Education - A Vital Dimension

PURPOSE

The purpose of the American Business Women's Association shall be to elevate the social and business standards of women in business by uniting them nationally for training designed to make them more efficient, more considerate, and more cooperative toward their work, their employers, and their customers, thereby increasing their earning ability, success and happiness.

JULY'S SPEAKER

Mr. Fred Tanner, Vice-President & Trust Officer of Bowling Green Bank & Trust Company will be speaking on investments. He is responsible for operation and administration of Trust Department; Investment and Estate Planning; and New Business Development.

VOCATIONAL TALK

Mary Scantland who is employed by Dave Kamber Volkswagon, Louisville Road will be giving a talk on her duties as co-business manager and general do-it-all.

EDUCATIONAL PROJECTS REPORT

Samples of the revised Scholarship Application form will be made available at the July dinner meeting. The length of the proposed application prevents convenient publication in the bulletin. We request that you give it your careful consideration at that time and let us have your ideas and suggestions for improvement by August 15th so that final approval may be obtained at the August meeting.

Linda Perdue, Chairwoman

A Delegate's Responsibilities

An ABWA delegate is the officially elected representative of her chapter. As such, she assumes the responsibility of attending all official activities at the Association's National Convention, and of taking a report of those activities back to her chapter. Her most important obligation, however, is to cast the chapter's vote for candidates for the Association's National Offices.

A delegate's primary responsibilities, day by day, during the 1975 National Convention in Cincinnati, Ohio, are:

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9

(1) Pick up registration envelope at registration desk in the Cincinnati Convention Center. Registration desk is open from 9:00 am. to 6:00 p.m..

(2) Pick up Delegate Credentials at credentials desk in the Cincinnati Convention Center. Credentials desk is open from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10

(1) Attend District Award Session (Districts I, II, and III will be held on Friday morning -- Districts IV, V and VI on Friday Afternoon). Accept chapter's awards if designated (prior to the convention) to do so by chapter. Candidates for each District's Vice Presidency will be introduced at the Award Sessions.

(2) Visit candidates in campaign area in the Convention Center. Campaign area will be open from 9:00 a.m. until 10:00 p.m. Also, attend campaign party from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m. to meet and talk with any candidates not previously visited during the day. Only delegates will be permitted in the campaign area during the campaign party.

Responsibilities Cont'd

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11

- (1) Be present for opening session of the Annual Meeting in the Convention Center. This session will be called to order at 9:30 a.m.
- (2) Cast chapter's vote in initial balloting for National Offices. The polls will open at approximately 10:30 a.m.
- (3) Attend afternoon session of the Annual Meeting. This session begins at 2:00 p.m. in the Convention Center.
- (4) Cast chapter's vote in all necessary run-off elections. Run-off balloting will be the final item on the agenda of the Annual Meeting. The polls will open at approximately 4:00 p.m.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 12

- (1) Attend the Convention Finale. Receive special chapter awards if designated (prior to the convention) to do so by chapter.

NEW PROCEDURE -- PLEASE NOTE

Following the Convention, Chapters will be notified by National Headquarters that their delegate was or was not registered That she voted or did not vote in the initial voting. . . . And that she voted or did not vote in any required run-off elections.

"A MODERN PARABLE"

Once upon a time there were four women who lived in a progressive community. Their names were JANE SOMEBODY, BETTY EVERYBODY, and PATTY ANYBODY, and SUE NOBODY. They were not like you and me but were very peculiar in the way they acted. Though they were members "in good standing" of their local chapter of ABWA, their actions were not indicative of their description, "in good standing".

BETTY EVERYBODY stayed home without a valid reason when she did not want to attend ABWA meetings. PATTY ANYBODY wanted to attend regularly but was afraid JANE SOMEBODY wouldn't speak to her, so guess who attended ABWA regularly ----- SUE NOBODY. As a matter of fact it seemed that SUE NOBODY was the only decent one of the four.

SUE NOBODY worked on projects. SUE NOBODY Turned in names for membership. SUE NOBODY brought her Boss to Bosses Night. SUE NOBODY worked deligitently to earn the Standard of Achievement and Banner Chapter Awards.

ONCE the chapter needed new chapter officers and new committee chairmen. BETTY EVERYBODY thought PATTY ANYBODY would volunteer and

JANE SOMEBODY would volunteer. Do you know

PATTY ANYBODY thought JANE SOMEBODY who volunteered? That's exactly right ----- SUE NOBODY, again!

Several new industries came to the progressive city and there was an unlimited number of prospects for membership in ABWA but the usual policy followed. BETTY EVERYBODY thought JANE SOMEBODY would submit the names for membership. PATTY ANYBODY would have but just didn't follow through. You probably know by now who finally submitted the names to the membership committee: SUE NOBODY!

Finally, JANE SOMEBODY came through for the chapter and made her declaration, "Whatever I can do to help the growth of my ABWA Chapter for this next year, I am ready and willing to do." All the members rejoiced because they knew that PATTY ANYBODY might be influenced by this spirit and that BETTY EVERYBODY would then see clearly that the local chapter can progress only when we all work together.

This is a modern parable and it has a message for each of us. Let's all become like JANE SOMEBODY this next year!
