EACH BARON

Thoughts are gay since we came to stay,
To be Barons the rest of our days;
Each Baron, Each Baron.
No friend quite so true.
We'll miss the things together we've planned,
The friends we've learned to understand;
The Barons, The Barons.
Always calling you.

CAMPFIRE SONG

Round the blazing campfire's light
We are met in comradeship tonight
Overhead the whispering trees
Guard our golden memories
And so before we close our eyes and sleep
Let us pledge each other that we'll keep
Baron friendships strong and deep,
Till we meet again.

A BARON IS A BUDDY

(Tune—"I Only Want A Buddy Not A Gal")

I know I've got a Buddy in a Baron
A Buddy who I know to be true.
Others give words that are broken,
Broken like their friendships broken too.
But Baron Buddies never break that promise.
To be a friend throughout their live-long days.
I know we'll never yield
Cause the ribbon 'round the shield
Says a Baron is a buddy and a Pal.

THE BARONS MAY COME AND GO

(Tune—"Wishing")

Barons may come and go, But there will always be kept aglow,
All those memories we hold dear
It's true you know
Baron friendships follow us where 'ere we go.
The Curtain of school may fall
We'll still be Barons each one to all.
So let us work long enough,
Play strong enough
And we'll always grow,
Tho Barons may come and go.

THE BARONS ARE ROLLING ALONG

(Tune—"The Caissons are Rolling Along")

Oh, we fight and we fuss and sometimes we even cuss,
But the Barons go rolling along,
For we work with our hearts at everything we start
And the Barons go Rolling Along.
Oh, it's one, two, three, give out with melody,
We'll push that red wagon with a song
And then we'll cheer, and tap a keg of beer
For the Barons are Rolling Along.
The years pass by quickly but the memory of many momentous occasions still live in the hearts of many of those here tonight. Few of us remember but that first meeting was held on January 28th, in 1934. The Constitution was written on the mezzanine floor of the Helm Hotel. It was adopted after some discussion on February 4, 1934. The first pledges were inducted February 7, 1934, and the original goat duty was to carry a gold brick, that is, a bronze painted one. On March 30, 1934, the first pin was worn and we have kept the same design ever since. The Old Masonic Temple was the place at which the first Formal was held on May 19th, in 1934. Programs were two-page hand-made masterpieces. “Smoke Gets In Your Eyes” was popular as were longer skirts, 3.2 beer and ping pong. Bridge was a required course. Western won its second K.I.A.C. Tournament and only Dr. Stickles knew who Hitler was. Our first camp was held in 1935, and every years since we have continued the old traditions. Many things wither and fade but the spirit that has moulded this organization into the unit that it is will never die in the hearts of men. May we ever gain new inspiration from such a great and swift beginning.
