SERVICE TO THE COLLEGE

We, the members of the Kentucky Gamma Chapter at Western Kentucky University, clearly realize that we, as an organization, are responsible to the service of our students. The following activities are our proof of that responsibility.

- September 21, 1988                      Orientation consisted of freshmen, sophomores, and other pre-professional students interested in becoming members of Alpha Epsilon Delta. Chapter officers and pre-professional advisors presented brief discussions on such aspects as the importance of using advisors, qualifications of getting into AED, and general facts about the organization.
- September 22-23, 1988
& September 21-22, 1989              Hilltopper Science Days - AED was involved by sponsoring a booth which consisted of information about medical-related education and careers. Many area high school students came by and examined our displays and talked to AED students.
- October, 1988                              Intramurals - Members of AED participated in the campus-wide basketball intramural sports program.
- April 11-12, 1989                        Health Careers Exposition - This was the first annual Career Exposition program ever held at Western Kentucky University. Many health professionals were represented. There were booths representing medicine, dentistry, optometry, etc. AED also had a booth of its own. This event was open to the general college community and also to the immediate public.
- October 6, 1989                            L. Y. Lancaster Banquet - Kentucky Gamma Chapter helped co-sponsor with Tri-Beta, the biological honorary club, a reception before the annual banquet and lecture of a distinguished Nobel Prize winner.
- October 21, 1989                         Homecoming '89 - At our annual homecoming football game, AED along with Tri-Beta Biology Club sponsored a booth to represent the Ogden College Foundation, the science part of the college.

SERVICE PROGRAMS OUTSIDE THE UNIVERSITY

- October, 1988                      Bowlathon - Members of Kentucky Gamma participated in a Bowlathon for Big Brothers and Big Sisters of America.
- April 11-12, 1989                Health Careers Exposition - Mentioned earlier, this program was open for everyone in the college community and the public as well.

- November 29, 1989               Mrs. Freda Embry, Greenview Hospital, "Aids and Infection Control."

Observation Programs

Several AED members are involved in visiting physicians, optometrists, etc. and observing their practice. Also, work is being done to get a group together to observe surgery.

Visits to Professional Schools and Hospitals

October 28, 1988	University of Louisville Medical College and Kosair's Children's Hospital, and Humana University Hospital.
November 18, 1988	University of Kentucky Medical College.
October 27, 1989	University of Louisville Medical College, Kosair's Children's Hospital, and Humana Hospital.
November 3, 1989	University of Kentucky Medical College.

Peer Instruction and Counseling

MCAT, DAT, OAT
Preparation Class -

A non-credit class taught every spring by Dr. Lowell Shank, head of the chemistry department, helps prepare students for these professional tests. It consists of interview tips, sample tests, and study guides to help the student in preparing for these exams.

Advisement during registration -

Many AED members volunteer to help advise incoming freshmen on what classes to take, how to arrange their schedules, etc.

Test File -

Kentucky Gamma keeps updated test materials on file in the AED room for use by members, associates, and pre-associates.

Sample Interview
Questions -

Kentucky Gamma maintains a list of interview questions helpful to the students in preparation for their professional school interviews.

AED Associates Program -

This program is for those people who have met all the qualifications for membership but have not yet gone through the initiation process. They have meetings with associate's chairperson to learn about AED.

Chapter Publications -

Kentucky Gamma's major publication, Freshmen Orientation is a handbook that contains information about the Kentucky Gamma Chapter, faculty advisors, preparation for MCAT and DAT, applying to medical schools, and admissions requirements to regional medical schools. Freshmen Orientation, has recently undergone a facelift during the 1989 year. More updated information has been added and a new look has been provided.

Awards and Scholarships

Being a professional organization, Kentucky Gamma tries to encourage and acknowledge academic achievement where it is applicable. We are also inclined to show our appreciation to our faculty advisor for his leadership in this organization. This list comprises the scholarships and awards during 1988-89.

1988	AED Member of the Year - Howard Rogers AED Pre-medical Student of the Year - Laura Webb
1989	AED Member of the Year - Danny Rennick AED Pre-medical Student of the Year - Hope Hayden, Duane Osborne AED Pre-dental Student of the Year - Misty Brey

December, 1989	Allotment of $50.00 for gift to AED faculty advisor

COMMUNICATION

Our organization tries to keep all the communication lines open between officers, members, faculty members, associates, etc. This is very important so that things can get done and everything works well together. These are our methods of maintaining this contact among each other.

A bulletin board in the lobby of one of the science buildings for the purpose of announcing meeting and special speakers, etc.

Listings of some activities in the campus newspaper, College Heights Herald.

The AED room is a gathering place between classes for members, associates, pre-associates, etc. It consists of a study area and a bulletin board for announcements, etc.

The Talisman, the university yearbook, lists the names of those members of AED and also an accompanying picture of the group.

Every year an Annual Alumni Newsletter is sent to all alumni of the Kentucky Gamma Chapter providing information about chapter activities and preprofessional programs.

Freshmen Orientation Handbook contains updated information on AED at Western, medical school admissions, MCAT and DAT, etc.

Flyers are used frequently to exhibit across campus our meetings, activities, etc.

Letters are sent to associates and pre-associates to keep them updated on their status of getting into AED.

OVERALL REPORT

The Kentucky Gamma Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta has had a very prosperous and enjoyable biennium. Through hard work and dedication of its members, we have seen our chapter grow and be successful in reaching its goals. I am sure, as the future approaches, that our society will maintain its constant effort in attempting to make this organization all that it can be.
