THE SIX GENERATIONS OF "ARCHIES"

(Six Archie Pollocks)

These are the six generations of "Archies" of the Pollock family of Greenville, extending from the late 1700s to the present day, as given by Harry Pollock of Greenville.

(Generation 1) -- Archie A. Pollock of Scotland, married Mariam Thompson in 1818 in Glasgow, Scotland. He remained in Scotland.

(Generation 2) -- Archibald D. (Archie) Pollock, born in Scotland circa 1835, migrated to America. Worked at Airdrie for Lord Alexander as a coal miner and store proprietor. Also lived near Kinchloe, at Mud River and in Butler County. Married Julina Steele in Muhlenberg County Nov. 15, 1868. He died prior to 1886.

(Generation 3) -- Archie Pollock (1868-1928) born near Paradise, Muhlenberg County, Ky. Was mine superintendent for W. G. Duncan Coal Co. Killed in mine accident at Graham in 1928. Buried in Unity cemetery. Married Margaret E. Penman (1870-1962), who was born at Paradise and buried at Unity.

(Generation 4) -- Archie D. Pollock (1898-1970). Born at Mining City or Aberdeen in Butler County. Was coal mine superintendent. Married Catholene Cox, born 1912 in Lawrenceville, Ill. Her father was an oil well driller, working for James C. Ellis of Owensboro. She currently resides in Greenville. Mr. Pollock died in 1970 in New Orleans and is buried at Unity.

(Generation 5) -- Dr. Archie D. Pollock, Jr., born 1936 in Greenville, is a retired US Army colonel, and is presently headmaster of a private school in San Antonio, Texas. He is married to Clara Atkins.

(Generation 6) -- Capt. Archie D. Pollock III, born in Germany, a US Army officer now overseas, married Melinda Wing.

Harry Pollock of Greenville, who supplied this information, is a member of the Pollock fifth generation and currently works for Peabody Coal Company in Muhlenberg County.
