MINUTES

COUNCIL OF ACADEMIC DEANS

January 29, 1973

The Council of Academic Deans met at 1:30 p. m. , Monday, January 29, in the Office of the Vice-President for Academic Affairs. Those present for the meeting were Deans Cravens, Page, Sutton, Russell, Jenkins, Sandefur, Mounce, Hatcher, Brenner, Hardin, and Davis. Dr. Joy Kirchner represented Dean Hourigan.

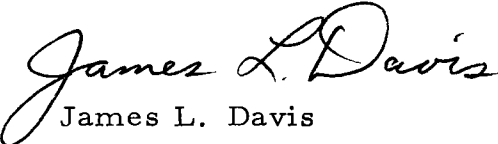

Dr. Sutton discussed the tentative Freshman Orientation and Registration schedule for Fall, 1973.

Dr. Cravens reported on the actions taken by the Executive Committee of the Board of Regents at their meeting held on Saturday, January 27. The Executive Committee approved recommendations presented to them concerning faculty sabbaticals and automatic tenure situations. Dr. Cravens also stated that the College of Education Dean Selection Committee was meeting weekly and reviewing a large number of applications for the position.

The deans then discussed fellowships for graduate students. Dr. Cravens suggested that each department or area now offering one or more graduate programs might request two $1,000 tax-free fellowships for 1973-74. The deans were asked to submit their requests for graduate assistantships by February 12.

Dr. Sandefur summarized recent developments concerning the extended-campus concept.

The meeting adjourned at 2:35 p. m.
