Guest Speaker

Our speaker has a very interesting subject, which I think most of you are interested in. She received her education at St. Joseph, Bowling Green High and Western until she became interested in the "Art of Decoupage in 1966". She has attended courses and seminars with Hirom Manning of Boston, Patricia Nimochs of Louisville, and Louise Hayt of Grosse Pointe, Michigan.

She introduced Decoupage to Bowling Green in 1967 while she owned Garrison Tile-Gift Shop. After selling her shop, she opened the Four Seasons Studio, where she specialized in supplies and classes for decoupage and related arts when she closed the studio in 1973. She says its fun and she will enlighten us on "The Art of Decoupage"..... Katharyn Garrison

Vocational Speaker

Our Vocational talk will be given by Edith Fields, R.N. this month. Edith is employed by Turtle Creek Convalescent Center, 550 High Street.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S VISIT

Our National President, Joyce Hilliard will be coming through Bowling Green on her way to the convention. We are planning a "Meet and Greet the President" at the Bowling Green Country Club, from 7-9 p.m. on May 14th. Everyone try to be there.

Your A. B. W. A. "DREAM VACATION"

As soon as the National Convention is over in Cincinnati the weekend of October 9-12 a plane will be leaving for New York to join the charter flight for Spain. Why not take a wonderful vacation in SPAIN. Several from National Headquarters are planning on taking this trip.
