The Hart County Gospel Music Association celebrated their 11th anniversary on May 13 and 14 with two of the most successful singings in the history of Gospel Reaching Out. A large crowd attended each evening and a number of good gospel groups participated. Door prizes were given away and everyone seemed to enjoy the singing very much.

The groups who participated were The Barry Clardy Singers, The Christianaires, Cavelanders, Canaanland Quartet, Glasgow; Dorsey Family, Gods Ambassadors, Edmonton Quartet, Lincolnaires, Stewards of the King, Gospel

Lamplighters, The Seekers, Spiritual Four, Inspirational IV, Servants, The McCubbins Family, Spirituals, The Waddle Twins, Jamie Fancher, and Neila Spradlin - Canaanland Singers of Greenville, Amy McCubbins, Horse Cave.

We want to thank everyone who participated and made the singing successful.

Next year the 12th annual singing will be held at the Cave City Convention Center in Cave City on May 25 and 26. We are already making plans to have another good singing there. Make your plans now to attend.

The National Qt. Convention is Oct. 3-8, 1983
at Nashville, Tenn.,
City Auditorium.

Grace Union Singing

The regular monthly singing of the Grace Union Baptist Church will be held June 4, 1983. Sherman Hirt urges everyone to come out and bring someone. The church is in Metcalfe County.

What's Happening

The McCubbins Family will be in revival at the North Rolling Fork Baptist Church near Gravel Switch Junction, May 30 - June 5. Bro. Chuck Robinson is pastor. Bro. Bobby Slagle; Northside Baptist Church, Science Hill is the evangelist.

Jay Cross Records was represented at the May singing by Gordon and Linda Meador, owners. Two brand new releases include The Spiritual Four, Scottsville and The McCubbins Family, Munfordville. These were recorded and produced at Hilltop Studio, Nashville, Tennessee.

The Barry Clardy Singers have an album recorded at the Wes Sound Studio produced by Jim Hamill at Ashville, North Carolina.

Angela Swain, Greensburg, Ky., was the winner of Talent Search at Louisville, Kentucky. First prize was a free recording session. She has just received her new album entitled "You Ain't Seen the Last of Me." Congratulations to a fine young Christian lady!

The Redemptions, plus Kelly Hamilton, Shelby Valley Music Assoc. president, says come join us for a day of great gospel music on Father's Day, June 19. Bring lawn chairs. Mr. Hamilton says he is expecting a large crowd, which will be the Hamilton's Reunion. The sing location is Breaks Park, Va., on Rt. 80 at the Kentucky state line.

The Joymakers from Greensburg, Kentucky went back into Hilltop Studio in Nashville, Tennessee on May 15 and recorded their 4th album for Jay-Cross Records. Gordon Meador, producer of the album says this will be the best album that the Joymakers have ever recorded.

Jay Jackman, lead singer for the Servants Quartet, graduated from Western Kentucky University. Congratulations Jay! We wish you the best.

Barry Clardy Singers bass singer has decided not to continue singing with them so their son, who is 16, started filling in. He did a great job at GRO's 11th anniversary singing. Keep up the good work.

Barry Clardy's daughter and son and others have formed a group called the Canaanland Singers. It is good to see this group of youngsters singing for the Lord.

Paulette Clardy is attending Nursing School and has only one more year to go. You're almost there, Paulette!

Stewards of the King just purchased some new sound equipment from Dennis Billingsley at Far Out Music. This purchase includes a 16 channel mixer.

This year marks the 5th anniversary for Jay-Cross Records and Gordon Meador is planning a big gospel singing in conjunction with this. The singing will be held at the Westmoreland High School in Westmoreland, Tennessee on Saturday night, October 29 and will feature the groups who record on the Jay-Cross record label. Letters of invitation will be mailed to the groups soon. Keep reading Gospel Reaching Out for more information about this singing.

There will be a gospel sing Saturday night, June 4, 8:00 p.m. until ?? at Brannons Tobacco Warehouse #1 2 miles south of Bowling Green on 31W featuring Florida Boys, Monitors Quartet, Rex Nelson Singers, and The Joymakers.

Bring your lawn chairs.

News From Far Out

Last month we stepped into the world of electronic keyboards. This month we will continue that venture with an instrument that I think would make an excellent addition to any gospel group.

What do you do when you go somewhere to sing and the piano is so bad you can't use it? Or you are booked for an outside sing or a singing in a public building and no one made arrangements for a piano at all? The logical thing would be to have your own electric piano to pull you through a situation like this. But most of us are not satisfied with the sound and feel of most electric pianos for gospel music. They are great to use as an auxiliary instrument, but most of us cannot afford the luxury of an electric piano stashed to the side to get us through situations like the ones mentioned above. Unless, it could do a lot more.

Oh what a relief it is to see and hear the KORG EPS-1 electronic piano and strings. That's right piano and strings. Weighing in at only 38 pounds (I can carry it by myself), with 76 dynamic touch keys, six piano voices, and some of the most luscious strings I have ever heard, the EPS-1 is a versatile, compact, cost effective package. You won't even have to mortgage any of your children in order to afford one.

The Korg EPS-1 portable, touch sensitive, six piano voices, rich full strings, seventy six keys, and more features that make it a keyboard that is really worth considering adding to your group.

Until next month,

From The President

It is late Saturday night, May 14. One of the most successful singings in the 11 year history of "Gospel Reaching Out" is over. 14 groups sang Friday night; 11 sang Saturday night. A total of 125 songs have been sung in the 9 hours of performing. We think it was successful because the spirit of the Lord was evident throughout the singing.

The fans and most of the singers are on their way home. Only the McCubbins Family, The Cavellers, Board Member W.D. Martin and wife, Bonnie, Ernest and Nancy Jagers, Eddie and Nancy Waddle and family, part of The Stewards of the King, Dennis Billingsley of Far Out Music, Jeffersonville, Ind., and the Caverna Cheerleaders who provided concessions stay to clean up the Bale Tobacco Warehouse. A truck load of speakers, amps, microphones, and cords and cords and cords must be loaded to return to Jeffersonville, Ind. Chairs have to loaded onto trucks to be returned to Stearman's Funeral Home, Cub Run School and Memorial School. The Caverna Cheerleaders have to stay and clean up all the trash left over from the sale of concessions.

Monday night some of the same group spend several hours taking down the stage back drop, loading the lumber, folding sheets, loading lights, folding tarps, winding up cords. The piano must be returned to Caverna School. This is just a small list of work that must be done to make a two night singing at the Bale Tobacco Warehouse possible. Months before, plans were made, numerous telephone calls had to be made, news releases sent to local papers, T.V. and radio stations, and letters sent to groups inviting them. Prayers have been answered because some people cared enough to devote their time and talents, because of their love for Gospel Music.

One disappointing note, according to tickets given away at the door for free door prizes, over 900 people attended the singings. Total offering was $401.00. This averages to 44 cents per person. I'm asking "Is this going to keep Gospel Music in its rightful place in society?" If this was any other type of program with this amount of talent, tickets would cost $4.00-$12.00 per person.

Our goal/aim is that people could come and bring their entire families and enjoy an evening of Gospel Music.

When we start dividing $400 between the number of groups that sang, this comes out to less than $20 per group. This will not nearly pay for the gasoline for some groups who travelled long distances to come. Please, help us keep Gospel Music alive. This can only be done by the folks who love Gospel Music and support it through their prayers, attendance and offerings. Are you doing your part?
