MINUTES
COUNCIL OF ACADEMIC DEANS
April 2, 1973

The Council of Academic Deans met in the office of Academic Affairs on Monday, April 2, at 1:30 p.m. Those present were Deans Cravens, Hatcher, Sutton, Mounce, Russell, Wassom, Brenner, Sandefur, Hourigan, Jenkins, Hardin, and Davis. President Downing was a visitor at the meeting.

President Downing discussed arrangements for the reception honoring Colonel Fleenor, the ex-prisoner of war who graduated from Western. The reception will be held on the lawn of the Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts on Sunday, April 15, at 3:00 p.m.

Dr. Sutton gave a progress report on admission of new students for 1973-74. He stated that the admission of entering freshmen was 21.7 percent less than on April 2, 1972.

Dr. Davis discussed the Faculty Teaching and Research Awards. He reminded the deans that the deadline for nominating faculty members for these two awards is April 15 and requested that each dean establish a college committee to review the nominations from that college.

Dr. Cravens and Dr. Sandefur discussed the graduate assistantship tutorial program. The deans commented on this at some length.

Dr. Cravens asked the deans' opinions concerning promoting faculty members who do not hold the doctor's degree to the rank of associate professor.

The meeting adjourned at 3:05 p.m.
