APRIL MINUTES

The regular meeting of Bowling Green Charter Chapter was held on April 9, 1991, at Houchens Center. The meeting was called to order by Sara Phillips at 7:00 p.m. The Invocation was given by Jessie Wilson, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. There were 11 members and 1 guest present. The guest was Sarah Robinson.

Jessie Wilson presented the program for the enrollment event "Open the Doors of Opportunity". She was assisted by Hazel Bryson, Emily Moulder, Marcheta Free and Barbara Manco. Each participant mentioned some of the "doors" available to us as members. There are more than 100,000 members of ABWA in over 2100 chapters. It is a diverse organization offering opportunities for friendships, leadership training, promoting scholarships with various fund-raising activities. We are able to participate in group rates for hotels, car rentals, insurance policies. The cost of membership is $25.00/year and for new members an additional $20 affiliation fee. She will receive Women In Business, Perspective, $1000 accidental death insurance policy. With membership one is able to participate in networking activities with other business women.

Lucille Walton shared some of her interesting vacation in Texas with her son and granddaughter, Summer Nicole. She spent a good deal of her time helping her granddaughter with her letters, reading to her and just enjoying her company. Summer Nicole dances and is learning to play the guitar.

Sarah Robinson is our newest member. She is a supervisory park ranger at Mammoth Cave National Park. She was sponsored by Marcheta Free.

Motion for the adoption of the minutes was made by Marcheta Free and seconded by Lucille Walton.

The treasurer's report shows a beginning balance of $813.86 with income of $84.00 and disbursements of $11.09, leaving a balance of March 31, 1991, of $886.77. Motion for approval was made by Hazel Bryson and seconded by Margaret Minton.

No communications were received from national.

Plans continue for preparations for the Cat Show. Brenda Roberts reported that the approximate price for printing 100 souvenir booklets of approximately 20 pages would be $250-300. All ads and ad money should be turned into her no later than the next meeting May 14. Final decision of the particular printer would be decided at that time when the booklet has been laid out with the definite number of pages. Bids will be taken from several printers at that time. Hazel Bryson will see that announcements are sent to various radio stations.

Peggy re-emphasized that all money pertaining to the Cat Show should be kept together until all transactions are completed.

Hazel Bryson and Mimi Banton presented the Woman of the Year Award to Dianna Young in absentia.

The Benediction was given by Sara Phillips. Following the Benediction, the meeting was adjourned at 9:00 p.m.
