CALL TO ORDER

The December 6, 1988 meeting of the Associated Student Government was called to order by President Scott Whitehouse. Absences included Elaine Burge, Kathleen Chester, Michael Colvin, Bradley Cooper, and Becky Shirley.

OFFICERS REPORTS

President Scott Whitehouse mentioned that former ASG secretary Danielle Williamson called to wish everyone well. Dan Knowles announced that he went to the Council for Higher Education meeting. They are currently working on Electronic mail, newsletter, and campus newspapers being sent to other campuses. Dan Knowles also met Wallace Wilkinson and he is as short as Dan is. Dan Knowles is congress person of the week. (that makes the third time!)

Administrative Vice-President Adrian Smoot announced that Martin Luther King's Birthday is January 16. It now is considered a National Holiday on Western's campus with the help of ASG.

Public Relations Vice-President Amos Gott welcomed all visitors. He announced that the Christmas reception will be December 9 from 2-4 at the Alumni House. The ASG Christmas Banquet is after the meeting. He thanked Rebecca Fuller for the nice article on the Adopt-a-Spot. ASG Awareness Week is January 30 - February 3. Student Assistance Center will begin next semester.

Secretary Mickie Hennig announced that Ogden College Alternate, Busines College Alternate, and Graduate College Rep. and Alternate are still open.

Treasurer Larry Gumbel passed out the November voucher summary. He announced that we are under budget at this time.
