Resolution 86-25-S
Issuing of Warnings Before Tickets
Introduced 4-01-86

PURPOSE: For the Public Safety to issue one warning before an actual ticket would be issued to a member of the student body.
STATUS: FAILED
WHEREAS, Many in-coming freshman do not know all the traffic regulations, and
WHEREAS, Upperclassmen find themselves making a mistake, and
WHEREAS, College is a learning experience, and
WHEREAS, Public Safety are capitalizing on the student body's shortcomings, and
WHEREAS, The system would not change any, only when one reported to pay for a ticket, if it was the first one, it would become void and be marked that the student in question had received the warning,
THEREFORE, Be it resolved that we, the Associated Student Government, ask the Public Safety to issue one warning to first time offenders.
