

STATE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

LEXINGTON

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

June 1, 1911.

W.S.

President H. H. Cherry,
Bowling Green, Kentucky.

My dear President Cherry:-

We all deeply regret the sad occasion which kept you from us today. We all want to assure you of our heartfelt sympathy in the great sorrow which has come to you. We know that words are mere mockery on such occasions as this and all we can do is to say that we love you and sympathize with you.

The Commencement exercises were very successful, indeed; the day was pleasant and the crowd was large and enthusiastic. Your absence was the only drawback to the pleasure of the occasion. Your degree was conferred upon you and your absence fully explained to the audience and the diploma will be sent you by mail. We want you to feel that your institution belongs to us and that ours belongs to you. We are all parts of the same great educational system and our fates are bound up together.

Please accept the sympathy of the whole Faculty of the University and with it the hope that you will come up and visit us when you can.

God bless you and prosper you and yours.

Very sincerely your friend,

W.S. Parker
President.
