Faculty Bibliography

Assistant Provost for Institutional Effectiveness & Professor of Sociology, Department of Sociology & Criminology

I am the Assistant Provost for Institutional Effectiveness at Western Kentucky University (WKU). My responsibilities include coordinating campus program and general education assessment for SACSCOC, directing/implementing the Quality Enhancement Plan, and serving as the Chief Diversity Office for Academic Affairs. I hold tenure and the rank of Professor in the Department of Sociology & Criminology, teaching courses in the Diversity and Community Studies undergraduate major and the Citizenship & Social Justice certificate program.

I completed my undergraduate degrees in sociology and environmental science and my master's degree in public health/environmental health at Western Kentucky University. I earned a PhD in Higher Education Administration at the University of Louisville. My current research focuses on issues pertaining to higher education, sense of place, social policy, community-based research, and sustainability/resilience.
