Administrative History: The Campus Activities Board is a thirteen member committee charged with planning and coordinating activities at the Downing University Center. Membership of the board includes: President, Vice President of Public Relations, Vice President of Member Relations, Secretary, Public Relations Assistant, Concert Committee Chair, Concert Assistant, Lecture Committee Chair, Multicultural Student Interest Committee Chair, Late Night Programming and Novelty Committee Chair, Special Events Committee Chair, and two CAB Interns.

Originally founded as the University Center Board in 1971, the CAB reported through the Associated Student Government. See UA12/3/3 for records created between 1971 and 1979. In 1979 the Board became independent from the Student Government Association and in 1999 changed it's name to the Campus Activities Board.
