"Christmas Thoughts"

It's Christmas! Much can be said in those two words. The hustle and bustle of Christmas shoppers looking for special gifts for their families...The special feeling in the air that makes everyone smile more...The cheery greetings given and received when passing friends on the street...The bright gleam in your child's eye as he sits on Santa's knee...and the excitement on Christmas morning when he realizes that Santa did not forget that special toy he wanted, even though he said it really didn't matter much if he got it or not...The singing and playing of the beautiful Christmas carols... and the special services in church of the Christ child's birth. Yes, it's Christmas! How sad our lives would be if it were not so.

I would also like to share the following Christmas Prayer poem with you. This poem is recorded by Burl Ives on one of our Christmas albums and has become one of my family's favorite Christmas songs.

.....

"Happy Birthday, Jesus"

A house so quiet, so humble, a child beside her bed, her little hands clasped tightly, it's time for her to pray, and so she bows her little head:

"Happy Birthday, Jesus, Daddy said that you were near, and that you had a birthday this time every year. He told me how you listened to every word we say, and that you hear us call in the night or in the day. He explained how bad they hurt you and made you suffer so, but said you let them do it for girls like me, I know.

He told me about the manger they put you in. I'd let you have my blanket if I was there, back then.

He said that you were watching everything we do...Him, Mommy, Granny, and our new baby, too.

I liked what Daddy told me of how you healed the lame, and that you don't have to have any wealth or fame.

And he told me you were so awfully good and then he made me cry, he said they nailed you to a cross, they wanted you to die. And then he made me happy when he said you came back again.

Daddy said Christmas is what we celebrate because on that day you were born, so I hope I'm not to late to wish you a Happy Birthday, Dear Jesus".

To each of you, a Very Merry Christmas filled with Joy, Peace, Hope, and Happiness.

To each of you, a Wonderful New Year bringing the best of everything in all the days to come.

.....

The ending of the old year calls to mind the accomplishments, as well as the mistakes, that were made these past three months, but the beginning of the new year brings gladness for the opportunity of serving you for the months remaining in the chapter's year.

Merry Christmas - Happy New Year,
Reggy R.

DURING THE-PAST TWELVE MONTHS" - Mr. Carlisle showed slides of different phases of the Electric Plant Board growth during the past year: January ice store, new industry, new subdivisions and additions to existing subdivisions, road projects, new business growths. His discussion included reasons for the use of revenue bonds, and the possible use of nuclear power. He reported response for voluntary conservation of energy is good, however; he expects a policy of mandatory curtailment in the near future. He stated he expects next year to hold more stock piles of coal and the use of nuclear power.

6. VOCATIONAL TALK VIRGINIA MOORE, ADMINISTRATOR OF TURTLE CREEK CONVALESCENT HOME, a subsidiary of Jackson Enterprises. Mrs. Moore has been a registered nurse for 30 years, and has been employed by Turtle Creek for 3 years. Turtle Creek has 19 such centers, with approximately 3,000 bed capacity. Mrs. Moore stated by 1980-1985-25% of the population will be over 65 years of age, with 2% of the 25% requiring nursing home care. She extended invitation to all members to visit any Turtle Creek facility at any time. She stated the feeling in general is "People go to nursing homes to Die - "Not True" she states, They go to Nursing homes to LIVE! National Nursing Home Week begins each year on Mothers Day. Mrs. Moore gave a very professional and informative vocational talk.
