First there was a welcome by the President then an Introduction of the officers, then there was an introduction of guests thier names are Phyllis McKirney who was sponsored by Pam Phillips who joined and Kathy Simmons who was sponsored by LeeAnn Lockart who did not join that evening. All committee reports were bypassed as members observed ABWA day. There were 12 members present for Fall Enrollment. We would like to express our appreciation to the cast that played parts in the skit for Fall Enrollment their names are Mimi Burr, Theresa Wyatt, Anne May, and Peggy Sharer. Ladies take a bow. And by the way the name of the skit was TIME FOR A.B.W.A.

Angie Yokley has arranged to send our bulletin with a member of the Hilltopper Chapter to the National Convention so it may be on display. Because our chapter will not be able to participate at the National Convention, we plan to send five members to the 1985 Regional Meeting.

Plans are being made to send a delegate to the National Convention being held in Detroit, Michigan, October 17th thru October 21st. The delagate may be flown by airplane funded by ABWA or she may be able to ride with another ABWA chapter member or members to the convention. All possibilities are being looked into.

The Executive Board feels that the scholarship applicants should be selected through a committee of four chapter members. It is proposed that we have one more application than we will give away. H A L L O W E E N

Halloween or Allhallows Eve is the name applied to the evening of October 31, preceding the Christian feast of Hallowmas, Allhallows, or All Saints Day. The observances connected with Halloween are believed to have originated among the ancient Druids, who believed that on that evening, Saman, the lord of the dead, called forth hosts of evil spirits. The Druids customarily lit great fires on Halloween apparently for the purpose of warding off these evil spirits.

Among the ancient Celts, Halloween was the last evening of the year and it was regarded as a propitious time for examining the portents of the future. The Celts also believed that the spirits of the dead revisited their earthly homes on that evening. After the Romans conquered Britain, they added to Halloween features of the Roman harvest festival held on November 1 in honor of Pomona, goddess of the fruit trees.

The Celtic tradition of lighting fires on Halloween survived until modern times in Scotland and Wales, and the concept of ghosts and witches is still common to all Halloween observances. Traces of the Roman harvest festival survive in the custom, prevalent in the United States and Great Britain, of playing games involving fruit such as ducking for apples in a tub of water. Of similar origin is the use of hollowed out pumpkins carved to resemble grotesque faces and lit by candles placed inside.

In recent years in this country and others, there has been much apprehension by parents in allowing their children to carry on the tradition of trick-or-treating. Reports of sadistic tricks played on helpless children circulate each year causing the number of trick-or-treaters to decline. In this wave of violence and sadism in our country, please allow your children to trick-or-treat in homes of persons that you know personally, and always inspect your child's treats. Some parents have even opted for Halloween parties in lieu of trick-or-treating. Many local organizations in your community may be sponsoring Halloween parties in order to help deter tragic occurrences. Check it out!
