PRESIDENT'S NOTES

The third annual Financial Forum is now past history for the Chapter and can be remembered as a very delightful and successful Ways and Means Project. Neve and Imogene did a fantastic and beautiful job. Also, we don't want to forget the many hours given by Pat and Brenda on the decorations as well as assisting with the program. Anytime any of you see or talk with any of the Citizens National Bank's Staff, let them know how much we appreciate their kindness and generosity.

To each of you who attended or had a part in any way, you helped to make the event a success. THANK YOU TO ALL OF YOU.

Let us not forget the progressive dinner on March 24. SEE YOU ALL THEN!

February 12, 1973

Dear Pat, Deloris, Neva, Imogene, et al:

I can't tell you how very much I appreciate the fine "Kentucky Colonel" decanter which you made and presented to me. It is a conversation piece in my home, and I spent the weekend showing it to friends and bragging.

You had an excellent meeting, and I have already written to Joe Creason and thanked him for being generous enough with his time and talents to take part.

Thank you so much for letting the Citizens National Bank be part of your 1973 Financial Forum.

Very sincerely,

Jo T. Orendorf
Chairman of the Board

Mrs. Patricia M. Glasscock

To each member present on February 10, I'm sure you feel as Neva and I do, the ABWA Third Annual Financial Forum was a great SUCCESS. And to the members who were unable to attend, all we can say is that you missed a great day.

Just to say thanks to the chairmen and their committee members who contributed so much of their time and effort for the Financial Forum seems so small - but you are the ones who made the Forum the success it was.

Also, a big thank you is extended to Pat and Brenda for the Kentucky Colonel Chapter decanter which they made for the Chapter. Isn't it beautiful?

Mr. Orendorf was a great person to work with and it would be nice if each member expressed their appreciation to him. He is all for the Kentucky Colonel Chapter, ABWA and this was obvious by the attendance of the employees of Citizen's National Bank for the Forum.

An approximate profit has been made of $550 from the Forum. So, with an amount like that we, the chairmen, say a big thank you for your many, many, contributions.

Yours truly,

Imogene Graves-Neva Watt
Financial Forum
Co-Chairman

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

Her car stalled at the corner, and the traffic light changed red, yellow, green; red, yellow, green. Finally the patient policeman stepped up beside her car and said: "Whats@s the matter, lady? Ain't we got any colors you like?"

Professor: "One trouble with modern society is that we are too specialized. Now I happen to have a good background in the liberal arts, but I must confess that I haven't the faintest idea of how a radio works."

Wide-eyed Coed: "My goodness, sir! It's awfully easy. You just turn a know and it plays!"

After you have heard two eyewitness accounts of an auto accident, you begin to wonder about history.

Kentucky Colonel Chapter, ABWA
431 Skyline Trailer Park
Bowling Green, Kentucky 42101

Dear Mrs. Gaddie:

It was interesting to read the brochure received about Kentucky Colonel Chapter's 1973 Financial Forum. I hope it will be highly successful and result in being not only beneficial to all those who attend but of value in helping your chapter continue to thrive and expand.

After February 10, if you or Mrs. Clara Holmes will send me a copy of any publicity relative to the Forum, along with a brief report, it will be appreciated.

Remember, projects of this sort grow a bit each time around, so this one will prove a basis for, we hope, a number of other successful ones in the future.

Best regards,

N. A. Bufton, Jr.
Executive Director

Dear Pat,

This is just a brief note to tell you how much I enjoyed the privilege of being a part of the recent financial forum sponsored by your chapter of the American Business Women's Association.

It was in every respect a delightful occasion and I felt honored to be in such company as that of both the speaker and the audience.

Many thanks to you and your associates for your gracious hospitality.

Yours very truly,
