The Freshman Class of Western Kentucky State College met in special session following the Ogden Oratorical Contest in chapel on April 13, 1955. Vice-president Charles Roberts called the meeting to order and further stated that the purpose of the assembly was to discuss the raising of freshman dues. Mr. Roberts asked for a show of hands in favor of the 25¢ dues. The vote showed unanimous approval.

The class adjourned following a few words from Mr. Cannon, in sponsor.

Respectfully submitted,

S. D. Benson, Sec.

Charles Roberts, Vice President
