ABWA Mission Statement:

The mission of the American Business Women's Association is to bring together businesswomen of diverse backgrounds and to provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support and national recognition.

Invocation:

Lord in the quiet of this hour
We come to Thee for wisdom, and for power;
To view Thy world through only love-filled eyes;
To grow in understanding; to be wise
And sure to see Thy guiding light; and thus
To know each other as Thou knowest us. Amen

Pledge of Allegiance:

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America,
and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, under God,
Indivisible with Liberty and justice for all

NOTES

I would like to thank Nora Mahoney for presiding during the August meeting. I heard that it went well. I am sure the speaker was entertaining and the vocational talk by Emily Cleary and Shelley Glassock was very informative. I am glad to see that several guest attended the last meeting and two joined. Please keep inviting women to attend the meetings as well as our Fall Enrollment Event which will be decided upon later. I will be at the next meeting so I hope to see everybody there.

Sincerely, Diane Carver

Deborah Lovas will be leaving us shortly and going back to Cleveland. She accepted the Chairman for the Program Committee and has already scheduled speakers for the complete year in order for us to receive a special award. Hazel Bryson has accepted this position now and will follow up on the schedule. We give our best to Deborah Lovas.

AUGUST MEETING SUMMARY

The regular meeting of the Cardinals of Kentucky Chapter was held on August 11, 1997 at Mariah's Restaurant. The meeting was called to order by Nora Mahoney at 6:00 p.m. The Invocation was given in unison, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. There were 18 members and 8 guests present. The guests were: Judy Austin, Lillie Mitchell, Ruth Marshall, Megan Farley, Debra Smith, Medora Johnson, Lisa Cockrum, and Pearl Taylor.

Jody Austin, Director of Kentucky Down Under and Kentucky Caverns shared some things of which she is most proud. Some of these included growing up in Australia at a sheep station in the Outback; being able to attend a university and get a degree in physical therapy; becoming a U.S. citizen; having a daughter in medical school; having young people on her staff who exhibit respect for others. She also had a guest with her--a young swamp wallaby. The wallaby is a species of kangaroo. At their facility visitors are allowed to touch the animals and learn about their habitat. It is not a zoo where they are caged.

Emily Cleary and Shelley Glassock of J.C. Holland Company were the vocational speakers. Their company has three locations in the vicinity. Bowling Green, Russellville, and Franklin. There are 32 employees in the B.G. office with 7 CPA's and 2 who are nearing that certification. They offer financial planning as well as the usual accounting responsibilities. Currently Emily and Shelley are involved in doing company audits. They find these to be interesting since they usually spend only 2 weeks at a site. During tax season they work about 60 hours a week.

Motion to accept the minutes of the last meeting was made by Marilyn Laney, seconded by Selma Ray. Motion carried. Motion to accept the Treasurer's Report was made by Peggy Sharer, seconded by Shelly Glassock. Report approved.

Thank you notes were received from Elaine Renfrow, Carole Smock and Deborah Lovas. The chapter also received a certificate from the Girl Scouts for our contribution for paint for the service center.

Anna Beason, Membership Chairman, reminded members to always sign the attendance register. Janet Pierce, Hospitality Chairman, asked members to sign up as hostesses. At the meetings the hostesses provide a door prize and favors. Sue Donoho, Public Relations Chairman, will attempt to get the new officers listed in the paper.

Marilyn Laney, past president, installed Elaine Renfrow as the new treasurer. Elaine was unable to attend the July meeting. Marilyn also presented a Merit Award to Sue Donoho, Perfect Attendance Awards to those who were absent at the July meeting: Elaine Renfrow, Peggy Sharer, Sue Donoho, Jennifer Kraft, and Lucille Walton.

Peggy Sharer presented the report from the Auditing Committee. They found the books to be in order and commended Phyllis Steele for her outstanding record keeping.

Nora Mahoney reminded members who are interested in attending Friendship Day that their reservation needs to be made immediately. The event hosted by Hilltoppers '76 will be Thursday, August 14 at the Plaza Hotel.

Marilyn Laney and Selma Ray were appointed to review the Rules and Regulations of the chapter. Phyllis Steele is collecting information regarding the celebration of ABWA Day on September 22. A decision will be made on the date and place.

Sue Donoho received the half and half. Door prizes were awarded to Anna Beason and Jennifer Kraft. The Benediction was given in unison. Following the Benediction, the meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

Benediction:

O Guiding Spirit, Guardian of our days
Be with us as we go our separate ways,
Help us to feel those thoughts that lift and bless
To know a closer bond of friendliness;
To see Thy beauty always - every day,
Translated into living - this we pray. Amen
