CALL TO ORDER

The September 27, 1988 meeting of the Associated Student Government was called to order by President Scott Whitehouse. Absences included Van Hodge, Lisa Kaufman, Steve Mason, Diane Robinson, Brian Sewell, Mark Spader.

OFFICERS REPORTS

President Scott Whitehouse wished all freshmen candidates good luck in the elections. He reminded everyone of the Presidential Reception Wednesday at 3:30. He mentioned Vice President George Bush was in Owensboro tonight. All College Representatives need to talk to Hollie Hale about serving on committees in Academic Council.

Administrative Vice President Adrian Smoot passed around a sign-up sheet to help with the reception. He reminded everyone of their constitutional commitment to attend the committee meetings. He mentioned that there will be a reintroduction of the amendments to the By-Laws at the next meeting. He reminded the committee chairs of the meeting Thursday at 2:20 sharp.

Public Relations Vice President Amos Gott welcomed all visitors. He announced PR meetings to be every Tuesday at 3:00 pm. The Vote America Registration Drive will be October 4, 5, and 6 at DUC. He reminded everyone of the dates October 8, College Awareness Day, and October 21, International Day. He announced that there will be a reception after the October 11 meeting so that Congress can get to know each other.

Secretary Mickie Hennig announced that the positions of Graduate College Representatives and Alternate are still open.

Treasurer Larry Gumbel announced that the voucher summaries for August and September will be out Tuesday.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

RULES AND ELECTIONS The primary election for freshmen officers were held today from 9 am- 5 pm. The turn-out appeared to be good. The committee thanked those who helped worked the polls. The results of the election will be posted 6:30 tonight. Dana Baith reminded everyone of the general elections on October 11 and he needs people to help work polls. The committee meets on Thursdays at 5:30pm.
