CALL TO ORDER

The January 31, 1989 meeting of the Associated Student Government was called to order by President Scott Whitehouse. Absences included Elaine Burge, Kathleen Chester, Michael Colvin, Kathryn Crumby, Eric Elliott, Lisa Kaufman, and Kelly Neill.

OFFICERS REPORTS

President Scott Whitehouse announced that the last day to receive applications for secretary is tomorrow at 4:30. Local contractors will be giving a bid this week concerning the construction of the bus shelter. HSAC meets sometime this week, see Scott if interested. RHA meets Monday at 3:30. All on-campus representatives need to be there. Daniel Duffy is congress person of the week! (yeah)

Administrative Vice-president Adrian Smoot announced that committee chairs will meet February 9 at 3:00. He read Minda McCandless' letter of resignation. He mentioned the ad in the Herald concerning Mock resolutions.

Public Relations Vice-President Amos Gott mentioned another ad in the Herald about "What ASG Does." Adopt-a-Spot is going well. There are seventeen "Spots" thus far. He reminded everyone this is ASG Awareness Week. Everyone wear their buttons! There will be a booth tomorrow so everyone sign-up for a time to work. There is also a sign-up sheet for those interested in the Chamber of Commerce committee. Minority Handbook and Student Handbook are currently being worked on. He also announced that this was secretary Mickie Hennig's last meeting and he presented her a silver platter of behalf of ASG.

Secretary Mickie Hennig announced the open positions as follows: Ogden Alternate, Education Representative, Collegiate Representative, Graduate Representative and Alternate, one on-campus, and Senior class Vice-president.

Treasurer Larry Gumbel announced that the January voucher summaries are out. He explained that the 1/3 maintenance charge is for the copier in Mr. Taylor's office and that it is shared among all of the organizations in student activities.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

RULES AND ELECTIONS - Dana Baith announced that work has begun on the upcoming officer elections. Anyone who has any suggestions regarding the elections please see him or Scott Whitehouse. Meetings are on Mondays at 4:30 on the third floor of DUC.
