A country schoolhouse, old and gray,
Where an urchin sat, in a by-gone day
With never a thought, o'er his ABC
Of how in the far-off time to be,
The great world's honor would be brought,
To the place where he had once been taught.

The old schoolhouse on Knob Creek in Larue County, Kentucky, where Abraham Lincoln first went to school.

This Society has now been assigned the new 9-digit zip. It is: 42141-0080. Only a few of our members have notified us of their additional numbers (some still don't have them), but we hope you will let us know. Still trying to speed things up.

"THE FUTURE OF A COUNTRY IS SAFE ONLY IN THE HANDS OF THOSE TO WHOM HER PAST IS DEAR."--Wm. Ralph Inge.
Our first meeting was held at 7:00 P. M. at the public library.

Guest speaker for the evening was Bert Smith, Pastor of the First Christian Church of Glasgow. Reverend Smith discussed the history of churches—when, where and why they were first organized; how they came to reach America; some church laws and rules and beliefs of our forefathers. Included in this discussion was Old Mulkey Meeting House in Monroe County, KY.

There was a good crowd in attendance for the evening, and we enjoyed the program very much.

At this meeting our former President, Cecil Goode, honored us with a slide program and talk recounting a trip to Ireland taken by he and Mrs. Goode, along with another couple. He told about renting a car and touring rural Ireland, seeing centuries-old homes, staying in castles and meeting citizens of Ireland who seemed to go out of their way to make their stay a pleasant one.

Sharing a bit of the wonder and beauty of Ireland through the slides was a real treat for all who attended.

Scheduled for this meeting as guest speaker is Mr. Michael St. Charles, who will elaborate on some of the battles of the Civil War. Mike is a gifted artist and historian, who has presented interesting programs in the past.

We are certainly looking forward to this next meeting.

THE WEB OF OUR LIFE IS OF A MINGLED YARN, GOOD AND ILL TOGETHER; OUR VIRTUES WOULD BE PROUD IF OUR FAULTS WHIPPED THEM NOT; AND OUR CRIMES WOULD DESPAIR IF THEY WERE NOT CHERISHED BY OUR VIRTUES.—Shakespeare.
Submitted by Hazel S. Kinslow, 1316 Miller Lane, New Albany, IN 47150

In 1970 my husband and I went to Barren County to try to find the farm which his great-grandfather, Aaron Kinslow, bought in 1828 from Joseph and Polly Lapsley. Aaron and his wife, Jane (Jones) Kinslow, lived there until their deaths, both dying in Nov. 1834. Their son, Aaron Smith Kinslow, was only two months old, having been born on Sept. 2, 1834. William Adams, uncle of the orphans of the above couple, was appointed guardian of the three children under 14 (there were also three above the age of 14 who were mentioned in the records). Aaron Smith Kinslow was my husband's grandfather.

In 1850 this 190 acre farm on Skaggs Creek was deeded to Wm. Sneed Kinslow (one of Aaron and Jan's sons) by William Garnett who had been appointed Commissioner by the court to settle the estate for the heirs of Aaron Kinslow.

William Sneed Kinslow b. 7/23/1817 d. 9/11/1904 m. (1.) Elizabeth Duncan, dau. of Thomas Duncan and Judith (or Judah) Foster. He m. (2.) Rhoda Gist, dau. of Balus Gist and Nancy Jane Ray.

We had been told how to reach this farm by a descendant of William Sneed and Rhoda (Gist) Kinslow. We went south on 31E and turned left on a road that led to Pritchardsville, turned south on road 1615 (I believe). We went south on this road and then turned right on a small road which led to a stream of water (which I believe was Skaggs Creek). There was a footbridge, across the water, which was in very bad condition and not safe to use. Since there was no bridge for vehicular traffic, we forded the stream and went up a hill and then saw the buildings of the farm. No one was living there and the house was being used to store hay or some other crop, I forget exactly what.

We found the old family cemetery, not far from the house, which was enclosed with an iron fence in good condition. As far as we could tell, there was only one upright stone which could be read and it was a follows:

RHODA BELLE DAUGHTER OF
W. S. AND RHODA
KINSLOW
BORN
JUNE 8, 1871
DIED
MARCH 24, 1872

This child was the youngest daughter of William Sneed and Rhoda (Gist) Kinslow. There was 2 small triangular stones in one corner, which were unmarked. I have no doubt but that Aaron and Jane (Jones) Kinslow were buried there and probably other members of the KINSLOW family in unmarked graves. If there were not, I do not think anyone would have gone to the expense of erecting such a nice iron fence around this cemetery.

William Sneed and Rhoda Kinslow are both buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery at Smiths Grove, KY where they have a tombstone—he died 1904 and she died 1912. I was told they were buried in Warren County since they lived with a daughter, before their deaths, and she lived near Smith's Grove, but I do not have proof of this.

My husband's grandfather, Aaron Smith Kinslow (a brother of William Sneed Kinslow) married 3/26/1871 in Barren County to Nancy Jane McAdams, dau., of Dr. James M. McAdams and Permelia Ann Kinslow, dau., of Aaron and Mary Kinslow. So Permelia and Aaron Smith Kinslow were cousins. The Aaron who married Mary Kinslow is the one who appeared on page 97 of the October 1980 Quarterly. This Aaron was a son of Adam Kinslow.

Aaron Smith and Nancy Jane Kinslow moved to Edmonson County shortly after their marriage and raised their family in that county, died and buried there. Because they had moved to another county and all their descendants had died or moved away from that county, was probably the reason this line of the KINSLOW family was omitted entirely from L. D. McPherson's book, Kincheloe, McPherson and Related Families.

I realize all the "Aarons" make this quite confusing. The elder Aaron (who bought this farm in 1828) and Adam (father of the Aaron who married Mary Kinslow) were brothers. Mary's father was Ambrose Kinslow, also a brother of Aaron and Adam, all sons of Conrad and Rachel Kinslow.

THE GRUBB FAMILY TREE (AS OF 1947)

Compiled by Miss Blanche Mackey and Mrs. Victoria Myers.

GRUBB, referred to in some instances as "Grubbs"

Our great great grandfather, Andrew Kruff (Grubb) and his family came to Virginia in 1741 and settled in Goochland County, VA. The name "Grubb" is spelled Kruff in Dutch. This family came from Holland. They left Holland because of religious persecution. Andrew Kruff was the father of Captain Jesse Grubb, our great grandfather. The old Dutch Bible is still in the possession of the Grubb family in Virginia and a lot of records are written on parchment. When I was in Chatham in 1936, they were in a lock box in a bank with some other Grubb's papers. Mrs. Peachie Grubb Phelps, daughter of Burl Grubb, now has the records, or perhaps at this time some of her family. In 1936, Mrs. Phelps lived in South Boston, Virginia. At the time I was there she was near 60 years old. Mrs. Phelps is the great great granddaughter of Andrew Kruff.

Andrew Kruff had four children:
- Jesse Grubb - our great grandfather
- John Grubb
- Andrew Grubb
- Sibie Grubb (who preserved the family records)

Captain Jesse Grubb was our great grandfather. He married Mary Polly Younger in Goochland County, Virginia on January 24, 1781 and was married by an Episcopalian minister. (Page 20, from Douglas Resister, Page 23 - Found in Barren County Library).

In 1911 and 1912 reports of Virginia soldiers, H. J. Eckenrode (Page 132) gives -
Grubb - Captain - Scotch Irish VI-19. Charles A. Hanna History, Page 19 - partial roster of officers under Washington - July, 1778 Virginia: At large, Colonel
John Parke: Captain Bicker, Prowel, Keen, Dennis, Grubb, Redmon, - Commissioned Officers, 16 - Staff 2.
Non-Commissioned and Privates 89 (Captain McLean's Company not mustered).

Jesse Grubb and his wife, Polly Grubb, were both buried in the Grubb family graveyard near Chatham, Virginia. Jesse Grubb - born in Goochland County, Va. - 1745 - Died 1822. Polly Grubb - Born
1752 in Goochland Co., Va. - Died in Pittsylvania County, Va. - 1790.

My great grandfather had one sister, Sibie Grubb, who never married. My mother told us that she always looked after my great grandfather's uniform, and that my great great grandfather was given a Coat of Arms for something that he did before he came to America. The Coat of Arms still remains in the family.

Jesse Grubb and his wife, Mary Polly Younger Grubb, had eleven children:

- David Grubb (our grandfather) m. Sarah (Khesee) Keen (French)
- Sam Grubb
- Jake Grubb
- Elijah Grubb
- Dabney Grubb
- Jesse Grubb
- Andrew Grubb
- Polly Grubb (Married William Settle)
- Rita Grubb
- Bruthula Grubb (Married John Nuckols)
- Eliza Grubb (Married Billie Newton)

Our great grandfather was of Dutch Descent. (Holland)
Our great grandmother, Mary Polly Younger Grubb, was German.

Captain Jesse Grubb was present at the signing of the Declaration of Independence in Philadelphia and walked from his home.

David Grubb, son of Jesse Grubb, grandson of Andrew Grubb, was married to Sarah Birch Khesee (or Keen as records show) on July 4, 1821 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. Our mother and aunts always said "Khesee" in telling us of our grandmother but in the records it is Sarah Birch Keen. Whether the translation from French to English brought this difference in pronunciation or whether it has been a typographical error, we do not know.

To this union were born:

- Della Grubb (married Robert Love of Kentucky).

To this union were born nine children:

- Anne Love - Married to Billie Shirley - 3 children - all dead.
- Josie Love " Sebastion Cabot Bell - 1 child - dead.

-10-
Aunt Della Love was educated at Lynchburg, Va. and while there in school met Robert Love of Kentucky and ran away with him. They were married and came to Kentucky.

David Grubb and Sarah Birch Khesee Grubb Children (Continued):
#2 - America Birch Grubb - Born March 27, 1824 - Died Feb. 15, 1908. Married John Anderson - Born Mar. 20, 1820 - Died May 18, 1894. To this union were born two children:
Arabel Anderson - Infant - Died in 1862
Eugenia (Jeenie) Anderson - Infant - Died in 1862

#3 - Sarah Clemmons Grubb, Born Aug. 13, 1833 - Died June 12, 1923. Married John Cottonton Mackey December 6, 1851. John Cottonton Mackey, Born June 6, 1830 - Died May 16, 1896. To this union were born:
a. Alfred Beauchamp Mackey - Born April 17, 1853, married Alice Morrow (Arkansas widow of Dr. Morrow - nee Alice Forbes) - 2 children.

When at the age of 5, Jack Grubbs was thrown from a horse in Pittsylvania County, his head struck the corner of an ice house and rendered him an incompetent the rest of his life. His skull, right over his right eye, pressed against the brain and at that time surgery was not sufficiently advanced to correct the condition. An operation was not advisable then for fear of death. He died at the age of 67 years. He was a handsome man, of strong build.

Grandmother Grubbs died in Pittsylvania County, Virginia in 1838 and was buried on a steep hillside where there are solid masses of granite rock. In 1936, a CCC Camp established and placed a concrete coping around the grave and filled it with dirt. They made a beautiful flower bed and to this day, the grave is easily found near Chatham, Virginia.

Grandfather Grubbs died in 1844 and was buried in the family graveyard at Chatham, Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

In 1844, Robert Love and Aunt Della Love went to Virginia and brought America Grubbs, Clementine Grubbs and Jack Grubbs, also two family slaves, to Kentucky and settled in Barren County. Then later, Metcalfe County was carved from this territory. Our mother was 11 years old at that time.

In the year 1870, Uncle Jesse Grubb walked to Kentucky to see these children of his brother David Grubb. He walked here and walked back, following the Wilderness Trail, which is now a National Highway.

Some history remembered from our ancestors of family life in Pittsylvania County, Virginia....

My great grandmother, Polly Younger was a full-blooded German. She could not speak the English language very well. In 1844, my mother, with other members of her family, came to Kentucky in a covered wagon, traveling the old Wilderness Road. When they got to Burkesville, they swam the Cumberland River. Mother said quite a few of their things floated out of the wagon bed and were lost.

Chatham, Virginia was at that time called Pittsylvania Court House and at one time was called "Competition", and as late as 1861 it was called Pittsylvania Court House.

Mother remembered quite well the Cross Road where they kept a slave block. The slaves were taken and placed on the block and sold. There also was a large spring and an old mill near where Mother lived. The house where Mother lived was still standing in 1936 and Walker Grubbs lived there with his family. Since then he has died.

Mother told us that on the days of slave trading and selling it was a heart-rendering occasion. She often cried with the slaves as their children were sold away from their mothers, husbands and wives were separated, also brothers and sisters were torn apart.

From the Superintendent of the Reading Room - Library of Congress in Washington, D.C.:

In the following statements concerning the Grubb family are found in Volume 1. The Scotch Irish of the Scott in North Britain, North Ireland, and North America, by Charles Hanna.

"Partial roster of Officers in Washington, July 1778 (Page 19) Virginia. At large - Colonel John Parke, Captains Bicker, Prowell, Keen, Dennis, Grubb, Redman - Commissioned officers - 16 - Staff 2. Non-commissioned and privates 90. (Captain McLean's Company not mustered)."

Page 26: "As early as 1763 and 1764 we find mentioned by name "Scotch Irish" in the legislature of the Province of Pennsylvania, when one Nathaniel Grubb, a member of the Assembly from Chester Co. so denominated the Paxtang Settlers."

"The Friends came to Antrim in 1652 and settled in Antrim and Down; Hence came the Pims, the Barclays, the Grubbs and Richards with many another goodly name of Ulster."

These are the only statements made by Hanna concerning the Grubb family.

Respectfully submitted
I. W. Akley,
Superintendent, Reading Room

(We do not know is this Nathaniel Grubb was the son of Andrew Kruff, as we have not traced any but the Jesse Grubb branch of the family tree)

THIS IS THE KHESEE OR "KEEN" SIDE OF MY MOTHER'S FAMILY

Jeremiriah Khesee - Born 1752 - Died 1822
Jeremiriah Khesee and his brother, George, came in 1824 from France. They came to the United States with Marquis de LaFayette and Jeremirah was a Captain in the Revolutionary War. He and his wife are buried somewhere in North Carolina.

To the marriage of Jeremiriah Khesee and Sarah Birch, three children were born:
Jane Khesee (or Keen) married Will Taylor of Tennessee
Ann Khesee (or Keen) married a Mr. Tuley.
Sarah Birch Khesee (or Keen) Married David Grubb.

Will Taylor, of Tennessee, is an uncle of Bob and Alf Taylor. The Khesee (or Keen) family left Virginia and went to North Carolina. The families became lost and separated. To this day no one has traced this branch of the family.

CONCLUSION OF THIS HISTORY WILL APPEAR IN VOLUME 10, ISSUE 2. JUNE 1982.

BARREN COUNTY KENTUCKY MORTGAGE BOOK, NO. 1 - When Barren Co. KY records began, in 1798, the deed books were the repository of many types of instruments other than deeds, including mortgages. In 1829 the recording of mortgages in a separate book was started. These are very valuable sources of research, as they show the lifestyle of our ancestors. By studying the items which were mortgaged, other than land, we can picture their homes and furnishings, their educational levels, their farming potentials. Everything imaginable was listed: bibles, books, sugar bowls, shirts, shovels, shocks of corn, cattle, kettles, tobacco & tools. Price: $10.00 postpaid. Order from: MRS. GLADYS B. WILSON, 128 St. Mary's Court, Glasgow, KY 42141

LEAVES FROM A "GREEN" TREE by Jena Green Hopwood. This book takes you back to the early 1700's, to the way of life and economic conditions of your ancestors. Ms. Hopwood follows these ancestors from the James River Settlements through Kentucky to Illinois, and other movements, along with several generations of ancestors. You will read, for example of Thomas Green and his family who went over the Cumberland Gap and the Wilderness Road, going from Goochland Co., VA to Barren Co., KY. This was not long after Daniel Boone had found the Cumberland Gap. When Thomas and his family reached Barren Co., they encountered the difficulties involved in bringing civilization to a piece of wilderness. Hundreds of people mentioned. Includes photographs and original sketches by the author. The book is hardbound, 8½"x11", and priced at $22.95 which includes $2.00 postage and handling. Make checks payable to, and order from: SPECTATOR BOOKS, INC., P. O. 21, 420 E. Wall, Moweaqua, IL 62550

CUMBERLAND COUNTY KENTUCKY CEMETERY RECORDS - Compiled by Randolph Nunnally Smith. Work was started on the Cumberland County Cemetery Project in 1960 and was completed in 1979. Over 380 Grave Yards were visited and the marked stones were recorded. Information from over seven thousand marked stones are included in this book, plus the names of many persons that do not have marked stones but are known to have been buried in the different cemeteries. In the early history of our county most families had their own private cemeteries on their farms. Many of these contain no marked stones, but each cemetery is numbered and located on a map of Cumberland County, along with available information from local residents. 8½x11, 231 pages plus 78 page index, Library Binding. Price: $20.00

CUMBERLAND COUNTY KENTUCKY DEED RECORDS - Compiled by Laura Lee Butler and R. N. Smith. These are the most valuable genealogical records that have survived the two court house fires in Cumberland County. All Deed Books were saved. The Deed Books contain many kinds of records other than deeds. Power of Attorneys that give ancestors and previous locations. Power of Attorneys to collect wages in the War of 1812, Civil War Discharges, Oil Leases, Plats of early towns, Apprenticeships, Contracts, etc. Many estates were settled by the division of land between the heirs and this is recorded in Deed Records. 597 pages including 129 pages of index. 8½x11, Library Binding. Price: $24.95

GREEN COUNTY KENTUCKY LAND ENTRIES [1796-1834] - Compiled by Randolph N. Smith. Green County was formed in 1792 from Lincoln and Nelson counties. Part or all of the following counties were taken from Green: Adair, Barren, Clinton, Cumberland, Hart, McCreary, Metcalfe, Monroe, Pulaski, Russell, Taylor, and Wayne. A few entries date back to 1780, but the bulk of the records are "South of Green River" entries of 1798 and 1799. Most of the later entries were granted by the Green County Court and date up to January 1, 1834. 185 pages, 8½x11, Soft covers. Price: $7.50

CUMBERLAND COUNTY KENTUCKY CENSUS - 1900. Compiled by R. N. Smith. Veterans Records by Mail to Cost More Starting Sept. 1

In order to keep the records reproduction program on a self-sustaining basis, the National Archives is making two changes in its pricing and payment policies on mail requests for copies of veterans record files. Both take effect on Sept. 1.

The cost for reproduction of each record file will be increased from $3 to $5. The price rise is the first in 5 years. The Archives' Central Reference Division receives more than 200,000 mail requests annually for files of veterans records, including pension files, bounty land applications, and military service records dating from the Revolutionary War to the early 20th century.

In the second change, a prepayment policy will be put into effect in order to reduce the administrative overhead of maintaining an extensive billing system. Beginning Sept. 1, customers are requested to send payment with their orders when the total cost is known. Payment can be made by check, money order, or Master Card or VISA credit cards. In cases where the cost is not known, a price quotation can be obtained by requesting the order form for copies of veterans records--NATF Form 26. Write to: Military Service Records (NNCC), National Archives, Washington, DC 20408.

For further press information, please contact the National Archives public information staff at (202) 523-3099.
