds fullness to the group that every group strives for.

Elizabeth Renee Taulbee is the newest member of the Rhythm Masters and without question one of the finest voices in Gospel Music. Audiences are thrilled by the dynamic singing of this young artist.

The Rhythm Masters have a unique style that touches the heart. An honest excitement and spirit is portrayed in their music and is evident that the Saviour is a reality in their own lives.

Seekers Join Gospel Reaching Out

James Froedge, Teresa Fields, Elbert Fields, and Lane Garmon...

In December of 1982, a new gospel group was formed in Edmonton, Kentucky. The group known as "The Seekers" are as follows: James Froedge, lead; Teresa Fields, alto and piano; Elbert Fields, bass; and Lane Garmon, tenor and bass guitar.

We would like to request the prayers of the Christian people as we work to serve God through praises and song.

We are looking forward to seeing souls saved and others drawn closer to the Lord.

We received your letter regarding the 11th Annual Singing and we are planning on attending this year.

We are really looking forward to being with you all again.

Thanks,
The Seekers

To The Editor

Dear friends in Gospel Reaching Out,

We received your letter, and we would like to thank you for your invitation to the 11th Annual May Sing. We are making plans to be with you May 14th. We would also like for you all to announce that we will be having stage entertainment once a month throughout the summer season at our home on the Worldstown Road, in Junction City, KY, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Groups that will perform:

May 15 - Pathways from Sandusky, Ohio;

June 26 - Spencers from Shiloh, Ohio;

July 10 - Rexroats from Jamestown, Tennessee;

September 11 - Gospel Singing Spectacular (many groups);

More information later.

Prayers and best wishes,
The Byrd Sisters

Dear Friends,

We thank you for the invitation to the May singing, and are looking forward to being with you the 14th, if it is the Lord's will.

We thank the Lord for the work you are doing for him through your group and whatever he asks of you. We just wish that more people would put the Lord first in their lives, rather than a lot of worldly things. We believe that every Christian has a job to do for the Lord. And it takes all the Christian people working together to make a better place to live, until his return again.

The Spirituals would just like to thank the Lord and praise him for all he has given us the past few years because we owe it all to him. We need your prayers.

May the Lord Bless You,
The Spirituals

News From Far-Out

This month we're looking at a relatively new speaker cabinet from Yamaha. The Yamaha S3115. The S3115 is a high sensitivity, compact, portable speaker system. Despite its modest size, 25-7/8" high x 18-5/8" wide x 14-5/8" deep, weighing 65 lbs., the S3115 really packs a punch. What's more, it delivers rich bass, thanks to a high-efficiency 15 inch woofer in a vented enclosure. Mid and high frequencies are not only clear, they are powerfully projected by a compression driver and horn. While the S3115 can get loud, it remains warm and natural sounding because of the carefully matched drivers in a tuned enclosure. Midrange dispersion is broad and uniform, without a lot of feedback-inducing peaks or program robbing dips.

I find the S3115 to be a tough little speaker that generates plenty of clean sound, excellent for use in Gospel Music. The Yamaha S3115 can be stand mounted. It has a retail price of $445.00 and is available at Far-Out Music for $356.00. For more information about the Yamaha S3115, contact me at Far-Out Music.

This Month's Sound Term:

DIP: A reduction in gain at a certain frequency, also called a NOTCH.

There was a benefit held at the Convention Center on March 6th for Nicholas Martin, son of Glen and Prissy Martin. The McCubbins Family have just recorded a long playing double album. They are celebrating their 25th anniversary this year and in conjunction with this event they will be having a big Gospel Singing later this year. Announcements concerning the singing will be in the next issue of the paper. The double album is expected to be released by the middle of May. There will be a list of songs from the album posted in the next issue also.

Keep watching Gospel Reaching Out for more information next month.

The pictures in this issue are taken with Gordon Meador, producer of the album's and a shot of the recording at the Hilltop Studios in Nashville, Tennessee.

This promises to be one of the best albums the McCubbins Family has ever recorded.
