OFFICER REPORTS

Rob Evans, President--President Evans welcomed everyone to congress. He announced that the Council on Higher Education will meet this Monday, November 7 in Owensboro. Evans also reported that the Board of Regents voted to transfer funds to the WKU Foundation, approved new faculty and staff appointments, and the appointment of Deborah Wilkins as the new Assistant to the President. Also, President Evans announced that he had been trying to bring the AIDS Quilt to Western. It will be displayed at Murray State University November 13-15, 1994. Evans reported that he will be meeting with Dr. Ramsey in the future to discuss plans to expand the shuttle service, and he announced that the student survey will appear in next Tuesday's issue of the College Heights Herald. He also met this week with Officer Schaffer about the possibility of funding the student escort service.

Tara Higdon, Vice-President--Vice-President Higdon commended all the committees for their hard work. She also announced that the Student Survey Committee met yesterday and proposed some tentative questions. Surveys should be distributed before Thanksgiving. Higdon reported that the Campus Violence Task Force will meet on Monday, and the results from the retreat are in the committee mailboxes.

PUBLIC RELATIONS--Chairpersons Jason Young reported that they are working on an issue of having a "Western Day" on the days of every home basketball and football game. This would consist of students wearing Western apparel, taping red towels, etc.

Greg Edmonds, Public Relations Director--Public Relations Director Edmonds announced that the SGA magnets will be in this week, and the PR Committee will be in charge of distributing them. Also, each committee should have an article for Word on Western to turn in today.

Jason Vincent, Secretary--Secretary Vincent announced open positions on Congress. They include the following: four senior off-campus representatives, four junior-off campus representatives, one sophomore off campus representative, two non-traditional representatives, and openings in the following residence halls: East - one representative, Florence Schneider - one representative, McLean - one representative, South - one representative, West - one representative, New Co-Ed - one representative, Bates-Runner - one representative, and Barnes Campbell - one representative.

He also reminded all committee heads to turn in their committee reports.

Brandon Rucker, Treasurer--Treasurer Rucker reported that there were no expenditures since October 25, 1994. The Account Balance remains at $33,882.41. Rucker also reported that Organizational Aid checks would be ready the week before Thanksgiving, and the Points of Light nominations are in for October. The three applications will be voted on in Executive Council.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS--Chairperson Stephanie McCarty reported that the Academic Affairs Committee discussed raising the minimum ACT score from 17 to 21. She said they also discussed asking the university to place a copy machine in Thompson Complex. She addressed what happened with the "Retaking C's" proposal.

STUDENT AFFAIRS--Chairperson Bonnie Newton reported that the Student Affairs Committee will be sponsoring Resolution 94-9-F Support for Residents' Assistants; and Resolution 94-12-F Computer Lab Instruction.
