"PREZ SEZ"

Spring is here! A new season of the year bringing new members into our chapter and new adventures to other members who are working on new projects for the very first time.

Little Miss Bowling Green Pageant, under the leadership of Dot Howard, is moving along very well. She and her committee members, Janice Wilson and Mary Lou Lewis, are planning a great program for the enjoyment of all.

The Souvenir Program, Woman of the Year, and the Perfect Attendance Contest are still underway. Reports of these activities will be given at the dinner meeting.

I would like to thank Nancy Madison and Jane Jones for a successful "Ladies Fair". Their efforts certainly made this a great "Fair" and each deserve a "Blue Ribbon" of thanks. Another "Blue Ribbon" of thanks to Florence Perkins and the membership committee for their hard work during this event. Also, to the members who sponsored new members, or helped in any way, we appreciate your interest and help. We have ten new candidates who will become members of our chapter.

Congratulations to "Maharani Carolyn Kifer", who won the Maharani contest.

"PEP TALK"

"Anchors Aweigh with ABWA" is the theme for our Central Regional Meeting in Evansville, in May, the 16th thru 18th! Registration should be in before May 2. Send your $27.50 registration fee to:

ABWA Regional Meeting Registrations
9100 Ward Parkway
Kansas City, Missouri, 64114

If you want to attend the Saturday Luncheon, add $6.00 more, and send with your registration fee.

The important event will be held at the Executive Inn, 6th & Walnut Streets, Evansville, In. If you are planning to attend, it would be wise to get your reservations in as early as possible.

In our February issue of WOMEN IN BUSINESS, there were highlights about the opening session, workshops, forums, and special events. This is a learning session for all of us to ask questions, see the bulletins and scrapbooks on display, and an opportunity to meet other ABWA sisters. For early arrivals, there are tours on Friday starting at 1:00 p.m. from the Executive Inn.

Kentucky Colonel Chapter is very honored to have three members in the elite group for recognition in the Inner Circle. Brenda Williams with the Diamond Hand of Friendship; Florence Perkins with the Diamond and Hand of Friendship Star with bracelet; and Jean Fulkerson with the Diamond Hand of Friendship Star with bracelet, Emerald Star and Star Sapphire. All of you have this opportunity, too, by sponsoring eleven members to enter the group.

Should we have ten in attendance we will complete number nine toward our 1975 Banner Chapter award. Let's attend and go with "Anchors Aweigh with ABWA".

Tours planned on Friday include the following:

Tour #1 - New Harmony, Indiana - National Historic Landmark

On this tour you can explore the remnants of two early 19th century experiments in communal living by two different groups, the Harmonists; and the group following Robert Owen, who believed all men could achieve happiness through education. In addition to the historical buildings, you can visit the roofless church, The unusual New Harmony Inn, and the quaint shops along the street. Dinner is included in this tour. Tour price, including dinner, is $15.00.

Tour #2 - Santa Claus, Indiana, the land of Enchantment.

On this tour you will visit the home of "Santa Claus", Pioneerland, House of Dolls, and Hall of Famous Americans. Also of interest is an antique toy display, Bohemian glass blowers to watch, plus interesting gift shops. Dinner will be served in the Christmas Dining Room. On the way to Santa's home, you will also visit the Lincoln Boyhood National Memorial. Tour price, including dinner, is $12.50.
