An Interesting Letter

from Julian R. Amo

Dec. 7, 1918

Mrs. D. C. Amos,

Oakland, Ky.

Dear Mother:

Well I will go back to Portsmouth tomorrow and spend the night there, and Monday morning at 8 a.m. my 10 days is up. Seems mighty short, but have had a pretty nice time, have seen lots of things of interest. Will write you a few lines and tell you where I have been since I sailed from Charleston, April 28, went to Orkney Island: Kirkwall and Scotland was there one week, about 17 officers came aboard the Olympia there—English, French and Scotch, they said it was their third attempt to get to Russia, but had gotten torpedoed every time. We got to Marmansk Russia the 24th of May, no night at all at that time of the year, the midnight sun could be seen every night, but before we left there was not much day-light and you could see the northern lights most every night. There were a hundred of us landed on June 9, at Marmansk, when we got to Marmansk there were only two ships there, an English cruiser and a French cruiser. We paratroed the town, raided most of the town, seized all of the troops coming from Archangel, but the first scrap we had at Marmansk was on the 12th of July, when we took the Askold, a Russian cruiser from the Red Guards of Bolsheviki, we killed one, wounded 12, and took 112 prisoners. When we first landed at Marmansk there were only about 200 English soldiers and about that many French besides the 100 off the Olympia. More troops coming in all the time. We went to Kolp Russia one week guarding bridges, we were on English grub all this time, horse meat and hard tack. There were 20,000 Bolsheviks at Archangel and they decided to send most of the troops from Marmansk to take Archangel, no American soldiers had gotten to Russia at this time. So on the 30th of July there was a French cruiser, an English cruiser, and 5 transports went across the White Sea to Archangel, there were two companies of us, first and second, I was in the first Company, they decided to send the first Company off the Olympia with this outfit to Archangel, they asked was there anybody in the Company that didn't want to go and there was one man. We went aboard the Stephens, a Liverpool transport—about 15,000 of us, French, English, Russians, Poles and every other nationality in the world, about 5 thousand of us all, making about 6 knots, laid at Archangel 17 hours, in the White Sea, got in the town all right, but got a six-inch hole put through the Attention, an English cruiser, and lost a few men. To make a long story short—was there seven or eight weeks, 25 of us sailors were sent up the line, was in the trenches 5 weeks fighting the Bolsheviks, was on a machine gun for a while, was mighty glad when I got off. Three sailors only were wounded, one lost his left arm, other two wounded in leg and arm, but we lost quite a few English, French and Poles. We were surrounded by the Bolsheviks, 700 in the rear and 300 in front of us.
Every man fought until our arms were about gone and then we had to take to the swamps, three days and nights in the swamps and the last 36 hours without anything to eat. Perhaps you saw something in the papers about it. Fifty some miles through the swamps, lots of the time we were in up to our knees, any man who could not keep up was lost, and we lost six coming through—men who just gave out. Got through and came back to Archangel, Ambassador Francis shook hands with all of the Americans and said we were the first armed Americans to land in Russia and a lot of other stuff.

We were five weeks without a shave or bath, all of us full of lice. Most of the men went to the hospital, but I didn’t. American soldiers came, so that let us out of the trenches and we were not sorry.

Ambassador Francis took sick and he rates a man of war to travel on, so we took him from Archangel to Marmanskig, caoled ship two days after the armistice was signed, sailed for Innergordon Scotland, he is in a hospital there, we stayed there one week, saw part of the mine laying fleet, went from Innergordon Scotland to Portsmouth England, where we are now, and I hope our next stop will be the States.

I am in the gun crew on the Olympia, but don’t think we will have to stand gun watches any more. There is not much fun in 4 hours on and 4 hours off night and day.

Thought I would like to send you and papa a little remembrance from England but they won’t let you send anything out of this country, so the best I can send is my best wishes. Hope all are well, with much love.

Your Son,

Julian R. Amor

DESCRIPTS HALLOWE'EN NIGHT AT BATTLEFRONT

L. R. Coley, of this city, is in receipt of the following interesting letter from her brother, Browder D. Butler:

"Lunigay, France, Dec. 13, 1918.

Mrs. R. L. Coley,

Dowling Green, Ky.

Dear Sister:

I take much pleasure in answering your kind letter, which I gladly received yesterday. I was glad to know you all were well. I am getting along fine, and have been ever since.

I have been in France.

Yes, I know the pleasure of writing you most anything as long as I tell the truth, and you know I never do otherwise.

I am very anxious to get home again. It is some lonesome here. Everything is so quiet. When the big shells were falling it wasn't so lonesome. They would furnish one plenty of amusement. But I am satisfied to be lonesome and have everything as it is.

You ask me what was raised here. I think everything grows here except carrots. It rains most every day although it has never been very cold. The weather here now makes me think of the early days in fall there. The houses here are built of stone, but you hardly ever see a farm built by itself. They are built together and look like a little town. The house and barn are built together, and when you go into a pottery, you go through three or four little rooms get in, and when you do get in, there will be a cow or cow and calf over in one corner.

I can tell you a lot when I get home, which I hope will be soon, although I am in a good outfit and will get along fine together. I like everyone of the boys fine. I haven't anything against any of them. I think Company F is the best in France.

Yes. I hear from Elizabeth often now, also from Georgia and Flan. Well, that is real nice. I always glad to hear from any one from the U. S. A.

You asked what I did Halloween. I was listening at the boys in the artillery turning over house tops and the "Dutch." They sure did play a big joke on them. I would have been glad to have been with you in Dowling Green that night. Guess you had lots of fun.

I would be so glad to have you for Christmas, but don't think I can hardly make it, but don't think it will be long after.

I suppose I had better bring my letter to a close.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Give my love to all.

Your brother,

BROWDER D. BUTLER,

6. F. 2d Inf. The American F.

COUNTY HISTORIAN

NOTE—This Form is to be filled out and preserved by the County Historian.
We left Molsanne September 29th and moved by train to a point near Toul, where we unloaded and marched to Chaudenay. While there we had troops at Ville-le-Sec and Poix-de-le-Eveque also. Toul is a pretty good city and I was too busy to see much of it, only what I could see from passing through. We left Chaudenay on October 7th and marched to the front line, camping one night on the road. We took over a sector just west of Montaunville on the 10th and were on the front continuously until the armistice went into effect. We changed sectors on the 28th of October, moving a few kilometers to the left, but only just one day’s fighting. Since November 11th we have remained in the same place, which is about five or six kilometers from the Moselle River and is about twenty kilometers from Metz, which was at the time we came here one of the strongest held positions of the Germans. There is a small town Faye-en-Haye, just back of where we are stationed that I wish you could see. Every building in it has been shot to the ground by big guns and is only a mass of pulverized stone. It is one of the towns taken by the Americans during the summer. We didn’t take any towns in the fighting we did, but our boys went through some real hell and with hardly any exceptions made a record of which we can all tell our grandchildren with pride. We were fighting right up to the last minute and had scheduled for the afternoon of November 11th a big drive, in which we were going to make them sit up and take notice. I had my combat pack all made up that morning preparatory to going over the top.

Mrs. Laura Claypool of High street, is in receipt of the following interesting letter from her son, Srgt.-Maj. Robert H. Claypool, who is in France:

Headquarters 56th Infantry American Expeditionary Forces, France
Dec. 3, 1918

Dear Mother and All:

This is a gloomy old December day—cloudy as can be and about cold enough to snow or rain either, but so far it hasn’t done anything, but rain a little. That is one thing that seems to come easy around in this part of the country—that is the rain. I was out yesterday in maneuvers and I think I must have walked ten miles in the coldest mud I ever saw. One thing it did, though, it made me get a good night’s sleep last night.

You remember my friend, Sergeant Browne, of the Medical Department? Well, he is located about 15 kilometers from me and I had a letter from him yesterday saying that he had just received word from home that his wife was dead. The letter he wrote me was written on Thanksgiving and he was just comparing that day this year with last year. Last year at Thanksgiving his wife was with us at a grand dinner, and we had in Chickamaugia and_Ne were all together in a regular little party. This year we didn’t have the big meals to look forward to and besides the party being all split up he received the news the day before Thanksgiving about his wife. I seem that a family near her home all had the influenza and couldn’t get a nurse, so Mrs. Browne went to take care of them and in a short time got the disease herself and didn’t last very long with it.
Now if you get out your map—one that shows, if possible, the small towns, I will let you trace me up a bit. Heretofore I have never tried to tell anything about where I was because of the regulations, but now we are allowed to tell you how long we are allowed to tell where we have been. First I will tell you how long we stayed at Camp Merritt. We arrived there on July 30th and pulled out on the morning of August 2nd. I was kept so busy while there that I didn't get a chance to visit New York. Bishop went over to New York one night for a few hours, but I wouldn't go unless I had longer to stay, so instead I took advantage of those hours to get some sleep. On the 2nd we marched to Alpine Landing on the Hudson River, boarded a small boat and went down the Hudson to the docks at Hoboken, where we went aboard the U. S. S. Leviathan on the same day. We slept aboard the boat at anchor that night and on August 3rd about 1 p.m. we pulled out and before sunset the Statue of Liberty had passed us. We had a very nice trip, the boat being one of the largest afloat. It didn't rock enough to make anyone seasick. There was about 15,000 troops aboard her. On the morning of the 11th we landed at Brest, France. When we went ashore there was a bunch of Congressmen who had been touring Europe and were going to return on our boat. One of them asked if there was any Kentucky boys in the crowd and when I got close enough to talk to him I found out his name was Kinchlee and he is very well acquainted with Bowling Green. We marched through Brest and went into a temporary camp near Pontanzen Barracks, a few-kilometers out of Brest. Pontanzen Barracks stands just like it did when Napoleon built it. We entrained at Brest on August 15 and proceeded to tour almost across France and finally detrained at Poincon, barched from there to Molesme, landing at Molesme on the 18th. That was our first permanent stop and it was from there that I did my first writing home. It was a quaint little

NOTE—This Form is to be filled out and preserved by the County Historian.
Had your packages ready to send but do not know when they will reach home. You surely do not get all my mail. I wrote some time ago that Walker had returned from leave. He had gone to his home in Scotland. White had his leave and covered about the same ground that I did in Paris. He visited the scenes of the French songs and Napoleon, but the building where all the fine paintings were not been opened. They had been moved away on account of air raids. Napoleon's tomb was still covered with heavy timbers and sad bags. White was made a Paul first class about six weeks ago. He was somewhat surprised. He has a good job in the kitchen helping one day and the next day off. This town I suppose is too small to find on the map, but will give the surrounding towns, Bouronne, Ce-Bains, Lamarche, Pazzi-savant, Jersey and Vitsey. These are the largest towns in the district, although our line runs on the outside of most of the towns.

We had a little accident coming in last week. The driver let the flier get away from him and rolled completely over. When it stopped I was on the top. We got it straightened, but in a new tire, ran about 100 feet and started for a ditch. The Sergeant and I got left in it, for she was ready for the junk shop. We walked almost 3 miles to a town to telephone for a truck. They could not find the place and ran around half of the night looking for us, so we spent the night in a barn and started to walk the next day and reached a small village. We had dinner and then had 4 miles to camp, but I refused to march, for my ankle was hurting, when finally a truck called for us. My arm was bruised and also my foot, but I will be all right in a few days. This is some paper the German officers used, at one time, but the Yanks found it.

I hope you are all well, and we will soon be leaving for the States. With love to all. Your brother,

WALTER

CAPTAIN CARTWRIGHT WILL RETURN THIS EVENING

COL. DENHARDT ARRIVES TODAY IN NEW YORK

Ranking Officer on Cruiser Charleston
With Twelve Hundred Troops—
In France Since June.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, March 19.—Lieutenant Colonel Henry H. Denhardt, of Bowling Green, Ky., was ranking officer on the cruiser Charleston which arrived here today with twelve hundred troops. He went to France last June.
No one in Bowling Green, not even Col. Denhardt's wife, knew last night that he would return there this morning. He confided to Mr. Page that he was so busy in a field of rest and quiet that he had planned to slip unnoticed into his home town. It was announced some time ago that the return of Col. Denhardt to Bowling Green would be celebrated by a great banquet, at which he would be the guest of honor, and it is presumed that this plan will be put through within the next few days.

Regarding the race for the nomination, Col. Denhardt told Mr. Page that he would not become a candidate unless he feels convinced that there is a popular demand for him to do so. He said he would have to confer with his friends from various sections of the State, and that after a careful survey of the situation he finds that there is a sincere call for him to enter the race he will do so.

"Although he appeared considerably older than he did when I last saw him, he looked well," Mr. Page said last night, referring to Col. Denhardt.

"The experiences he passed through on the other side were calculated to age most anyone."

Col. Denhardt, during the fighting overseas, was decorated for heroism on the field of battle on three different occasions.

Lieut. Col. H. H. Denhardt returned home this morning at 5 o'clock from New York, in which city he arrived last Wednesday from France where he had been since last June. He took his wife by surprise. He is being heartily congratulated on his return home by his many friends.

Worn out by his long journey from overseas and the weight of responsibility that rested upon him as commander of the men aboard ship, Lieut. Col. H. H. Denhardt, prominently mentioned in connection with the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky passed through Louisville last night on his route to his home at Bowling Green. He did not show himself at any of the local hotels, remaining aboard his train. It was met at Baxter Avenue by Robert Lee Page, Louisville attorney, who boarded it there, and rode with Col. Denhardt to Union Station, where he remained with him until his train left for Bowling Green. The train was due to reach there at 6 o'clock this morning.

COUNTY HISTORIAN

CAPTAIN DRAKE
BACK FROM OVERSEAS.

Captain Richard Drake, who had been in France for the past eighteen months, arrived Saturday to visit his mother, Mrs. John R. Drake, and family on Park street. He will remain here until Thursday, when he will leave for Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where he will be mustered out of service. Captain Drake will return to Memphis to resume the practice of the medical profession. He has been in the service for the past two years.
A telegram received here today stated that Mr. Charles Duncan, who has been engaged in embassy work in Holland, had sailed for America.
Has Been In France Since September
And Expects To Return In The Fall.

Willis Dearing, who has been in France since last September, has written a letter to his father, D. H. Dearing, from La Baule. He is connected with Camp Hospital No. 91, and says he expects this hospital to close about July 15th and that he will reach home in the fall.

The letter reads:

La Baule, Feb. 24, 1919.

Dear Papa:

Guess you thought you were never going to hear from me but I am still alive and in France. I hope to be at home by fall anyway.

I received your Christmas package and it was very thoughtful of you and Miss Verda, and I can't tell you how much I appreciated it.

We have about 700 nurses here awaiting transportation home and about 400 leave tomorrow for the good old U. S. A. I did not know we had so many American women in France.

I hope you and Miss Verda are well as I am, for I am in the best of health, only I have a bad cold all the time, on account of so much rain I guess.

I received a letter from Tip Claypool the other day. He is in Besançon, France, in the Ordnance Depot. It is rumored that we will close this place by the middle of July, so that is consolation for us.

I hear from Eula real often. She says that she is having a fine time in sunny Florida; but just think of me in sunny France (Where is the sun?)

Well, I have run out of news as I do not know very much will close this letter by sending heaps of love for you both and wishing you the best of health.

Your loving son,

Willis.

J. A. FAXON IS COMPLIMENTED BY HIS COLONEL

Express Sincere Appreciation of Efficient Work While With Motor Transport Corps, School No. 1.

No Bowling Green man or woman can entertain any arraignment of the Y. M. C. A. work overseas when they remember the quality and caliber of the men who enlisted for the service from here. The Westminster church still has two representatives in the overseas Y. M. C. A. work. They are C. W. Rogers and James A. Faxon. The soldiers among whom their work is being done appreciate it and commend it in the highest terms. C. W. Rogers recently sent an account of his work in which there are modest references to such appreciation on the parts of the men in camp. The following letter from the commander of the camp to James Faxon, while Mr. Faxon was ill at the hospital speaks of fulsome gratitude for his untiring service.

March 8, 1919.
Mr. James A. Faxon,
Secretary Y. M. C. A.,
Decize, Niévre.

My dear Mr. Faxon:

I wish to express to you the sincere appreciation of myself, and, I am confident in speaking therefore of the entire personnel of this school, for your efficient work since your connection with this post.

Your work has been characterized by an exceptional devotion to duty and a self-sacrifice and sympathy toward all with whom you have been in contact. You have strongly endeared yourself to all. This sentiment was peculiarly manifested during your recent illness when the concern of all was expressed in most affectionate ways.

With best wishes for your health and prosperity.

Most sincerely yours,

G. Robinson.

County Historian

NOTE—This Form is to be filled out and preserved by the County Historian.
Lieut. Henry Hines, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hines, arrived at Newport News, Friday from France, in which country he has been since last September.
A special tribute must be paid to Captain Hines, U. S. N., officer in charge during the whole period of the American visitation. It is regretted on all hands that an opportunity was not afforded for some public expression of the appreciation of the citizens of Halifax of Captain Hines' services as head of the American naval operations on this station. But the serious illness of a member of his family called Captain Hines suddenly home and there was no opportunity for anything in the nature of a formal farewell. Of Captain Hines it may be truly said that he won the hearts of the people of Halifax. He was unfailing in his courtesy, an exemplar in tactfulness and dignity, and at all times ready to lend assistance to every patriotic movement in the community. British and Canadian officers, with whom he came in contact in an official way, are unanimous in bearing testimony to his admirable qualities of head and heart, and his eagerness to co-operate with them in every possible way. Captain Hines in fact became one of us, and while he always admirably upheld the honor of his own great nation, he gave himself heart and soul to every war-winning effort which was made, officially or unofficially. He bore away with him not only the respect and high esteem, but the affection of our citizens, who will cherish his stay in Halifax as having contributed not a little to the bond of union which united our great countries in a common cause. "Will ye no come back again?"

A GOOD FRIEND.

The following complimentary notice of Captain H. K. Hines will be read with interest by his many friends in this city, where he was born and reared. He is a brother of City Judge S. D. Hines and Mrs. John B. Rodes of this city:

(From the Halifax Chronicle).

The closing of the United States Naval Station No. 23, which was maintained at Halifax as the base of the American Naval operations during its participation in the war, should not be allowed to pass without an expression of appreciation of the happy relations which existed between us and our American friends. The United States Navy performed very valuable services in connection with the patrol of the Atlantic coast and in convoy and other war duties. They performed their part modestly and tactfully. The personal relations of the officers and men who were stationed here with our citizens were of the happiest character. Not a single disagreeable episode occurred during the two years of their stay in our city and they carry with them not only the good-will but the friendship of all with whom they were associated in an official or social way.
RETURNS FROM OVERSEAS.

Mr. Robert H. Hinton, of Fairview Cemetery, received a message from his son, Conklin H. Hinton, that he had returned to this country from overseas. He has been across for the past two years.

Selton Howell, son of E. Scott Howell of the Atwood vicinity, has returned home from New York. Mr. Howell has been on the battleship Delaware for the past year, joining the navy in July, 1915. He has received an honorable discharge. Mr. Howell has been in Cuba several times.
HUBERT HARRISON RECEIVES HONORABLE DISCHARGE

Hubert Harrison has returned from New York where he received an honorable discharge from the service. Harrison has just returned from a several months' stay in France. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Harrison of this city.

WELLS HACKNEY ARRIVES IN NEW YORK FROM FRANCE

W. J. Hackney, of Oakland, today received a message from his son Wells Hackney stating that he had arrived in New York from overseas. Young Hackney left for England July 1 and went to France November 1.
Oscar Hays, who has just returned from France, is in the city today visiting relatives. He will leave in a few days for Camp Taylor, where he will be mustered out of the service.
Sergeant Thomas A. Hays has returned from Camp Knox, Stilthton, Ky., where he was honorably discharged from the service. He has been in the service for four and a half years and has made a splendid record.
Sergeant Hays is a son of Joe Hays of the Bristow vicinity.
Herschel Hays, after a two weeks’ visit in this county with relatives, left this morning for Fort Thomas, where he will join the regular army for one year, in order that he can go to France at once. Mrs. Hays left here August 23, 1918, for Camp Zachary Taylor, where he remained until November 25, when he was sent to the Central Hospital No. 3, New York City, where he remained until March 20, when he was sent to Fort Ontario. He was discharged September 5.

Lieutenant Grover Jones received his honorable discharge from the service at Camp Gordon last Tuesday. He is now visiting in Milledgeville, Ga. Lieut. Jones, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, has just returned from France.
MAJOR JONES
WRITES LETTER TO J. A. TURPIN

From Brest, France, Where He Is
Provost Marshal—Gives Interesting Description of Country.

John A. Turpin received a letter today from his nephew, Major W. H. Jones, Jr., son of Mayor W. H. Jones, who is Provost Marshal at Brest, France, which position he has held since his arrival at that place last fall:

Brest, France, Feb. 23, 1919.

Dear Uncle Turpin:

Have been intending to write you for some time and because you haven't heard from me don't think I haven't thought of you every day. I am so sorry that you have not been well and I sincerely hope that when spring comes you will be able to get out and see your friends.

This is a wonderfully interesting country and I know you would enjoy seeing the wonderful old chateau and the walled cities of France. I am in old Brittany, that part of France where England always made her attacks, consequently the influx of English blood has caused the Bretons to possess many Hugh-Saxon characteristics and even a few of their words are English. These Bretons are sturdy, thrifty farmers and raise very fine cattle and a splendid type of draft horse. However, they all wear wooden shoes, and when they walk on the pavements it sounds like a troop of cavalry.

I had the opportunity to spend six days in Paris, and it surely is a beautiful city. It reminds me more of Washington, D.C., than any other city I've seen. The streets are very broad and all have two rows of trees, and grass plots running the entire length. I found that my French history was pretty rusty and wished you were with me to keep me posted. Had a very interesting trip to the old capital of Brittany, Reims. It was where all the kings used to hold council, and the throne room at the palace is the most magnificent piece of work I ever saw all done, in gold and the walls covered with priceless tapestry. I saw the place where Captain Dreyfus was tried also.

All France is disturbed over the attempted assassination of M. Clemenceau. He is a wonderful old man and his death at this time would be like throwing a monkey wrench in the machinery of the Peace Conference.

President Wilson came through a few days ago. I suppose he had a strenuous time while here. He made a great hit with the French people and I am sure he has their complete confidence.

This is the largest seaport in France and it is a very wonderful sight to see the ships of nearly all nations lying in the harbor, while on the docks everything is bustling and business. The U. S. army has constructed docks and warehouses covering miles of water front, and we have over a thousand negro stevedores working day and night. The American negro is the same the world over and I can easily imagine being in New Orleans whenever I watch them at work.

I know you and Aunt Mary are happy to have the boys back again and I only hope it won't be long before we can all be back and together once more.

Give Aunt Mary and all at home my best love and when you feel good drop me a line.

With best love,

WILL JONES.

SERGEANT KIRBY WAS IN MANY IMPORTANT BATTLES.

Sergeant Henry C. Kirby, who has been in France for the past nineteen months and is now stationed at Camp Lee, Va., has arrived here on a fifteen days' furlough. He is a guest of his uncles, Joe S. and Murray Kirby. Sergeant Kirby has been in some of the most important battles, namely, Marne, Argonne, Chateau Thierry and St. Mihiel. He was wounded in one of these battles. Sergeant Kirby does not expect to be mustered out of the service before December.
Messrs. Warren and Howard King, sons of Mrs. H. G. King, of Auburn, were in the city yesterday. They were soldier boys. The former was at the front and in the trenches at St. Mihiel for some weeks, and knew he slew two Germans in close personal attack, one of whom was making for him with drawn sword. With quick action with a pistol, he downed him and sent home his helmet to his mother. He was an Ogden student. Lieut. Howard King was held at Camp Taylor, where he assisted in training the last recruits.
Carroll W. Kent, of Los Angeles, Cal., who has just been discharged from the service, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Samuel Pickles and sister, Mrs. Violet Newton, on Laurel Avenue.
