BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

John Morgan was born in Kenton County, Kentucky in 1944. He earned a Master's degree in Folk Studies at Western Kentucky University in 1995, completing a thesis on dark-fire tobacco. He received his undergraduate degree from Northern Kentucky University. For many years he was a videographer for Kentucky Educational Television, where he produced many works on Kentucky life and culture. Morgan had served in the United States Army, doing two tours of duty in Vietnam. Shortly after a special graduation ceremony held at his home, Morgan died of cancer, believed to be related to exposure to Agent Orange during the war. He was survived by his wife Lynn Bilotta. The Folk Studies seminar room located in the Ivan Wilson Fine Arts Center was re-named in his honor.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection includes fieldwork collected for a thesis on dark-fire tobacco barns. The thesis looks at the correlation between North Carolina and Calloway County, Kentucky tobacco barns. The collection also includes interviews related to tugboats on the Ohio River, Kentucky basket makers, and ghost stories and supernatural tales from western Kentucky. Much of the material related to the "Haunting Tradition" section was gleaned from WKU's Folklife Archives.

All staples were removed, and materials were placed in acid-free folders. The video film is in a variety of formats; please inquire about a specific film by the folder number and format information will be provided.
