Far-Out Music

This month we are looking at an instrument that will be very difficult to write about in the space that I normally use to describe a product. I could write a book about what this instrument does and still leave something out.

In the world of electronic keyboards, "THE SYNERGY" is boss dog of the boneyard. The "SYNERGY" is a fully digital keyboard synthesizer with unlimited voices. It comes factory programmed with 24 voices that are activated 1 to 4 at a time with just a press of a button. In addition to 24 pre-programmed voices included with the instrument, a "cartridge" slot much like that found on home video games allows additional sets of 24 voices per cartridge to be added for use with the keyboard. Some of the stock voices, just to name a few included: Grand piano, Piano, Organ, Pipe Organ, Hammond B-3, Solo Violon, String Quartet, Trumpet, Brass Quartet, Harmonica, Guitar and more. Not only are new cartridges with 24 voices each being continuously developed, you can have custom cartridges made with the voices you want on them.

The keyboard has 74 velocity sensitive keys and can be split anywhere allowing you to assign different voices to different areas of the keyboard. It also has floating split, that split the keyboard into two ranges, but rather than having a fixed split point it moves the position of the split so that each voice tracks the movement of one hand up and down the keyboard.

The "SYNERGY" includes a fully digital built in recorder that allows you to record background accompaniment of up to four tracks. In other words, you can do something like record a piano part, a string quartet part, a brass quartet part and then say an organ part. Then, when these parts are played back, you can play another part along with the four previously recorded parts. WOW!

This only scratches the surface of what is capable with the "SYNERGY". Does the "SYNERGY" have a place in church and gospel music? You had better believe it does! Next time you see and hear the Ken Johnson Trio you'll find out what I mean. As for use in the church, pipe organ and a whole lot more for a fraction of the cost.

Til next month,

Dennis Billingsley

News From Inspirational IV

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their prayers and support.

Many people may have thought we had quit singing and for a time we have been reorganizing since Reba Moran left the group.

The group now consists of Charlotte and Ronnie Hubbard, Elisha and Dave Vanarsdall and Bonnie and W.D. Martin.

We request your continued prayers as we strive to do God's will.

Our annual singing will be July 2 at Grab, Ky. Our guest singers will be two well known groups, The Southern Harmony Quartet from Bowling Green, Ky. and The Stewards of the King from Hardyville, Ky.

Watch for more information in later issues of Gospel Reaching out.

Looking forward to the May sing, see you there.

Yours in Christ,

Inspirational IV

Meet The Redemptions

The Redemptions consists of Noble Howell, manager of the group and who also does the bookings and sings lead, plus switches with Roger with the tenor. Carl Howell, Noble's brother plays rythm guitar, sings baritone and does the upholstery and carpenter work in the bus. Roger Fields plays piano, sings tenor and also plays drums. If we sing with another group who will let him play, we won't let him with us. Doyal Waddles plays lead guitar, banjo and also plays the bass when we need him, and he always says "He couldn't live like that." Don Damron drives the bus, plays drums and also helps sell records and tapes and does the saying, "Peter Piped picked a peck of pickled peppers, pickie, pickie, pickie, ha ha." Darrel Mcobe sets up the equipment, sells tapes and records, then tears the equipment down and keeps us laughing. The new member is 11 year old Raetta Damron sings the high, high parts like Ernie Phillips on songs like "I Know A Man Who Can" and "Standing on a Solid Rock" she is really great and she has been a great uplift to our group.
