ORGANIZATIONAL HISTORY

Friendship Baptist Church was constituted with eighteen members at the Captain Procter Schoolhouse in Logan County, Kentucky, on May 23, 1834. The first pastor was Dudley Robinson, and the first deacon was B. Swearinger. Shortly thereafter a new church was erected near Myers Spring, where the congregation worshipped until June 16, 1866 when the body decided to move to Auburn. They remained in that location until November 16, 1867. The church was then re-organized at the original location and remained there until November 29, 1877 when their new church was dedicated and the name was changed to New Friendship Baptist Church.
